

ALSO A man found $100 a few days ago, and the owner rewarded him with a good pair of suspenders. Upon receiving the reward, instead of being satisfied, he kicked himself because the sum of money wasn't twice as large. When asked why he wished the sum had been larger, he said he would have stood a show of getting a pair of pants to match the new suspenders. Some men are never satisfied; in these days, gratitude can only be found with a search warrant. He was in big luck, to get the suspenders.

ALSO An old man who is at present residing at the Jersey City, N. J., poor house, has seven sons living, all steamboat Captains, and all in good circumstances. This ought to be a warning to over-ambitious fathers, but it won't make any difference, people will continue to receive birth cards just as though nothing of this kind had happened. This is a mighty ungrateful world, and a father don't know how soon his offspring will go back on him and give him the dead shake.

ALSO Father of young girl—"I should think you would be satisfied after the treatment you got here last night. I kicked you down the front steps and set the dog on you, and he came back with a big piece of your trousers. Now what do you want?" Young Man—"I'd like that piece of cloth, please."

ALSO What are Supporters. A. G. Ross, from New London, Conn., writes: Send me two boxes of your Kemp's Pile Supporters by mail. Our druggist is out. They are for a friend. I tried everything with out help, but the Supporters cured me.

ALSO The treatment is now and within reach of all, and would advise the effected to give them a trial. For pamphlets on Piles address Box 295 Le Roy, N. Y. For sale in McHenry, by Geo. W. Besley's at 50c per box.

ALSO Quinsy Can be Cured. Smith's Quinsy Specific is an absolutely sure cure for this painful and dangerous disease. The undersigned suffered from quinsy for years, but finally discovered a remedy which cured him and all who used it. It has never yet failed. A purely vegetable remedy, safe and pleasant to take. Price 50c. Circulars and testimonials for stamp. Get it now and be prepared to control the next attack. Address: Geo. W. Besley, Sole Prop'r and Man'fr, Phelps, N. Y.

ALSO Please mention this paper.

ALSO For Sale. In the village of McHenry, a house and five lots. The owner wishing to build on land owned by him outside of the corporation will sell very low. The house has been newly painted throughout, contains four rooms besides kitchen and pantry below, and two good large rooms and closets in the second story. LIBERTY-ENLIGHTENING THE WORLD,

In regard to the unequalled merits

The Flying Dutchman Jr.

POINTS OF SUPERIORITY.

It runs lighter than any other plow made, because by means of the perfect support afforded by three wheels the plow is carried, not dragged. It is easy on the team, because there is absolutely no weight on the horses' necks.

It turns square corners, turning furrows either inward or outward, as may be desired. The rear furrow wheel is locked when plowing straight ahead, but unlocked by foot-trip when necessary to turn. After the corner is turned it locks itself automatically.

The front wheels running in furrow actually prevent any strain on the frame of the plow, or on the horses when turning. The plow is turned on the same principle as a cart.

The front furrow wheel is at point of plow, insuring a uniform depth when mowing dead furrows or ditches.

The plow has a spring that keeps the plow from being too rigid, and causes it to run level when crossing corn furrows or ridges.

The plow is in front of the driver, where its work is constantly under his eye. These, and many other points, fully explained, illustrated and proved in our descriptive circular, sent free to any address. We also mail, free of charge, the Agricultural Progress, by John Smith-Benton, with illustrations of the Story of the Flying Dutchman, a graphic sea sketch; and other literature which will amuse, entertain and instruct, address, MOORE PLOW CO., Moine, Idaho.
