PREP ALL-STARS TO BE HONORED AT BANQUET

Eleben football players of the North Suburban League will be among 400 grid-ders honored at an Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 16, co-sponsored by the Chicago Tribune and the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Chicago. It will be held in the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Chicago.

Individual award presentations will be made to each of the players, who were named by the Tribune as Prep Football All-Stars for the 1965 season. Seventeen conferences in the Chicago-land area will be represented at the Banquet.

Frans Spears, president of the Chicago bottling company, will present each All-Star with a plaque. The Tribune will honor each athlete with a Certificate of Merit in Football, presented by Wilfrid Smith, sports editor.

"We're happy to have this opportunity to express personally our admiration for these fine young men," Spears said "Each one, by his outstanding performance on the playing field, has demonstrated the capacity to be among the leaders of his community in another generation. We hope that this recognition by the Tribune and our company will be encouraging to them in fulfilling that promise."

The local boy of the eleven players to be feted as the North Suburban League Football All-Stars is Ed Malenius, 2713 Pueblo Dr., McHenry, Ill.
