GRAHAM IN 1851.

MR. GRAHAM announces the following arrangements for 1851:—

Graham has completed the most extensive arrangements to give still higher character and value to his Magazine for the coming volume.—

G. P. R. James, the celebrated Novelist, has been engaged to give a series of splendid romances.

George D. Prentice, the Poet of the West, will write exclusively a Poem for every month.

Grace Greenwood is engaged to give a series of her charming Sketches.

J. M. Legare, of South Carolina, will contribute a brilliant set of Papers for 1851.

Mrs. Fanshawe Conyers, the Author of Rural Hours, is also engaged with Warren and Longstreet to Bryant and Lowell.

T. B. Read, the Artist and Poet, is now at Dunsdorf on his way to Rome, to finish for the Gallery a superb set of drawings. Articles from America have been sent to London and Paris and a splendid set of highly finished drawings for Graham's immortal Ladies' Department, which will equal anything that has ever been produced in Paris, England, or the United States. The first appears in the December number.

All this forms a year of splendor in this Magazine for 1851—and as ever, Graham's readers will be astonished. Graham also abolishes the system concerning agents, and constitutes every Postmaster and Editor Agents. Now is the time to form Clubs, as the December Number closes the volume.

Terms.—Single Copies $3.

Three to Clubs for 1851.—All orders for GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, commencing with 1851, will be supplied at the following rates.—

Single Subscribers, $3.—Two Copies, $5.—Five Copies, $10.—and Ten Copies for $20, and an extra Copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers. These terms will not be departed from by any of the three Dollar Magazines.

Skylight Daguerreotypes,
AT THE
LONDON FIRST PREMIUM DAGUERRIAN GALLERY,
No. 214 Main Street, Corner Street, Buffalo.

THE above, is a cut of a SILVER MEDAL awarded the subscriber at the New York State Agricultural Fair at Buffalo, and the Fifth Premium in the last nine years. Also, the first prize at the late Fair at Syracuse, in competition with over three hundred pictures from some of the first galleries in the United States. This Gallery has now become the PICTURE EMPORIUM for the entire Western World, and the standard of perfection. Our competitors invariably acknowledge their inferiority by following in our wake and copying us in every particular except upon paper.

Therefore, strangers visiting the city are respectfully solicited to compare our pictures with those executed by others. Also, all who have long been prepossessed in favor of other Daguerreians, and have pictures taken by them, are very urgently invited to call and have one executed at this establishment, that they may have an ocular demonstration of the vast difference in portraying the same individuals.

The subscriber would also notify the people of C. W. that he has opened a branch Gallery in Princess St. Lambton House, Kingston, where persons may expect such pictures of themselves and friends as will rarely if ever be offered to the community again.

N. B. The undersigned would most respectfully further notify the public that no premiums or diplomas have ever been awarded by the New York State Agricultural Fair to any Daguerreian in Buffalo except the subscriber.

THE MOST ASTONISHING CURE EVER YET KNOWN.

And this by Dr. Corbett's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

SPREAD IT.

Messrs. E. Barley & Co. Dorpwich, Sussex.

Gentlemen,—In March 1848, I was taken with a severe pain and lameness in one of my knees. Three months after, the other became affected in a similar manner; in about six months it attacked the elbows, and in a few months more the other knee; extending to the wrists, one shoulder, ankles and smaller joints of the extremities. The distressing affection, notwithstanding all remedies appeared to increase gradually for three years, until my friends and myself had abandoned all hopes of recovery. I was first doctored for Rheumatism by eminent and skilful physicians; then for Scrofula, which swellings, &c., and spent three months in the Margate Infirmary (Royal Hospital.) I then went into a physician's family for about one year, and followed regular prescriptions constantly. I never experienced any permanent, or scarcely temporary relief, until I commenced taking Dr. Corbett's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

I began the use of this in March last, and before I had taken three bottles, obtained sensible relief. I have now taken twenty bottles, with a daily and permanent improvement.

The swelling and lameness has almost entirely vanished in all my joints except the knees, and these are far improved that I can walk and walk comfortably. My general health is good—I have gained thirty pounds of flesh—and I hope the conclusion, from the benefit then derived from this celebrated remedy, of being early perfectly restored.
