ADDRESS OF THE IRISH BISHOPS TO THE QUEEN.

...of the Irish Bishops was ... Queen on Thursday, by ... of Canterbury and York, ... of London, and one or two ... prelates. It is terribly ... forth first that "it is now ever to alienate property ... time immemorial, has been ... religious uses." Secondly, ... Supremacy, that safeguard ... faith, must shortly disap... ...that disestablishment will ... loyalty. Fourthly, that ... have a vested right in the ... of the Church; and, fifthly, that ... established in the Church of ... is sanctioned to reply to the first ... such proposition has yet ... a mere invention of the ... avowed, that the disestab... ...which keep the Royal Supre... ...the third, that England ... without a bribe; to the ... Protestants mentioned have ... right as the Bishops allege; ... that the most scattered ... of all communities in the ... is the one which has ... converts to Rome.

Her Majesty's reply did not, we fear, greatly console the Irish Bishops. It avoids all reference to recent proceedings; but it does not imply that the Queen is prepared to stake her throne in defence of an institution which Parliament founded, and can therefore sweep away. "In compliance with the prayer of an Address from the House of Lords, I have issued a Commission to inquire into the state of the Church in Ireland; and I will not doubt that my Parliament, when fully informed, will adopt such measures as shall be just and conducive to the maintenance of true religion among my people."—London Spectator.

The Infanta Isabella, Princess Royal of Spain, was united in marriage to the Count of Girgenti, younger brother of the Ex-king of Naples, on the 13th inst. with all the pomp and pride of which the Spanish Court was capable. The Royal pair are to visit Rome and other capitals and then settle down in Madrid. The dowry is to be 36,000,000 of reals (£360,000 stg.)
