POLICE COURT.

BEFORE MR. CREIGHTON.

Friday, May 11th.

Police Courts nowadays are of some importance, the number of complaints having been largely on the increase this week.

DRUNK AND VAGRANT.

Edgar Kelley, an American, charged with being drunk, was fined $2, and has left the city. Jane Taylor, the old apple woman, was brought up for drunkenness and vagrancy, and Bridget Donnelly, another hard case, for vagrancy alone. They were both discharged, as beyond hope of moral recovery, the atmosphere of the gaol being anything but effective in bringing about such a good result.

LARCENY.

Two boys, Thomas Furlong and Denis Sullivan, arrested for stealing an iron pot from a Mrs. Atwell, were called up, but the prosecutor did not appear. The case being a trivial affair, the youthful delinquents were admonished and discharged.

OBTAINING GOODS.

Louis Thompson was charged with obtaining goods under false pretences. A few days ago he called at the store of Mr. Thomson, tailor, on Brock Street, and selected a coat, which he was permitted to take home and show to his mother, as he said, without paying the price of it. He did not call back to the store, and after a day or so Mr. Thomson followed and intercepted him. The prisoner went along with Mr. Thomson to the store in order to pay for the coat, but when he got there said he had no money. Mr. Thomson then had him arrested. The prisoner was committed for trial at the Recorder's Court.

SUMMONSES.

Several parties living on the block adjoining the South wing of the City Building, appeared to answer summonses from the Board of Health for keeping foul premises. The cases were put off until Wednesday morning, in the hope that the nuisances may be removed in the meantime.

Henry Wells appeared to answer a charge of assault. The case was adjourned until Monday next.

Mr. James McGuire answered a charge of non-payment of wages. Isaac Smith deposed that he worked seven days at a dollar a day for McGuire, who only paid him $2.50. A fellow workman named Noble corroborated this testimony. Mr. McGuire deposed that Smith only worked four days and half for which he paid him $2.75, and provisions to the amount of over $1.50, leaving a balance of thirteen cents still due. Another witness swore that Smith had worked five days. Mr Creighton ordered the defendant to pay Smith sixty-three cents, as well as the costs of the case.

KINGSTON COMMERCE AND MARINE.

Not much to report from yesterday. In fact there will be no rush of business until the grain vessels arrive:

The Royal Mail steamer Spartan arrived in the morning, with a large load of freight and a fair proportion of passengers. The Grecian passed up in the evening.

The propeller Magnet passed down on Thursday evening, landing some freight.

The steamer Huron passed down yesterday morning, landing freight at Anderson and Ford's. The propeller Whitby passed down in the afternoon without calling.

The following have entered at the Custom House since last report:—Inwards—Barge Quebec, Toronto, general cargo for Brockville, Prescott and Montreal; schooner Troy, Trenton, 3,332 bushels peas, J. H. Henderson & Co.; steamer Huron, Toronto, 150 bbls flour, J. Carruthers & Co.; Belle Case, Picton, 1,500 bushels peas, J. G. Watson; barque Alexander, Hamilton, 200 pieces oak timber, Calvin and Breck; schooner St. Andrews, Wallaceburg, 10,000 feet of oak timber, Calvin and Breck. Outwards—Schr. Flying Cloud, Toronto, 80 cords firewood, from Myles & Co.; schooner Belle Case, Picton, light; steamer Osprey, Hamilton, general cargo; schooner Troy, Belleville, light; barge Yarrow, Montreal, 8,211 bushels peas and 500 bbls flour, from J. H. Henderson & Co.; barque Alexander, Hamilton, light; schooner St. Andrews, Wallaceburg, light.

PROPELLER COLONIST ASHORE.—On Wednesday evening the propeller Colonist, from Kingston to Montreal, became unmanageable near Rapid Plat, and went ashore a little above that point. Although four men were at the wheel at the time she failed to answer the rudder. At last accounts she was not leaking badly, but was in a dangerous position. The Captain immediately telegraphed for a tug and the steamer William left on Thursday night with a barge to her assistance, the intention being to lighten her. The Colonist had 9,000 bushels of wheat and 295 barrels of flour on board. The wheat was consigned to Jackson Rae, Montreal, but subject to the order of C. J. Kershaw & Co., Milwaukee; the flour to Janes, Oliver & Co., Montreal, shipped by McLaren & Warren, Milwaukee.

FERRY STEAMER.—On Thursday evening the small steamer 'George Greenway' arrived from Oswego. She is a compact little steamer, having formerly plied on the Erie canal, and is reported to be fast. Her owner's intention is to run her as a Market boat between Picton and Belleville, on which route likely she would do well as she requires little management, and consumes very little fuel, three cords being sufficient to keep her running for ten hours. Therefore the expense of maintaining her on the route will be small.

COMMERCE IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, May 10.

The Deodar has arrived from Marseilles, with a full cargo of wines, fruits, oil, &c., on account of A. Urquhart & Co. This will be offered by auction in a short time. Buyers are holding of in anticipation of the result, which will probably fix the spring prices.

Business has been dull during the week in anticipation of spring arrivals. The stocks of all staples are light both here and in the country, and merchants are confidently looking forward to a brisk business.

The spring fleet is beginning to arrive, but so far is not bringing out any amount of general groceries to fill up the deficiencies in our leading staples. Buyers, however, are operating carefully; feeling is strongly hopeful that this will be a prosperous season.

THE CROPS IN LENNOX AND ADDINGTON.—During the past few days the writer has been through a large portion of this county and we are glad to say that in every direction there are good indications of a plentiful harvest. In consequence of the dry weather grain is not as forward as it frequently is, but it has a good root and healthy color. Fall grain generally looks far better than was supposed it would after the great severity of the winter. Seldom have the farmers had such a fine spring for sowing, and seldom has grain been better put in. Grass is yet very backward in consequence of the coldness of the weather.—Napanee Standard.

MILL ISLAND MILLS.—The extensive Steam Saw Mills on Mill Island, about ten miles from Belleville, have recently been purchased, by Messrs. Page & Co., of Oswego.—Since the mill was purchased the new firm have expended over $8,000 in repairs, and in putting in new machinery, so that now it is one of the largest and most complete of any similar establishment in Canada. The mill has capacity to manufacture 80,000 feet of lumber every twelve hours, which places it equal to any other mill in this section of the country. This firm have been carrying on extensive lumbering operations in the back country during the past winter having got out over 100,000 logs, a portion of which will be floated down the Trent and Shannon, and the remainder down the Moira. About 70,000 of these logs will be manufactured into lumber at the Mill Island Mills, a portion at the mill in Ameliasburgh, and the remainder will be rafted and sent to Oswego.—Intelligencer.

GREAT PRICE FOR WHEAT.—Yesterday a choice sample of fall wheat realized the very high price of $2 00 per bushel. This is the highest price paid in our market this season. Last year, in the month of May, the outside price of fall wheat was $1 35, and at no period last year did it bring more than $1 65, which was late in the fall. In the month of May, 1864, the medium price was only 92c, and in the same month in 1863, 94c.—Globe of yesterday.
