CABLE NEWS.

Florence, June 6.—His Holiness the Pope has sent an agent to the United States to enlist troops there for the Papal army. Gen. Garibaldi has written several very earnest letters to his friends and to the author now in America, entreating them on behalf of the liberal party of Italy to discourage the project.

Dublin, June 6.—It was announced several days ago that Messrs Sullivan and Pigot, the editors who were accused of seditious writings, had been released on a writ of error. Mr Sullivan was so released, but the writ in the case of Pigot was defective, and that gentleman is consequently still in close confinement.

London, June 6.—Despatches have been received here stating that the English captives recently held by King Theodorus, of Abyssinia, and released by Napier, have arrived at Suez, Egypt, homeward bound.

St. Petersburg, June 6.—The Government has receipt of the latest intelligence from the war in Central Asia. The victory of the 2nd May and the capture of Bokhara are fully confirmed. The reported death of the Emir of Bokhara lacks, however, confirmation. The victorious Russian troops had pressed forward and taken the city of Samarcaino, which they also held at the latest accounts.

London, June 6.—Sir Stafford Northcote, the Secretary of State for India, has received late intelligence from the English troops in Abyssinia. The despatches were dated May 30. Gen. Napier hoped to reach the coast of the Red Sea at Zoulla by the first of June. He parted company with Kassai, his faithful native ally, the day before the date of his despatch.

Berlin, June 7.—Count Von Bismarck urges the adoption by the nations of England and America of treaties establishing a uniform international system for the measurement of the tonnage and capacity of shipping. He proposes the English method of measurement as the best basis for such system, but suggests that it be modified by the application of the metrical principle. The North German confederation is prepared to open negotiation with other foreign governments on this subject.

St. Petersburg, June 7.—The Emperor of Russia has issued an ukase setting free all persons of foreign birth now exiled to Siberia, and all natives of Russian Poland who are sentenced to less than twenty years' exile.

Brussels, June 7.—The newspaper Le Nord asserts that the opinion widely prevails that war will break out in Europe before the close of next autumn.

Vienna, June 7.—His Imperial Highness the Prince Napoleon has arrived here from Pesth. He was received by the Emperor Francis Joseph, with whom he held a close conversation. The objects of the Prince's visit is unknown.

The Chamber of Deputies of the Lower House of the Reichsrath has voted to fund all the different forms of national indebtedness with the exception of lottery obligations, placing the rate of interest at five per cent per annum, and imposing a heavy tax on coupons.

Glasgow, June 7.—The steamship Victoria arrived yesterday.

Southampton, June 7.—The steamship Saxonia arrived this morning.

Southampton, June 8.—The steamer Hansa, from New York, has arrived.

London, June 8, p.m.—Consols for money 95¼; Illinois 46; Illinois Central 100.

Liverpool, June 8, p.m.—Cotton quiet. Corn [illegible] 10d. Lard and pork dull.

New York Press Despatches.

Rockaway, June 6.—Nicholas Malady and family, residing about three miles from Seaville, were found yesterday at two o'clock p.m., murdered in their bedroom. The murder presents a horrible sight. Malady was beat with brick shot. Three grains were found in the brain. When found the wife's body was lying on the floor beside the bed, with her head smashed to a jelly with an axe. The walls, bed, curtains, window-curtains, and floor, were covered with blood. A son of the murdered man, a mute, is taken, and brother of the latter, have been arrested. No very strong evidence against them appears as yet. The house was robbed of considerable money.

Washington, June 7.—The Secretary of War gave a brilliant entertainment to the Chinese embassy last evening.

New York, June 8, 1 a.m.—The steamer City of Boston, from Liverpool, has arrived.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM.

FROM MONTREAL.

Montreal, June 8.—The inquest in the case of the soldier James England, who was shot dead on Friday evening, resulted in a verdict of wilful murder against Maurice Blake who fired the shot.

The Montreal Bank has presented its young men here with season tickets to the Mercantile Library.

At the Congregational Nunnery last week, seven ladies pronounced the religious vows, and ten took the habit of nuns.

According to the Journal of Three Rivers, it was decided at a recent Ecclesiastical Council that the present ecclesiastical province of Quebec should be divided into three parts—Quebec to comprise all Lower Canada; Ontario to be second, with Toronto as the see of the Archbishop, who is likely to be Mgr. Lynch; and the Red River to be the third.

A considerable portion of Volunteers is said to be under orders to leave this city on Tuesday for Huntingdon, Hemmingford, Durham, &c.

The gunboat Minstrel arrived yesterday, having been towed up by the Himalaya. She is for duty at Prescott and Cornwall.

Two engines were sent out to Mr Hodge's property to-day, to be used in making peat.

Her Majesty's ship of war Jason is expected here shortly. She is about the size of the Wolverine.

The peat speculation is unprofitable in Connecticut. The Hartford Times says—Losses have occurred in this and Tolland counties to the extent of about $350,000 in this speculation, and large sums in other parts of the state.

The gunboat Rescue arrived at Cornwall on Thursday morning, with orders to cruise upon Lake St. Francis until relieved by a vessel which is shortly expected to arrive from Halifax.

A female child was born in Lincoln county, Tennessee, the other day, having four distinct and well developed legs and feet. At last accounts it was alive and well.

There is a conscientious criminal serving a term of imprisonment at Krems, Austria, who asks for a new trial, on the ground that his sentence is not sufficiently severe.

A lawyer at Holyoke, Mass., was requested a few days since to attend the bedside of a dying woman at that place to write her last will and testament. He went promptly at the call, and wrote the document, the woman signed it without showing any unusual weakness, asked for a drink of water, lay back on her pillow and died, almost before the ink of her signature had dried.
