

A LEARNED MAN HAS ALWAYS WEALTH IN HIMSELF

TELLERS, AL VALES ON THE LEFT AND DON WATTLES ON THE RIGHT SERVE GEORGE COLLETTE AND BILL MALPEDE. THE WALK UP WINDOW AND THE DRIVE IN WINDOWS WILL BE OPEN AN ADDITIONAL HOUR EACH DAY AND ALSO ON FRIDAY EVENINGS, WHEN CONSTRUCTION IS COMPLETED.

amount almost $40,000 was paid in local taxes. A half million dollars was paid out in interest to savings depositors and of course the more than forty salaries of officers and employees is a major operating expense. Almost every village and subdivision in the area is represented on the bank payroll.

Vice-President and Trust Officer Richard J. Zieman reviewed the progress of the Trust Department. Mr. Zieman also gave a report on the building program that is nearing completion. When completed, there will be a total of nineteen teller stations available for peak periods. The stockholders were advised that they could expect an announcement soon from the Board of Directors extending the hours of the walk-up and drive-in windows.

The following directors were re-elected: Gerald J. Carey, William M. Carroll, William A. Nye, M.D., Robert L. Weber, Thomas F. Bolger, Richard J. Zieman, and William J. Cowlin.

The Board of Directors met at the reorganization meeting and appointed the following officers: William, Chairman of the Board; Gerald J. Carey, President; Robert L. Weber, Executive Vice-President and Trust Officer; Thomas F. Bolger, Cashier; James E. Larkin, Vice-President; Richard J. Zieman, Vice-President and Trust Officer; Lenora E. Frisby, Assistant Trust Officer; Donald Wattles, Assistant Cashier; Lillian Cairns, Assistant Cashier; Alan M. Meyer, Assistant Cashier; Ronald J. Vacula, Assistant Cashier; and Albert Vales, Assistant Cashier.

Ron Vacula and Al Vales are new officers of the bank with both being appointed Assistant Cashiers. Vacula will head the growing Savings Department while Vale's duties will be those of head teller. Miss Frisby was elevated from Assistant Cashier to the present position of Assistant Trust Officer and will be available to assist in the growing Trust Department.

Subscribe Now

McHENRY GARAGE

Jeep Sales and Service

NICK P. MILLER, Owner

Phone 385-0403

926 N. Front Street

McHenry, Illinois