

hard working gentlemen. Benches were repaired and painted, and I'm sure you know that there will be picnic tables for your use, there is also going to be a play area for the little ones. The fine men who did such a good clean up job were: Mr. A. Tomsa, John Valaski, Otto Herrmann, Carl Prell, Ed. Schultz, and Mr. Nickelsen. Thank You.

Jim Garrity is home and recovering just fine, he is very grateful to all of you wonderful people who cheered him up with your mail.

That fine long legged bird brought a bouncing baby boy 8lbs 4oz. by the name of Kurt Edmund on May 9th to Carl and Dolores Prell, all are doing fine, so if you see Carl strutting around like a proud peacock you know why.

Well we sure had a lot of excitement at the homes where the children made their communion. The Casey household had a house full to wish their best to Dever and her sister Linda. Michael Harrington had about 40 guests to help him celebrate and his sister Kathy felt just as important because she was an angel in the procession. Mary Catherine Fredrick was the celebrity in her house and had her grandparents and aunts and uncles and cousins to help her. My daughter, Dorothy, was the important gal in our house and had company here from the city plus some nice gifts that were received through the mail. Pauline Schnieder was the happy one in her home and had company in to help her celebrate on this important occasion for these children.

The Chicago Motor Club gave their annual picnic for the Patrol Boys in Woodstock City Park, Woodstock, Illinois on May 14, and the children came from schools all over and I should say Patrol Girls too, because all schools do not use only boys. Games were played and there were plenty of refreshments for all and no one went home hungry, if they did it was their own fault.

The eighth graders from St. John spent a wonderful day in the city on May 7th. They went through the Museum of Science and Industry and a picnic lunch there and
