SECRETARY,
J. TOWNSEND, Esq.

TREASURER.
THE BANK OF NEW YORK.

It would be idle to suppose there are any so ignorant of passing events as not to have heard of the wonder of the age, "The Great World's Fair." It would be absurd to suppose that any who have heard of this event would not have a strong desire to witness this grand, gigantic and grand exhibition. But amid the tens of thousands in whom this desire exists, there are thousands unwilling and thousands unable to make the necessary outlay for a jun ney to and from London. Twenty-one of these are Engraving, which shall be valuable as well because it is a truthful picture of the wonders of this fairy-like crystal palace, as because it exhibits the extremest perfection of art, will be an object of interest.

We have taken the trouble to ascertain, by a careful and calculating estimate, that to produce an engraving worthy of this memorable occasion, and to make 4000 copies of it, we'll cost at least $20,000. For such an engraving the printed to would charge certainly $10, probably $15 a copy and pocket perhaps $20,000 of profit. Instead however of letting this immense sum be swallowed up by the printer-man, we will publish the engraving by subscription, so that each subscriber shall obtain a copy at, to say the least, one half the price the print-seller would charge, and then have a large sum to spare to distribute as prizes.

First, we intend to secure the services of a Brilliant American Artist, who will proceed to London and make a sketch of the interior of the Great World's Fair in the very zenith of its splendor, when every thing will be displayed to the greatest possible advantage on the occasion of the visit thereto of the president, the Prince Albert, his consort the Queen of England, and their children.—From this sketch the engraving will be made, and will form the most magnificent and interesting subject.

The number of Subscribers is limited to 4000.

Each subscriber will be entitled to a copy of the Engraving and a chance for one of 50 Prizes.

The accounts will stand thus:—

4000 subscriptions at $5 each, will be $20,000
This engraving, and 4000 copies will cost $5,000
The expense of management, advertisements, &c. &c. will not exceed 1,500
Total expenditure 7,500

Which deducted from $20,000 leaves $12,500

This $12,500 is to be divided into 50 prizes—25 First Class, and 25 Second Class.

These prizes to be distributed among the subscribers in the ordinary manner of Art-Unions.

PRIZES.

Each first class prize will be a first cabin passage from New York to London and back, with every requisite for the voyage, together with $100 for expenses in London.

Each second class prize will be a first cabin passage from New York to London and back, with every requisite for the voyage.

The 25 first class prizes will be equal to $2500
The 25 second class prizes will be equal to 3000
$12,500

The shares and prizes will be transferable, at option of the holders.

The drawing will take place as soon as the shares are taken, (nearly one-half are already taken,) and in ample time to permit every prize-holder to proceed to London so as to be there at the commencement of the Fair.

The whole will be under the management of a Committee of the Subscribers, and so conducted as will not fail to give the most entire satisfaction to every subscriber.

By Order of the Committee of management
J. TOWNSEND,
Secretary.

DR THOMAS CORSETT'S
CONCENTRATED SHAKER SYRUP OF SARSAPARILLA.

Boston Feb. 14 1849.

Messrs. E. Barney & Co.—

GENTLEMEN,—I have employed the Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla prepared by Dr Corbett extensively in my practice since I know the Formula by which it is made. Its ingredients happily combined and I think it a preparation accordingly well adapted to all those cases of disease where Sarsaparilla is required. In my hands this Syrup has so far (the four months past) proved more satisfactory and its effects have been more decided than any preparation of the article I have ever met with—and I should think it ought to have a preference over all others. So far as my experience in its use extends I gladly recommend it as a very valuable preparation. One thing in its favor is that it is an agreeable compound—the Formula from which it is prepared being open to the inspection of the Medical Profession.

Respectfully yours
JAMES AYER M. D.
