MARRIED—At the Richmond House, Richmond, Ill., Sept. 27th, 1883, by W. A. Allen, of Alden, Ill., Geo. N. Griggs, only son of the late Hon. Eliza Griggs, of Half Day, Ill., to Miss Anna O. Blinnick, of Diamond Lake, Ill.

FITZGERALD & EVANSON having bought the store formerly occupied by P. D. Smith near the depot, and next door to the one now occupied by them, will immediately put in new shelving of the most improved style, and will repaint and finish it second to no store in this section. They expect to have it ready to occupy by November 1st.

ADVERTISING is to business what food is to existence. It should be regular, adequate, varied. Large advertisements pay better in proportion than small ones. The object is to be seen and remembered. A business man should have an attractive advertisement just as much as he would have an attractive show window in his store. If the latter is in a prominent place, how much more prominent is a good newspaper.

THAT J. A. Sherwood is the "Boss" Auctioneer is proved almost every day, when one takes into account the success of his sales. On Thursday last, the 27th inst, he sold a car load of Cows for Morton & Chapin, Algonquin, at an average of $54.65 a head. And on Monday he sold twenty cows for Butler & Hyatt, Nunda, at an average of $52.47. The fact is that when "Jim" takes hold of a sale it is bound to go. And this fact is appreciated for he is engaged for a sale on an average of five days in a week.

When the poet sang: "There is a divinity that shapes our ends, rough how they come as we may," he evidently had reference to our editors in particular. An irate subscriber called at this office last Thursday, and requested her name erased from our list because of something in the last issue offensive to her. Scarcely had we recovered from this shock until three new names were added. And thus it ever is, and for aught we care, may it ever be. The Lord will take care of his own. —Sandwich Free Press.

DEED—In McHenry, Sept. 27th, Miss Eliza infant son of Mr. C. T. and Mrs. L. M. Eldredge, aged three years.

The remains were interred in the Twin Lakes Cemetery, Wis., where repose those of a grand parent and dear little brother and sister.

The presence of one of the grand parents, Mrs. N. T. Eldredge, brought the retrospect of forty-four years ago the 21st day of last August, when on a similar occasion she, with many others, greeted the writer with her attendance at the burial of Mr. Francis Purdy, it being the first occurring in civilized society in Richmond township.

The second burial in the Richmond Cemetery was one week later by the death of Miss Hannah Thomas, daughter of Mr. Briggs and Mrs. Amy Thomas deceased.

JOEL WHEELER.
THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, in this village, Rev. Father O'Neill, pastor, has been undergoing quite extensive repairs this summer, and, having a little leisure on Tuesday, we took the occasion to look it over and note the improvements.

The church was, originally, 72 feet deep. To this has been added an addition 18x24, with an additional recess 8x20, for the altar. On the north and south sides of the new part are windows 8x10 feet, made of French stained glass, each window costing $145. On the upper part of each window are beautiful emblems, all presenting a very handsome appearance. The walls have been newly painted a handsome shade, the wood-work grained in ash and walnut, and the ceilings frescoed, the work being done by Goodrow, of Woodstock, which is a sure guarantee that it is well done. They have also added a tower to the church, and will immediately give the outside a coat of paint. When all completed, which they expect to have done this week, they will have as handsome a little church as can be found in this section.

The contract for the brick work was let to Chas. Walker, of Waukegan, and the carpenter work to David McLain, of Waukegan, who did their work perfectly satisfactory. The entire cost of the repairs, we understand, will be about $2,000.

Great praise is due Father O'Neill in this matter, as it was through his personal exertions and zeal that the work was commenced and has been carried forward to an successful and satisfactory termination, and he should, as he no doubt will, receive the thanks of his large congregation.
