on the side of opposition. And, although, at the introduction of a bill to increase Representation, the Lafontaine Government offered large inducements of a personal and local nature for his interest in that measure, Mr. Smith stood manfully against it, and the Bill was defeated by deficiency of a single vote. Such opposition is power; it is gifted with a force and morality that compel reverence and induce sympathy; it can be cooled by no corruption—between principle and the glittering poison of the Treasury, its conscience can ratify no base swap. In 1853 Mr. Smith, from the benches of the Opposition, introduced, to his immortal credit, a bill for the independence of Parliament, and on the second reading, carried it, to the defeat of the Hincks administration. The bill was afterwards mutilated, made a government measure, and passed through Parliament. In 1854 Mr. Smith was created Solicitor General, and by his assiduity and vigilance restored to proper tone and efficiency an office which, in the hands of some former incumbents, had little significance beyond an honorary appendix. At the bar Mr. Smith's career has been brilliant and distinguished. As an advocate and lawyer he has won a proud rank at the head of his profession. In the recorded statutes of the country, in all measures affecting legal reforms, permanency of original surveys, compulsory registration of deeds, conveyances for the protection of titles to real estate, he has left prominent mark of the discrimination of a statesman, and the capacity of a jurist. Mr. Smith has placed the Press under many kindly obligations.—The motion for the supply of all Parliamentary papers, granted since the session of 1857, was made by him and carried. The present high and responsible position of Speaker, to which Mr. Smith has been elevated—and which at no period since the union required such consummate prudence and discrimination—may be regarded as much a recognition of the ability of the man, as an appreciation of the undeviating consistency and honorable faith of the politician.

Mr. Ambrose's Concert.

As we anticipated, the people of Kingston showed that they appreciated the kind and obliging services so often rendered by Mr. Ambrose on occasions of public benevolence, and also the estimation in which they deservedly hold him as an artist and a gentleman, by according to him a bumper house on the occasion of his Concert on Wednesday evening last. It was altogether one of the best got up and attractive musical entertainments which has been produced in Kingston during the season just concluding. As for the various performers, amateur as well as professional, it is impossible to speak too highly.—Mr. Ambrose himself was in fine voice and sang his parts as well as played his piano accompaniments, with that admirable taste and tact for which he is distinguished, and which he has the rare gift of being able to impart to his pupils. Mr. James McMillan's execution upon the violin was the subject of general and well merited admiration, especially a solo on his favorite instrument, and a duet for it and the piano, both of which the company insisted on an encore. The "Puppy Polka," by the orchestra and piano, also the "Bucephelous Gallop," by the same, were executed in a style which far surpassed anything of the kind before heard in Kingston, the Orchestra being all evidently not only masters of their instruments, but true musical artists. Mr. Murdoch and Mr. James McMillan were the only two whom we recognised, the others being strangers to us. Mr. Crawford sang a number of his Scotch ballads, which were received with the usual quantum of enthusiasm; Miss C. Foster played a solo on the piano in a style which would have honored a first class professional performer, her style of playing speaking with a thousand tongues in praise of her teacher, Mr. Ambrose; Miss Linea sang several songs, and took parts in two or three duetts and quartettes, which were loudly applauded. Messrs. Kemps, Mr J. Jones, and a number of other gentlemen amateurs made up a very efficient company and among other pieces sang, "The Hunters Festival," with remarkable effect. The Concert was concluded a little after ten o'clock, and on retiring from the Hall the hope expressed by the company generally was that Mr. Ambrose, Mr. Murdoch and Mr McMillan, would afford them in future more frequent opportunities of witnessing similar displays of the native musical talent of Kingston, seeing that "home manufactures" are now the cry and are soon to be all the fashion.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Frightful consequences ensue from the neglect of scrofula or king's evil in its earlier stages. Loss of sight and of hearing, terrible ulcers, the destruction of the flesh of the face, and the dropping off of entire limbs, are among the horrors of this disorder in its worst stages. Even under these circumstances, it may be arrested by the powerful disinfectant and healing properties of Holloway's Ointment; but it is much better to take the disease in time, and expel from the blood the virus which produces these ravages, before disfigurement and mutilation commence. The Pills should be administered occasionally while the flesh is healing under the operation of the Ointment. This treatment is infallible for all eruptive disorders, ulcers, tumors, and wounds and indolent sores. 2

DR. SANFORD'S LIVER Invigorator. It has become an established fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator will cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice and general debility. Many people, personally known to us, whose word cannot be doubted, have given their certificates to prove this, and with such a mass of evidence what can doubt.

It is truly the invalid's friend, and will give relief when all other remedies fail, and in some instances that have come under our observation it seemed the means of snatching its victim from the grave. We wish all our readers who need medicine would try one bottle, for it will surely give relief.—True American 252

THIS COMPANY is established at South Quebec, for the purpose of connecting the Transit Commerce of the Port of Quebec, and the Grand Trunk Railway, with Ocean Steamers, and the important and increasing Ocean, Lake, and River steam traffic.

The Company provides deep water Wharves for Ocean Ships and Lake and River Craft, with suitable Storage for Flour, Grain, Ashes, Timber, Iron, Coals, Salt, &c., &c., in immediate communication with the Grand Trunk Railway Station at Point Levi.

The Establishment is situated between the Passenger and Goods Depot of the Railway, affording all the security of enclosed Docks and Warehouses.

The Company have four thousand feet of River frontage, with a Timber Cove capable of holding six millions feet in the Raft; where vessels of any class can moor in safety out of the influence of the strong tides, sheltered from the effects of those periodical easterly gales which so frequently cause damage to Shipping on the North side of the St. Lawrence.

Railway Turntables and sidings on the Company's property will enable Goods and Produce to be transferred direct from the Railway Cars and Shipping, and vice versa. Steam Elevators, Cranes, &c., &c., will also be provided for the expeditious and economical loading and unloading of the same.

The site is so commodious as to leave no reasonable doubt that the undertaking will yield a high remunerative return.

Detailed Prospectuses, and every requisite information may be obtained upon application at the Offices of the Company in QUEBEC, or at their Agencies in MONTREAL, TORONTO, CHICAGO, and here to
