TRADE ON THE FRONTIERS.

The following is the text of the bill introduced in the House on Monday by Mr [illegible] to regulate trade on our northern frontiers:—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following-named articles, being the growth and product of the British North American Provinces, shall be admitted into the United States, when directly imported, at a rate of five per centum ad valorem. That hay; grain, flour, and breadstuffs of all kinds; fish, smoked, and salted meats; fruits, green and dried fruits; fish of all kinds, products of fish and of all other animals living in the water, poultry, butter, cheese, maple sugar, lard, tallow; timber and lumber of all kinds, round, hewed, but not otherwise manufactured, whole or in part; fish-oil, coal, coal, grindstones, rough and manufactured, provided that similar articles of growth and product of the United States shall be admitted into the said Provinces of British North America at a rate not higher than the duty imposed by the act upon similar articles when imported into the United States from the provinces aforesaid. And provided, further, that all export duties upon any of the enumerated articles shall be abolished and cease to exist.

2. And be it further enacted, That the use and privilege of navigating the waters of Lake Michigan by citizens of the United States, the same rights and privileges are conceded to the citizens of the United States by Canada in the waters of the St. Lawrence and its canals as are enjoyed by British subjects, without distinction as to tolls and charging rates proportioned to the distance. And, provided that for the transit of goods, wares, and merchandise in bond, under proper regulations, without duty across the territory of the United States, to and from Portland, and the British line, equal privileges shall be conceded to the United States from Windsor or Detroit, or other western points of delivery on the Buffalo or Ogdensburg, or any other points eastward. And provided further, that the free ports in Canada shall be closed.

3. And be it further enacted, That the rights of fishing near the shore existing under the treaty with Great Britain of 1818, known as the "Reciprocity Treaty," shall be granted and conceded by the United States to the said Provinces of British North America, provided that the same rights and privileges of fishing, as enjoyed and now understood to exist under the said treaty, shall be granted and conceded by the said Provinces to the United States in every respect, including the shore fisheries of the waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the waters and shores of the Provinces Erie, Huron, and Superior, with full privileges to the citizens of the United States to fish for or take, dry, and cure any fish of any kind whatever, within three marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks, or harbours of British North America, the same as are enjoyed by citizens of British North America, and without distinction as between citizens of the United States and of the said Provinces of British North America as to dues or regulations.

4. And be it further enacted, That if at any time after this act shall go into effect unless all the stipulations and conditions herein provided are mutually agreed to by the said Governments of British North America, and are mutually reciprocally enforced by the Governments of British North America, as well as the United States; and upon the failure of any of the said Provinces of British North America, or any of them, to give to any of the reciprocal provisions of this act, either as regards the mutual admission of articles, the natural growth and product of each country as heretofore admitted, the free navigation of the St. Lawrence and the canals thereof, the privileges of the fisheries, or any other provision herein contained which depends upon mutual agreement, concession, or privilege, made by the said Provinces to the United States,—then the provisions, conditions, and requirements of this act shall be held to cease and to be of no effect so far as the said Provinces are concerned, and public notice to that effect shall at once be given by proclamation of the President of the United States,—the true intent and meaning of this act being that it shall only apply to those Provinces of British North America which mutually become parties hereto, and by such reciprocal legislation as may be necessary to give them effect.

Captain Perry of the Memphis, Tenn., police, who was wounded in a recent affray with a negro burglar some days ago, died on Friday night.

A photographer of Berlin, wishing to add to his stock a likeness of Julia Ebergenyi, the poisoner, requested a friend in Vienna to procure one for him. His friend, unable to get what he wanted, sent him instead photographs of the beautiful Princess Metternich, which the photographer sold and sold in thousands as the likeness of the criminal. Most of the illustrated papers of Europe have accepted Prince Metternich's likeness as that of Julia Ebergenyi, and the Princess has brought an action against the Prussian photographer for the mischief which he has thus innocently been the means of bringing upon her.

A very amusing incident is related of a Judge in Georgia by a Georgia paper. The door of the judge's stage was occasionally left open, that he might enjoy the freedom of the breeze. One day he happened to light upon a musty shelf whereupon was a law book. Here was a new discovery of the profoundest interest. He gazed long and intently at himself and came to the conclusion that he had found a mate. He took his cage he selected a seed from his box and brought it in his bill as a present to the stranger. In vain the bird exerted himself to make his new acquaintance partake, and becoming weary of the attempt, hopped back to his cage and tried another tack. Stepping back to the door, drank the glass he poured for his guest, pausing now and then to see if he was coming, and moody enough he flew back to his perch, hung his head in shame and silence for the rest of the day; and although the door was accidentally left open he refused to go again.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

℞ For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are its cures, that in almost every section of country are persons publicly known, who have been restored by it from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs incident to our climate.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who, for upwards of thirty years, has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.

Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

Be sure and call for

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. deem if unnecessary in their announcement above to notice the advertisement of their competitor, Mr P. C. Cline. They beg to inform the public that it was not the privilege of Mr Cline to retain all of the late J. C. Fox's workmen.

The Advertisers were selected by the late Mr Fox from the best establishments in New York, (Steinway's, Stoddard's, Weber, Gabler, etc.)

After Mr Fox's death, and before Mr. Cline's purchase of a part of Mr Fox's stock, Rappe, Weber & Co. had determined to go into business on their own account. As at present constituted, their establishment consists of four Proprietors, every one of whom have been foremen, and their workmen who have been foremen; so that so far as the "culling of workmen" (a novelty in language) is concerned, Rappe, Weber & Co. have the honour to announce that they made their selection before it was permitted to Mr Cline to make his. If Mr Cline was a practical Piano maker, it might be competent to him to remark upon the skill of other workmen; but as he is not, it may be well to remind him that the shoemaker should stick to his last.

The Advertisers do not press upon the public the merits of any Travelling Agent, and any person holding himself out as such may be treated as utterly unauthorized. Our Pianos are candidates for popular favour, and we have no doubt they will win it
