ASSURANCES may either be effected by Parties on their own Lives, or by Parties interested therein, on the Lives of Others.
The effect of an Assurance on a Person's own Life, is to create at once a Property in Reversion, which can by no other means be realized. Take for instance, the case of a person at the age of Thirty, who, by the payment of £5 3s 4d, can become at once possessed of a bequeathable property, amounting to One Thousand Pounds.
The necessary forms, and every requisite information as to the mode of effecting Assurances, may be obtained on application to

KING STREET WEST, KINGSTON, C. W.
MR. H. J. BORTHWICK, PRINCIPAL.
Mr. Borthwick respectfully announces that the business of this Establishment will be resumed, after the Midsummer Holidays, on the 1st of September.
The Young Ladies' Private Class will for the present be discontinued, Mr. B. feeling himself unable, from the state of his health for the adequate superintendence of such large numbers of pupils as have hitherto attended his classes. For the same reason, the business of the Boys' Classes will be curtailed, and instead of aiming at the establishment of a large Public School, Mr. Borthwick wishes for the future to confine himself to Select Private Classes,
In which a thorough English Education, on a classical basis, will be imparted.
Pupils will not be allowed to depart from the general programme of studies given in the prospectus. On reference to the course of Instruction, it will be observed that Pupils are prepared for Matriculation in the Universities of the Province, for Examination before the Law Society, Military and other Boards.
In conclusion, Mr. B. would gratefully acknowledge the very liberal manner in which his Academy has been patronized since its commencement; and he hopes, with the strictest attention to the improvement of his pupils, to merit a continuance of public favor.
A Uniform Fee of $8 00 per Term will be Charged.
N. B.—50 cents per Term, for firewood, pens, slate-pencils and ink.
