TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 16.

☞ SEE FIRST PAGE.

Eight telegraph clerks have been dispatched to the camp at Chalons for the express purpose of instructing young engineer officers in the science of telegraphy, as henceforth a certain number of telegraphists will form part of the staff of every commanding officer.

Communications from Paris state that the difficulty in proceeding with the demolition of the Luxemburg fortifications is based upon the expense. This is estimated at 30 million francs, which the Grand Duke has not at command. The Luxemburg Government refers to the treaty, which does not fix any period for the demolition.

Caroline C. Grant has won, in the Boston courts, a verdict of $1,000 damages against Jonas M. Willey, 2nd, for a breach of promise to marry, the defendant having pleaded the expensiveness of married life, and incompatibility of temper, as reasons for breaking off the engagement.

A casket of beautiful jewels, the property of a lady of rank, was disposed of on the 25th by auction. A magnificent brooch formed of bands of brilliants, the centre a fine large oval, and a pair of brilliant earrings en suite—275 guineas; a beautiful star-shaped brilliant brooch, with a large centre stone—335 guineas; a pair of magnificent single-stone brilliant earrings, surmounted by diamond coronets—845 guineas (Williams).—London paper.

Lord Lyons, among his other qualifications to represent England at the court of France, is becoming noted for his liberal hospitality. On the occasion of the Queen's birth-day he gave a very grand though select entertainment, and many distinguished Englishmen were present at the banquet. It is remarked that a feature in the ambassador's dinner was some real English turtle, the taste of which old British residents in Paris had almost forgottea.

A critique in the Figaro, by Henri de Rochefort, of M. Gerome's picture, "The Death of Marshal Ney," having given offence to the Prince de la Moskowa, the latter sent two friends (both general officers) to M. de Rochefort, demanding either a retraction or a meeting. M. de Rocheforte refused in the first place to retract anything. Next, he refused to fight on account of anything he had written in the character of a critic, but he added that if the Prince de la Moskowa absolutely thirsted for his blood, he had only to insult him to obtain the satisfaction he desired. Thus the affair remains at present.

Lord Elcho put a question to the Minister of War, apparently with the object of clearing up the alleged appointment of a French lady's-maid to the office of housekeeper at one of the military departments with the pay of a major in the army. Sir John Pakington replied that the housekeeper in the War Office had been appointed by Earl de Grey, that her salary is £100 a year, her predecessor having received £200, and that she is the wife of one of the War Office messengers named Bourne. The housekeeper in the Commander-in-Chief's Office had also been appointed "from private life" by his Royal Highness. Her salary is but £48 a year.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A terrible storm of wind and rain passed over the region of Utica on Saturday afternoon. A brick chimney, 80 feet high, attached to George W. Chadwick's Eagle Cotton Factory at New Hartford city, was thrown to the roof of the machine shop, crushing the structure to the ground. Eight men were at work in the shop. One man, Harry Knapp by name, was instantly killed, and four others were seriously injured. The loss is about $10,000.

Madame de Miramon, the widow of the Mexican General, who was executed at Queretaro with Maximilian, had a private audience of the Empress Eugenie recently. Her Majesty conversed with this lady for more than an hour, and asked her numerous questions about the Queretaro tragedy. Before taking leave the Empress informed Madame de Miramon that a pension of 6,000fr. a year would be granted her from her Majesty's private purse. As Madame de Miramon is already in receipt of a pension from Vienna, the total loss of her fortune is compensated for to an extent which could hardly have been hoped for, but some of her friends think the Court of Belgium ought to contribute.

Judge Hoar, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court has refused to grant a divorce on a libel brought on the grounds of gross and confirmed intoxication, contracted after marriage, because the husband, who sued for the bill, had been fined for selling intoxicating liquor. The Judge decided that a husband who violates a law of the Commonwealth by opening a liquor shop, puts his wife behind the counter, furnishes the means for carrying on the traffic, and his wife falls under the temptation, then the husband has no redress.

A contemporary publishes an analysis of the strange conglomeration of nationalities composing the Pope's Guard of Zouaves. It numbers 4,593 members, amongst whom there are 1,910 Dutch, 1,301 French, 686 Belgians, 147 Romans and other Pontifical subjects, 135 Canadians, 101 Irish, 87 Prussians, 50 English, 32 Spaniards, 22 Germans, 19 Swiss, 14 Americans, 14 Neapolitans, 12 Modenese, 12 Poles, 10 Scotch, 6 Tuscans, 6 Portuguese, 3 Maltese, 2 Russians, and a South Sea Islander, an Indian, an African, a Peruvian, a Mexican, and a Circassian.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DESERT.—In our youthful days we can vividly remember how our maps and geographies indicated pretty much all of the country embraced between the Missouri River and the Rocky Mountains to be a great waste, inhabited only by wild animals and Indians. Over the face of this area the startling word "unexplored" was associated with the still more repellent expression, "The Great American Desert." There were delicate little engravings here and there of groups of red men and herds of buffalo, but no word or sign to indicate any probability of future occupancy or development. From that day to this, however, the boundaries of this "Great Desert" have been rapidly contracting, until now it is difficult to discover a trace of any actual "Desert," according to the proper definition of the term. True, we have leagues of land between the Missouri and the mountains which may not be susceptible of the highest degree of agriculture and stock raising purposes, we do not believe there is any tract of sufficient extent to call for expression of a single regret. In fact, the word "desert" has no meaning on our grand Western plain. It is safe, says a writer, to predict that this same Great American Desert is really the most valuable, and will ere long become the most productive portion of the United States. During the month of March there was shipped from Nevada $10,018,977,67 in specie. This is the shipment for one month alone, and from a State which ten years ago was almost entirely uninhabited, and which formed a part of the Great Desert.—Leavenworth Times.

Holloway's Worm Lozenges.

Are certain and safe remedy for worms in children and adults. As it is a well known and melancholy fact that one great cause of death among children is from Worms alone. It cannot be too deeply impressed upon the minds of parents the necessity of closely watching their children. By so doing, and understanding the symptoms and true cause of the disease, thousands of children might be saved from early graves. The following are a few of the very numerous symptoms and diseases which are caused by Worms:—deranged appetite emaciated extremities, offensive breath, frequent picking at the nose, grinding of the teeth during sleep, hardness of the belly, with frequent slimy stools, abd sometimes convulsive fits, pain in the head and stomach, unquiet sleep, faintings, tremblings, coughs, indigestion, low spirits, frightful dreams, and a gradual wasting away of flesh. Holloway's Worm Lozenges are palatable and self-administered to the child—drive out the worms thoroughly without pain and completely cleanse the stomach—thereby doing away with the necessity of administering Castor Oil or other unpleasant cathartic. Each box contains the fac-simile signature of Northrop & Lyman, Newcastle, C. W., who are the sole proprietors. N.B.—Ask for Holloway's worm Lozenges, and take no other. Price twenty-five cents a box. Sold by all Medicine Dealers everywhere.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.

Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this universally valled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.,

Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,

Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,

Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the personal attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,

Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.

"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholaic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,

Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of this substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,

Author of the "Spas of Germany."

"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,

Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.

"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."

FRATERNITY LAW COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

On the first of June, in London, a Blue Book was issued for the information of Parliament, giving the report of the Neutrality Law Commissioners, together with an Appendix containing reports from United States, and other documents. The report, in as follows:—

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, appointed to inquire into and consider the nature, working and effect of the laws now available for the enforcement of neutrality during the existence of hostilities between other States with whom Your Majesty is at peace, and to require and report whether any and what changes should be made in such laws for the purpose of bringing them into full conformity with Your Majesty's international obligations, have now to state to your Majesty that they have held twenty-four meetings, have inquired into and considered the matters so referred to us, have agreed to the following report:—

"The statute now available for the enforcement of neutrality during the existence of hostilities between States with whom Your Majesty is at peace is the 59th of the reign of George III, c. 69, commonly called the "Foreign Enlistment Act." The title of the Act is "An act to prevent the enlistment or engagement of his Majesty's subjects to serve in foreign service, and the fitting out or equipping in his Majesty's dominions vessels for warlike purposes without his Majesty's licence." And the preamble runs thus: "Whereas the enlistment or engagement of his Majesty's subjects to serve in foreign service without his Majesty's licence and fitting out and equipping of vessels by his Majesty's subjects without his Majesty's licence for warlike operations in or against the dominions or territories of any foreign prince, State, or state or persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or of any foreign country, colony, province or part of any province, or against the persons, goods or merchandise of any prince, State, potentate, or persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or of any foreign country, colony, province or part of any province, or against the persons, goods or merchandise of any prince, State, potentate, or persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of government in or of any other subjects, may be prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace, welfare of this Kingdom; and whereas the laws in force are not sufficiently adapted for preventing the same."

"We then, being the statute directly bearing on this country for the enforcement of neutrality, our duty has been to inquire and report whether it is susceptible of any and what amendments, and we are of opinion that it might be made more efficient by the enactment of provisions based upon the following resolutions:—

"(a) That it is expedient to amend the Foreign Enlistment act by adding to its provisions a prohibition against the preparing or fitting out in any part of her Majesty's dominions of any naval or military expedition to proceed from thence against the territory or dominions of any State with whom her Majesty shall then be at war.

"(b) That the first paragraph of Clause 7 of the Foreign Enlistment act should be amended to the following effect: "If any person shall, within the limits of her Majesty's dominions, fit out, arm, dispatch or cause to be despatched, any ship with intent or knowledge that the same shall be employed in the military service of any foreign power in any war being waged by such power against the subjects or property of any other or belligerent power with whom her Majesty shall not then be at war; (b) or within her Majesty's dominions build any ship with the intent that the same, after being fitted out and armed within or beyond her Majesty's dominions, be employed as aforesaid; (c) or shall commence or attempt to do, or shall be doing, any of the acts aforesaid, such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor."

"That in order to enable the Executive government more effectually to restrain and prevent attempted offences under section 7 of the Foreign Enlistment act, an additional provision to the following effect should be inserted in the statute:—

"That if a Secretary of State shall be satisfied that there is a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a ship which is within the limits of Her Majesty's dominions has been or is being built, equipped, fitted out, or armed, contrary to the enactment, and is about to be taken beyond the limits, or that the ship is about to be despatched contrary to the enactment, such Secretary of State shall have power to issue a warrant stating that there is such reasonable and probable cause for believing, and directed to any person or persons authorised by such warrant, and upon such warrant the Commissioners of Customs, or any officer of Customs or persons named in the warrant, shall have power to seize and search such ship, and to detain the same until it shall be condemned or released by process of law, and to detain and man-of-war hereinafter mentioned. (d) That the owner may, by order of Her Majesty's Secretary of State, be permitted to apply to the Court of Admiralty of the place where the ship is detained, or if there be no such Court within a reasonable distance, to the nearest Court of Admiralty, for the release of such ship, and that the court may, in the matter of such detention in case it shall appear that the detention was without reasonable cause, order the owner to be indemnified by the Queen's Privy Council. (e) That if it shall be established to the satisfaction of the court that the ship was not and is not intended to be employed as aforesaid, and that the ship was not and is not built, equipped, fitted out, or armed, or intended to be despatched, contrary to the enactment, the ship shall be released. (f) That if the owner of such ship shall be able to establish to the satisfaction of the court that the ship was not and is not built, equipped, fitted out, armed or intended to be despatched, contrary to the enactment, the ship shall be detained till the court may, if it shall think fit, order the ship to be released, upon such owner giving security to the satisfaction of the court that the ship shall not be employed contrary to the enactment, and that no proceedings are pending for the condemnation of such ship in the Court of Admiralty. (g) That if the court shall be of opinion that there was reasonable and probable cause for
