A PENITENTIARY FEAST.

At the Albany Penitentiary, on Sunday, after the regular morning service, Captain Pillsbury, the warden, said to the prisoners:—

"If I permitted you to retire to your cells without some explanation you would be very much surprised at what you would there find. A kind hearted, generous gentleman, Mr H. C. Dorsey, of Pawtucket, R. I, sent to me, several weeks since, a draft for $100 to buy strawberries and sugar—to be given to you at such a time as I thought best. You will, on your return to your rooms, find a large dish of strawberries and sugar for each and all of you. That you may never forget the donor, I have caused a card to be printed with his name and address, which you will find on each dish, and which you can retain. As I have not seen them since they have been distributed, you will not take them in until we have an opportunity to look at them. When the gong will be struck you will take them in and close the door. You can eat them whenever you please, but I should advise you to keep them to look at until after you have had your regular dinner. You will then have all the afternoon and evening to enjoy them."

The prisoners then went to their cells, before the door of each of which was a quart of berries covered with sugar. The prisoners stood in their cell doors until the sound of the gong, when each removed the dish within his cell, and the doors were locked. The visitors, a large number of ladies and gentlemen, were then invited to the Superintendent's residence, where a collation was provided. During the services in the chapel, ex-speaker Callicot sat upon one of the front seats near the platform. His associate in the whiskey frauds, John Devlin, who also was sentenced for two years, sat upon the same seat; while Colonel Enright, another of the whiskey ring, sat in the immediate vicinity. Both Callicot and Devlin, not being sentenced to hard labour, are employed in the hospital.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE OF CONSUMPTION IN CANADA.

MESSRS YOUNG & CHAMBERLAIN,—Sirs, I feel it a duty I owe to you, as well as to the public, to inform you of the most wonderful cure of Consumption, accomplished in my person, by the use of the great Shoshonees Remedy and Pills. I coughed a great deal day and night, expectorating large quantities of matter, and had a great pain about my left lung. I had cold chills every day, and several night sweats every night, and between the racking cough and great sweating, I was almost deprived of sleep, by these miseries as well as the loss of appetite. I was so reduced that I could hardly stand alone. I was under the care of a physician for a length of time, but finding no relief, I tried different remedies, but all without any good effect. Squire Paterson, of Bath, recommended me to use the Great Shoshonees Remedy. I procured three bottles at once, with the Pills; so soon as I commenced using it I began to get better, and when I had finished the component, the Cough, expectoration of matter, pain about the lung, chills, sweating, &c., left me, and by continuing its use I became strong and healthy. It took over two months since I quit the Remedy, and there have been no symptoms of the disease returning, and I have been, and am now, healthier and better than I have been for many years. I trust you will make this known to the public, that they may be aware of the peculiar virtues of this truly wonderful Indian Remedy.

Rev. W. F. S HARPER,
Rector of Bath, C. W.

THE perfection and cheapness of the American (Waltham) watch have given it such a wide-world celebrity that unscrupulous dealers years ago imitated its style and pirated its trade marks. Irresponsible dealers are occasionally found who furtively trade upon the popularity of the American watch by selling a base imitation under the name of the genuine article.

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches are worthless as time-keepers, and when bought for the genuine are calculated to injure the high reputation which our watches have attained. The several grades of the American watch (except the lowest grade marked Home Watch Co.) are guaranteed by special certificate bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. E. ROBBINS. The purchaser should in all cases require one of these certificates, which is furnished to all dealers in the genuine watches.

The following are the trade marks on the several grades of our manufacture:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO.
APPLETON, TRACY & CO.
WALTHAM WATCH CO.
P. S. BARTLETT.
WM. ELLERY.
HOME WATCH CO.
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO.

Office of the General Superintendent,
Altona, Pa., 15th Dec., 1866.

GENTLEMEN—The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this Railroad for several years by our engine men, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are some THREE HUNDRED OF THEM CARRIED ON OUR LINE, and we consider them GOOD and RELIABLE TIME-KEEPERS. Indeed I have great satisfaction in saying YOUR WATCHES GIVE US LESS TROUBLE and have worn and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation, but as a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours.

In these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr Lewis, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.
Locomotive Dep't Western Division,
Rochester, Dec. 24, 1866.

GENTLEMEN—I have no hesitation in saying that I believe the great majority of locomotive engineers have found by experience that WALTHAM WATCHES ARE THE MOST SATISFACTORY of any for their uses. They RUN WITH THE GREATEST ACCURACY AND STEADINESS, notwithstanding the roughriding of an engine; and as I have NEVER KNOWN ONE TO WEAR OUT, they must be durable. I hope to see the time when railway companies will generally adopt your watches, and furnish them to all engineers and conductors. In my opinion it would greatly tend to promote regularity and safety.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES WILSON,
G. Chief Engineer,

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.

Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this unrivalled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.,
Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland,

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,
Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,
Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the personal attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,
Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.

"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholaic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,
Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of that substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,
Author of the "Spas of Germany."

"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,
Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.

"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."

THE NEW RUSSIAN AMNESTY.

The amnesty given by the Emperor on occasion of the birth of the young Duke, has been published. It is a full amnesty promulgated since the insurrection, and, like the others, leaves the Siberian exiles but little to be thankful for. The class of political offenders to whom the amnesty is to apply are those who have neither been guilty of murder nor robbery before their banishment, and who have obtained a certificate of good conduct from the Siberian authorities. As in the eyes of the Russian Government a Pole who killed a Russian, whether by accident or otherwise, during the late insurrection, was a murderer, and every insurgent who laid hands on the Government property for national purposes was a thief, the amnesty excludes from the advantages of the amnesty all those who are undergoing the severer kinds of punishment imposed on account of their participation in the insurrection. It also excludes those who took part in the insurrection in Siberia itself, in 1868. As for the certificate of good conduct required to qualify an exile for the amnesty, certificates are only given to those who declare that they repent their past misdeeds, and give a guarantee of their future attachment to Russia.

DARK SIDE OF CALIFORNIA.

Mr. Woodhaus, Santa Clara, California, lately written a letter to the New Haven Palladium, in which, after alluding to the fact that companies of speculators are recently taken up some 200,000 acres of the best government land in the state, and, like the others, disregarding the counsels of the press generally, and the advantages of California, in strong language, but which he thinks intended to conceal information that important to emigrants, he says:

"It is a duty to say a few words to the public of what I know and have experienced as a California farmer for the last three years. The climate is healthy and pleasant, but some parts are more subject to fevers than others.

"I shall know there are two seasons, a wet and a dry; when the wet one comes which is sometimes early in November, at other times not until the middle of December, spring in a day, grass and vegetation springs up and parched to perfect dryness through the summer and fall. As to the climate is exceedingly variable, during which scorching winds prevail, parching everything from one to two feet deep. The rains for rain always returns, but the management and time is different, sometimes the rain comes every fortnight, in the form of heavy showers, and come pouring down, washing away bridges, and even houses. At other seasons they are numerous, the clouds are attracted by the mountains and mountains, and there falls only from two or three inches to eight or ten inches of moisture, as in the seasons from 1855 or 1856 with one exception, which was called the wet winter.

"The farmers, adjoining farms and Santa Clara Valley, during those years, produced five or six bushels down to nothing per acre. One year, from 100 acres not a bushel was gathered. This was all through that part of the country, and is bad, if not worse, in the San Joaquin Valley, and in all the large valleys of California. All the cattle were starved there, and through all the southern part of the state. Those who sowed lost their seed, until the country of the state, especially, was thought to be bankrupt. Except for the little afforded for cattle, every acre of this agricultural country would be sold before now with land. Many have turned away and gone to their Eastern homes, disgusted with California.

"The prospect of rain the three last years is a different aspect to these parts. If plenty have ready to sow, if the seasons prove favourable, the results will be very different. My experience of California seasons of fertility and periods of years.

"Yours, &c., &c."
