CHARLESTON, 8th Feb.

The Schooner Polyhemia arrived at this port, reports having conveyed to Key West, 40 of the passengers and crew of the brig Martha Sanger, which was wrecked late the middle of January on the Quicks Reef, in the Caribbean Sea.

N. ORLEANS, Feb. 11.

The steamship Alabama started for Vera Cruz, but got aground and was injured—so much so as to be compelled to return for repairs.

The steamer Ogilvy, bound for this port, sunk with a cargo of cotton on board, which are a total loss.

It is reported that the steamer Asbestos sunk at Bayou Sara, by coming in contact with the Magnolia. Capt. Grant, J. Ferguson, child of Mr. Goodhue, third engineer, and one or two others are said to have been lost.

Jenny Lind has met with immense success here. The proceeds of the last two concerts were over $30,000.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.

The Sutes from Charleston, and the Florida from Havana, arrived this morning, being payment in advance of the mail.

Many of the telegraph lines heading from this city, are badly deranged by the storm.

The intelligence from Washington indicates that the administration is fully awake to the present interesting posture of Central American affairs. Chevalier Gomez, late envoy to Rome, from the states of Guatemala and San Salvador, is now in Washington, in accordance with the desire of the administration. He has assumed, provisionally, the duties of the charge of those states; and has addressed a letter to Mr. Webster in reference to the present condition of the relations of the Central American States. Mr. Webster has replied, in a letter, expressing the views of our government on the subject. Chevalier Gomez has been treated with marked attention both by the Secretary of State and Sir Henry Bulwer.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 11.

Captain Wilson, of the unfortunate steamer America, says that his vessel broke in two before he left her.

In clearing away the rubbish of the St. Charles Hotel, at N. Orleans, it was found that all the books and papers in the vaults were entirely destroyed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

Sir Henry Bulwer, it is probable, will shortly resign and return to England in consequence of his infirm health.

AMERICAN HOUSE,
HANOVER STREET, BOSTON.

THE undersigned having entirely REMODELED and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed convenience of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain portions of it, especially the Dining-room, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the Proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveller's Home.

PHYSICIANS' TESTIMONY
SHOWS HIS REMARKED BEYOND ALL OTHERS.

While it is well known that Physicians invariably and positively reject the administration and approval of medicines combined by others than themselves, it will soon, (to the more readers of the numerous testimonials of the virtues of Dr. Corbett's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla,) be known, that the above professors of Colleges, and the most distinguished Physicians and Chemists of this country, lend gladly their names, emoluments of Dr. Corbett's inestimable preparation of Sarsaparilla.

But the fact is not to stop there, viz; the Formula is freely placed with them! It is no secret nostrum, mystery. It is a combination of the most active medicinal agents, as approved by the dispensatories and Wood and Bache, Dr. Patch, and Gray's Supplement, of London.

That this chemist and learned man, Prof. Augustus A. Hayes, State Assayer of Mass., says the combination "exhibits a union of some of the best of our native medicinal plants and roots, including no metallic compound."

Let the consumptive, the sufferer by diseased blood, and those of deranged systems, but read what physicians say:

Meredith Bridge, N. H., 1847.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used in my practice for a few years past, the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared by the United Society of Shakers, and I consider it of great value in the treatment and diseases of the chronic and scrofulous systems, and many of those depraved conditions of the general health, termed morbid functions. I can commend it to be superior to any preparation of Sarsaparilla now before the public. I would also recommend it to the profession as a perfect article, and one that will fully answer their expectations.

GEORGE W. GARLAND, M. D.

It is now several years since we first used the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared in the United Society of Shakers. We have found it a valuable medicine. Those cases in which its good effects have been most apparent, were in depraved constitutional habits, and chronic diseases of the skin. We recommend it with confidence to the profession.

JONAH CROSBY, M. D., Manchester, N. H.
W. C. CHASE, M. D., Portland, Me.

Sold by the sole agents, EDWARD BRINLEY & Co., Boston, and their appointed agents.

☞ For Sale by E. W. Palmer, Agent, Kingston, Canada West.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL,
(LATE MILLS.)

THE Subscriber having succeeded Mr. Mills in the above Hotel, begs leave to inform the travelling community and the public generally, that nothing shall be wanting either in the luxuries of the season or personal attention, to secure to them every comfort they may possibly expect.

The Bar will be constantly supplied with the best wines and Liquors, and the TABLE supplied with the best the market affords.

Porters will be in attendance at the Boats to convey passengers' Baggage to and from, free of charge.
