DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.

DR. DE JONGH'S Oil is convincingly proved by an overwhelming weight of medical testimony, and by the practical test of successful experience for twenty years in all parts of the world, to be, beyond all question, the purest, the most efficacious, the most palatable, and, from its rapid curative effects, the most economical of all kinds.

Hence the universal celebrity of Dr. de Jongh's Oil, and the unparalleled demand for this unrivalled preparation.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR HENRY MARSH, BART., M.D.,
Physician in Ordinary to the Queen in Ireland.

"I have frequently prescribed Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil. I consider it to be a very pure oil, not likely to create disgust, and a therapeutic agent of great value."

DR. EDWARD SMITH, F.R.S.,
Medical Officer to the Poor Law Board of Great Britain.

"We think it a great advantage that there is one kind of Cod Liver Oil which is universally admitted to be genuine—the Light-Brown Oil supplied by Dr. de Jongh. It has long been our practice, when prescribing the oil, to recommend this kind, since, amidst a much variety and uncertainty, we have confidence in its genuineness."—(Extract from "Consumption: its Early and Remediable Stages.")

DR. LANKESTER, F.R.S.,
Coroner for Central Middlesex.

"I consider that the purity of this oil is secured in its preparation, by the personal attention of so good a chemist and intelligent a physician as Dr. de Jongh, who has also written the best medical treatise on the oil with which I am acquainted. Hence, I deem the Cod Liver Oil sold under his guarantee to be preferable to any other kind as regards genuineness and medical efficacy."

DR. LETHEBY,
Medical Officer of Health, and Chief Analyst to the City of London.

"In all cases I have found Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil possessing the same set of properties, among which the presence of cholaic compounds, and of iodine in a state of organic combination, are the most remarkable. It is, I believe, universally acknowledged that this oil has great therapeutic power; and from my investigations, I have no doubt of its being a pure and unadulterated article."

DR. BARLOW, F.R.S.,
Senior Physician to Guy's Hospital.

"I have frequently recommended persons consulting me to make use of Dr. de Jongh's Cod Liver Oil. I have been well satisfied with its effects, and believe it to be a very pure oil, well fitted for those cases in which the use of that substance is indicated."

DR. GRANVILLE, F.R.S.,
Author of the "Spas of Germany."

"Dr. Granville has found that Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil produces the desired effect in a shorter time than other kinds, and that it does not cause the nausea and indigestion too often consequent on the administration of the pale oil."

EDWIN CANTON, ESQ., F.R.C.S.,
Surgeon to Charing-cross Hospital.

"For several years past I have been in the habit of prescribing Dr. de Jongh's Light-Brown Cod Liver Oil, and find it to be much more efficacious than other varieties of the same medicine which I have also employed with a view to test their relative superiority."

MR GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN.

Judgment was given in the Court of Bankruptcy at Dublin on Tuesday in the case of Mr G. F. Train, when Judge Miller gave the history of the transaction with the Pale Iron Company. The question was only as to the sufficiency of the schedule. Of the alleged settlement made with Mr W. Henry there was (Judge Miller said) a particle of evidence produced. The startling fact presented by the schedule was that not a farthing was returned in the shape of debts, doubtful, or bad. Having regard to the fact that the admitted debt to the Pale Company was due since 1861, and that Mr Train's Australian property, amount to £18,000, and his American property (£30,000), were alleged to be on his wife without any real information being given, he must adjourn the case sine die.—Mr Train finished a warm altercation with the judge by a formal protest against the proceedings from beginning to end. I protest, in the name of the American Government, against the arrest. Your lordship stated that there was no appeal from your decision in bankruptcy, but I appeal to the army and navy of the United States of America, and I will yet have the power to remove you from the bench. There has been no delay from the commencement." Amid repeated bursts of applause from a crowded gallery whilst Train was uttering this "protest," and a mob accompanying him from the court as he went, he was conveyed, by the Marshalsea Prison, cheering loudly. The police ultimately rescued it.

ROYAL OF THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH IN ENGLAND.

Her Majesty's screw frigate Galatea, with his Royal Highness Ernest, Duke of Edinburgh, K.G., K.T., arrived at Spithead on the 26th June, about half-past 12 from Sydney. The arrival of the ship was ten days earlier than had been expected, and her guns as she saluted the flag of the Admiral commanding caused no little excitement ashore. The Admiral, Sir Geoffrey A. Com. G. Allen, went off to the frigate by Admiral Sir Frederick Grey with despatches and letters, and the Galatea was directed to place his Royal Highness at the service of the Captain of the Galatea. The civic authorities were less prompt. The Mayor and Town Clerk were at Ascot in London, but the ex-Mayor, a very brisk piece of time after the Galatea was proceeding over a meeting of the Aldermen and Councillors of Portsmouth at the Guildhall, where a brief and suitable address of congratulation to the Duke of Edinburgh on his recovery and safe arrival home was proposed, seconded, and carried with the greatest enthusiasm. H. landed at the new landing place at Southsea in undress uniform, to officially the arrival of his ship. The flags at the head of the steps were lined by ladies and gentlemen, who bowed to the Duke with the most profound respect. The Duke glanced along the lines of faces and returned their salutations, and it was apparently with a feeling of surprise that he suddenly recognized in the crowd Mr Anderson, the consul of her Majesty's private band, and, smiling, shook him by the hand most heartily. The Duke looked robust, and was quite recovered from the effects of his wound. He also appears somewhat stronger than he left England.

The Duke was afterwards engaged in the office of the Port Admiral, the officers of the corporate body of Portsmouth arrived in full official costume, with an attendance, and craved an interview with His Royal Highness, to present him with a loyal and dutiful address of congratulation, &c. This was beginning to tell on the troubles of the Duke at an early hour after landing; but the application was acceded to, and the members were presented at Lady Dasley's drawing room, where they were introduced formally, after which Mr Alderman Heilard read the address of the Corporation. The Duke in reply, briefly and in graceful terms thanked the Corporation, and assured them that he should take an early opportunity of acquainting Her Majesty with the proceedings of the Corporation, and assures them of the considerable pleasure he felt at the cordial welcome he had received from the people of Portsmouth. His Royal Highness left the Galatea at 3 o'clock. The Galatea sailed from Sydney on the 9th April last, and was the distance of Cape Horn in 28 days. Light winds have prevailed throughout the voyage, but a good passage has been made by the ship, having been used only on the last day of the entire voyage. The Galatea was sighted at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, 11 a.m. yesterday the Needles, between Hurst and Isle of Wight, and passed through the Solent on Friday, 8 30 p.m.—In the morning a telegraphic message was forwarded to Her Majesty the Queen announcing the safe arrival of his Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh in the Galatea, off Hurst Castle. The news of the Prince's return to England soon spread among the people of the Royal borough, which decorated their houses, and by 4 o'clock in the afternoon the High street, gateways and other principal places were a mass of bunting. As yet, it was known till late in the afternoon that the Duke might be expected, but the arrival of the different trains on the Brighton and London and South Western Railways was eagerly watched.

(By Telegraph.)

The Duke of Edinburgh has left the Galatea. There was an immense crowd at the Gunnery, Western Shore, when the Duke's carriage was seen to be drawn by four horses, and the Duke's carriage to the pier was cheered repeatedly, and Church bells pealed merrily.
