RETURN OF THE ABYSSINIAN ARMY.

A despatch from Sir R Napier, dated Antalkoom, April 24, has been received, containing a report of the condition of the Abyssinian force. The following is the interesting portion: "Since the last report the 1st and 2nd Brigades, forming the 1st Division of the army, marched from Abdikoom to Sindu, across the Jita ravine and river to the Jita plain, where the whole force concentrated, and on the 10th instant crossed Bashelo river. Upon that date the brigade engaged the enemy on the right bank of the Bashelo river, defeating them, leaving before Magdala, defeating them, leaving loss. The two brigades encamped about a mile apart, and six miles north of the Bashelo river, for six days, the conclusion of the operations against Magdala, that fortress being taken by us on the 13th inst. The 2nd Brigade reinforced by the head-quarters and companies of the 45th Regiment, joined it on the 7th inst. on the Jita plain, and 1st Brigade by the mounted wing, 3rd Dragoon Guards, and wing, Belooch Regiment, which joined the 12th inst. at the Camp before Magdala. On the 18th inst. the 1st Division commenced its return march and reached the Bashelo river, encamping on the Jita plain at the top of the ascent, where it was halted for two days to rest transport animals, which had suffered from a want of food and water during operations before Magdala. On the 23rd a pioneer force, under the command of Major Chamberlain, and consisting of wing 33d Punjaub Pioneers, two troops Sappers and Miners, one troop Bombay Cavalry, marched to precede the division in return, and to clear all obstacles from the road. On the 21st the head-quarters of the division, with the 2nd Brigade, marched across the Dalanta plain to the top of the descent of the Jita, which they crossed to-day and encamped at Antalkoom. The first brigade also marched and encamped on the ground vacated by the 2nd Brigade in the morning. The head-quarters, 3rd Regiment Scinde Horse have been transferred to the 2nd Brigade and the head-quarter wing, 3rd Dragoons, to the 1st Brigade. With these exceptions and the additions above noted, the two brigades are composed of the same troops laid down in the last report. Two companies of the 33d Regiment have since been ordered to join the detachment from the 2nd Brigade. The wing of the 3d Regiment Native Infantry, which left Dildee in the last return, and the head-quarters of the 10th Bengal Cavalry at Kalooga, have been ordered to return to Annesley Bay. The remainder of the Division, in same columns, i.e., the 1st Brigade, the 1st and 2nd Brigades, marching by stages, and will reach Annesley respectively on or about the 15th and 16th proximo. The troops composing the 2nd Division and Zoolla will pursue the same stations as noted in former report. The 26th Cameron Highlanders arrived, and are at present located at Zoolla. Arrangements are being made for the embarkation of the whole and the shipment of horses, mules, &c., at as early a date as possible."

A TIGER AT LARGE.

A friend, of Antwerp, gives the following fearful mishap, accompanied with most tragic circumstances, spread on Thursday morning last through the town of St. Jacques. The Zoological Garden has for a long time been in possession of two magnificent Bengal tigers, one of which was to be forwarded to London. By accident, the animal was placed in a wagon secured with strong iron bars. About three in the morning the railway guards perceived an enormous animal springing at a bound the wall which separates the Zoological Garden from the public thoroughfare. The tiger had, in fact, with its head bent and broken two of the bars of his cage. The first object they saw the cart-horse of a night-soil man happened to be passing. The brute pounced on the unfortunate horse, tore him in the flank, and tearing the cart that attached him to the cart. The man, who at first sought safety on the cart's back, hid himself under the cart, but before receiving a wound in the thigh from the tiger's paw. Meantime the horse, mad with terror and pain, galloped furiously towards the the market of St. Jacques, followed by the tiger. Here another terrible event occurred. A gardener who was passing the street attracted the fury of the beast. The tiger sprang at him, tearing his breast, legs, and neck in a manner unusual. Having finished his victim in the usual thorough fashion, his body some distance; he then shouldered it and rushed into St. Anne's street, where his presence caused indescribable terror. M. Vekemans, director of the Zoological Garden, proceeded with his staff in pursuit, and came up with the animal at the corner of St. Jacques and St. Anne's. At this moment three other persons took refuge in a shop opposite this. The tiger halted and stood for a moment as if he intended to rush at them through the window. He pursued his course, however, through the market. M. Vekemans, with his assistants, after the animal, followed St. Anne's court, barricaded the door, and placed a trap in it with a view of taking him alive. They then got in rear of the court in order to close this trap. The tiger lay against the door of the atelier of M. Jaffelier, the sculptor, but perceiving that the men in pursuit on the other side of the house, he leaped on the roof of the house, and assumed a most menacing attitude. M. Vekemans, De Braekeleer, and Verhoven were armed with guns. The tiger having perceived them, descended from the roof, evidently on making an attack, and when within a few metres of he crouched to make a spring. The order to fire was given, and the balls were discharged in succession. Three appeared to have missed, but the fourth struck the animal, the third inflicting a mortal wound. He tottered towards the entrance of the court, where the sculptor finished him with a fourth ball, and died in the hospital at the same morning.

Who is Mrs. Winslow?

As this question is frequently asked, we will imply say that she is a lady who, for upwards of thirty years, has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No MOTHER has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City.

Sold by all druggists 25 cents a bottle.

Be sure and call for

Large Manufacturers of

GRAND OVERSTRUNG SQUARE

PIANOS,

Corner of King & Princess streets

KINGSTON, ONTARIO.

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. announce to the Public that they are now in possession of facilities for manufacturing Pianos unsurpassed, if equalled, by any in the Dominion.

The members of the Firm are Practical Piano Makers, and are anxious to establish their success in manufacturing enterprise by careful workmanship rather than by mere speculation. They are able skilfully to superintend every department, and are prepared to guarantee every instrument they sell.

For strength of manufacture and materials, beauty of finish, and durability and excellence of tone, they challenge the Dominion to produce superior instruments; and while they claim for their work every excellence that can be expected from skillful and enterprising workmen, they beg to announce that their resources are sufficiently ample to enable them to compete in prices with any speculator in Pianos.

The Subscribers keep no Travelling Agent. All orders addressed to the Subscribers, or sent through any respectable Music Dealer, will receive attention. Orders through mail will be attended to as if selected in person.
