

BACK TO COLLEGE

... and you're wondering about how he should handle
his money!

We've watched many families make all sorts of answers and take it from us — he will do best with...

His Own Special Checking Account

...and here's why

1. He gets good training in the important matter of money management.
2. He will learn to appreciate the actual cost of his education.
3. The family will have a good basis for determining money needs for future years of school.
4. His checks will provide good receipts for bills paid.
5. His account will separate his expenditures from Dad's and Mother's own living expenses and will avoid unexpected drains on the family account.
