POLICE COURT.

Thursday, May 3rd.

BEFORE MR. CREIGHTON.

A good many fresh cases were before the court this morning.

DRUNK AND VAGRANT.

John Thomas, a seedy fellow, was committed to gaol for ten days for drunkenness Daniel Rhoderick, a respectable person, and Margaret Connolly, were charged with drunkenness, and appealing very strongly for liberty were discharged.—Etta King and Johanna Murphy, two of the street-walkers, were let go, the former promising to go to Watertown.

A COW CASE.

Wm. Coburn was charged with—well, with no specific charge. He had some dealings with Dr. Skinner about a cow, and went to the residence of the latter last night to take the animal away by force, kicking up quite a rumpus. Dr. Skinner sent for the police, and, as Corpl. Foxton says, ordered them to arrest Coburn, as he had broken into his place and was stealing his cow. Dr. Skinner would not prosecute Coburn on that charge, contending that he merely instructed the police to arrest him for 'taking' the cow. The case was amicably settled and the charge withdrawn.

RECEIVING GOODS.

Mr. Thomas Mostyn was charged with receiving stolen goods. The case arose out of the sale of a piano. Mr. G. H. Fleck, of this city, recently separated from his wife, and the latter took possession of the piano, which she sold to Mr. Mostyn. Mr. Fleck contended that the piano was his property, and to recover it, brought the present action. The question at issue was as to whom the piano belonged; for if it was Mrs. Fleck's personal property, she had a right to do with it as she liked. Mr. Macarow appeared for Mr. Fleck, and Mr. C. V. Price for Mr. Mostyn.

Mr. G. H. Fleck deposed that he had lived in Maple Row until the last separation with his wife; about ten o'clock on Monday night he locked up the house, the piano being all safe; next morning he discovered that a window had been broken out, and the piano removed; found it afterwards at Mr. Mostyn's house, and procured it under a search warrant. He purchased the piano at Linton's Auction Rooms last year, paying $200 for it. It was his own individual interest. Being cross-examined, Mr. Fleck admitted that Mrs. Fleck's father had sent her money, including £75 sterling last summer, but that the piano was not purchased with this money.

Mr. C. V. Price deposed that a separation between Mr. Fleck and his wife occurred last June, and that a consultation was held at his office, the £75 being brought into question in making an assignment.—Mr. Fleck then admitted that he had spent $200 of this money for the piano, $100 had been spent for the house, $100 being left in the Bank, which she could draw. He also consented to let her have the piano, if they separated again for good.

Mrs. Fleck was also examined, and deposed that the £75 were received in her name, and that the piano was bought with with a portion of it. She sold the piano for $300 to Mr. Mostyn. She did not know who took it out of Mr. Fleck's house, but it was done by her own order.

The decision was reserved.

KINGSTON COMMERCE AND MARINE.

Business was brisker yesterday along the wharves, with a prospect of becoming brisker every day.

The American Express steamer Ontario passed up in the morning, being her second trip of the season. She arrives from Charlotte to-day again, returning from Ogdensburg and getting back here on Sunday. The propeller Indian Hamilton for Montreal, called at noon, and loaded freight. She was loaded down and was to discharge 500 bbls flour at Ogdensburg. The propeller Avon has cleared for Gananoque to wood. She proceeds up the lake on her first trip on Saturday. Her extensive repairs have detained her longer than was expected.

The tug Wales arrived from Hamilton yesterday morning, having in tow the barge Scotland, loaded with 151,000 W. I. staves from the same port. The tug Advance left for Toronto during the day with the barge Quebec, light, in tow. The schooner Mary Taylor cleared on Wednesday for Bayfield, light. The following reported inwards yesterday: schooner Iron Rail, Belleville, 25,000 feet of pine lumber, Cameron and Moodie; schooner Rapid, Hamilton, 13,801 bushels of peas, Canada produce, Glassford, Jones & Co.

THE PROPELLER NORTH ASHORE.—The propeller North, Capt. Riddell, is ashore at Racine on Lake Michigan. She was insured in several Toronto companies for a large sum in the aggregate, who will probably lose pretty heavily, as the vessel is hard on.

The Provincial steamship Lady Head, will commence her regular trips from Quebec to the Lower Ports on Tuesday, 8th May.

In consequence of the light fall of snow and severe frosts during the winter, there were fears entertained that the grain crop of Lower Canada would be injured, but we are happy to learn from persons who have been over a large portion of the Eastern Townships that such is not the case, in that portion of the country, at the least, and the absence of snow was as remarkable there, as in any other part of the province. There appears to be in fact, a singular freedom from injury of meadows from the action of frost, and if the weather during May prove favourable there is promise of a large yield of hay. This is important for Lower Canada, as grazing is one of its chief agricultural interests.—Montreal Gazette.

LONDON CITY OIL WELL.—The immense flow of water at the City of London Well, has not abated in the slightest degree. The company have arranged to supply the city contractor for watering the streets, during the summer months, at a rental of $12 per month. This one item will pay 2 per cent. interest to the shareholders on their capital. It is estimated that not 1-53d part of the supply can be used for this purpose. An American gentleman well acquainted with the matter pronounces the wholesome medicinal properties of the water to be equal to those of the celebrated Avon Springs, N. Y. State.—London Free Press.

DUTY ON CATTLE ENTERING THE STATES.

Prescott, May 2.

A duty of 20 per cent. ad valorem is now imposed on all live stock going from Canada to the United States. This order came into force this morning.

TORONTO MARINE ITEMS.

May 2.

The propeller Merritt is now loaded with flour for Halifax direct, carrying 3,700 brls. Her Majesty left this afternoon for Montreal and Pictou, Nova Scotia, with about 2,700 barrels of flour and a large quantity of barreled meat. It is probable that both these vessels will be kept on the route to the Lower Provinces for the season if sufficient encouragement be given.

Creighton's Prize Porter AND INCOMPARABLE ALE!

"Friend of my soul!" the startled Rodolph cried,
"Riddle me this, how is't you have not died?
Only three months since, lean as Pharoah's kine,
Now fat and plump, while I a spectre pine;
Thy cheeks are ruddy with the glow of health,
Endowed with what's beyond all price, all wealth;
Never again I'd hoped to see thee stand
A sample of the fatness of the land:
Come, my brave boy! how was the wonder planned?"

"Blest be the day, my honest Jack, that I
Resolved no longer to imbibe old rye;
Erst lean as a starved crow, I soon became
What now you see me; Creighton is to blame;
Excelsior! what I, and what You may be,
Rotund and jolly, full of health and glee:
Use CREIGHTON'S ALE and PORTER, d'ye see?"
