Skylight Daguerreotypes,

AT THE

LONDON FIRST PREMIUM DAGUERRIAN GALLERY,
No. 213 Main Street, Corner Seneca, Buffalo.

THE above is a cut of a SILVER MEDAL awarded the subscriber at the New York State Agricultural Fair at Buffalo, and the Fifth Premium in the last six years. Also, the first prize at the late Fair at Syracuse, in competition with over three hundred persons from some of the first galleries in the United States. The Gallery has now become the PICTURE EMPORIUM for the entire Western World, and the standard of imitation. Our competitors involuntarily acknowledge their inferiority by following in our wake and aping us in every particular except, and merit.

Therefore, strangers visiting the city are respectfully solicited to compare our pictures with those executed by others. Also, all who have been prepossessed in favor of other Daguerreans and have pictures taken by them, are very frequently invited to call and have one executed at this establishment, that they may have an ocular demonstration of the vast difference in portraying the same individuals.

The subscriber would also notify the people of C. W. that he has opened a branch gallery at Princess St. Lambton House, Kingston, where persons may expect such pictures of themselves and friends as will rarely if ever be offered to that community again.

N. B. The undersigned would most respectfully further notify the public that no premiums or diplomas have ever been awarded by the New York State Agricultural Fair to any Daguerrean in Buffalo except the subscriber.

THE MOST ASTONISHING CURE EVER YET KNOWN.

A Female Completely Emaciated Restored to Health.

AFREAD, JR.

Messrs. E. Barnard & Co., Druggists, Boston.

Gentlemen:—In March 1845, I was taken with a severe pain and lameness in one of my hands. Twelve months after, the other began affected in a similar manner; in about six months it attached my other, and in a few months more, the other, thus extending to the wrists, ankles, and smaller joints of the extremities. This distressing affection, notwithstanding all remedies, continued to increase gradually for three years, until my friends and myself had abandoned all hopes of recovery. I was first discharged from examination by eminent and skilful physicians; then for months, whole swelling, &c., and spent three months in the Massachusetts General Hospital.—I then went into a physician's family for about one year, and followed regular prescriptions constantly. I never experienced any permanent, but extremely temporary relief, until I commenced taking Dr. Caldwell's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

I began the use of this in March last, and before I had taken three bottles, I obtained sensible relief. I have now taken twenty bottles, with a daily and permanent improvement.

The swelling and lameness has almost entirely abated in all my joints except the hands, and these are so far restored that I can work and walk comfortably. My general health is good. I have gained thirty pounds of flesh, and I have the fullest confidence, from the benefit I have received from this celebrated remedy, of being very perfectly restored.
