The Army Worm is fatal to the cotton crops, has appeared simultaneously in different and widely separated parts of Louisiana. It has also made its appearance on many plantations in Port Bend County, Texas, and is rapidly destroying the young cotton to an extent that many persons are ploughing up their cotton and planting corn.

A singular example of religious intolerance is furnished by the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, which by a vote of 14, has suspended a prominent member of that denomination, and declared in the Synod vacant, for the crime of singing hymns, when there have been sung.

The recently completed another and new boats of sixteen, with a capacity of over nine million bushels. In measuring the grain, as in former years, a half bushel, it is weighed in bulk, for the sake of convenience, but a great saving of labour and expense.

The annual report of the City Bank shows the net profits of the past year to be $119,737, which, with the balance previously on hand, made $230,777. Deducting two dividends of 4 per cent, $96,000, the balance at the credit of the reserve fund is $134,777.

FROM WHITBY.

Whitby, June 2.—A man named Geo. Patterson murdered his little son, five years of age, to-day. It appears that he is a widower, and has been keeping company at his house with a woman of bad character for the last few days, where they have been carousing. His children were hungry this morning, and ate some bread their father provided for himself and paramour. For so doing the unnatural father knocked down the poor little fellow, and kicked and stamped him to death. The Coroner is now holding an inquest.

On Wednesday, for the first time in England, a number of medical students dined with royalty. On that day the Prince of Wales, as President of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, took the chair at the "annual view dinner" in the great hall of the hospital. This was the first occasion of his doing so, and among the guests invited to meet his Royal Highness were the young prizemen of the past and present year.

A blue book has been published which shows that the expense incurred by publishing the survey of Jerusalem will soon be more than covered by the profits arising from the sale of copies of the survey, and of the photographs issued by the photographic department.

A soldier of the 13th Hussars, stationed in Montreal was last week tried by court martial for having caused the death of his horse by hard riding. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment, and to be put under stoppages of his daily pay until the value of the horse (some £30 sterling) be made good.
