AMERICAN HOUSE,
HANOVER STREET, BOSTON.

THE undersigned having entirely REBUILT and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.

An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements which have been made cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.

The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain patterns of it, especially the Drawing-rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.

Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the Proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveller's Home.

PHYSICIANS' TESTIMONY
WOULD BE REGARDED BEYOND ALL QUESTION.

While it is well known that Physicians invariably and promptly reject the administration and approval of medicines combined by others than themselves, it would seem, (to the mere reader of the numerous certificates of the virtues of Dr. Corbett's Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla,) on enigma, that the oldest professors of Colleges, and the most distinguished Physicians and Chemists of the country, lend gladly their names, emoluments, to the invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla.

But the facts are snappy these, viz; the Formula is freely placed with them! It is no secret, mystic remedy. It is a combination of the most active remedial medicinal agents, as approved by the dispensatories of Wood and Bache, Dr. Thacher, and Gray's Supplement, of London.

That able chemist and learned man, Prof. Augustus A. Hayes, State Assayer of Mass., says the combination "exhibits the union of some of the best of our native medicinal plants and roots, including an metallic compound."

Let the consumptive, the sufferer by deranged blood, and those of deranged systems, but read what physicians say:

Meredith Bridge, N. H., 1847.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used in my practice, for a few years past, the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared by the United Society of Shakers, and I consider it of great value in the treatment of diseases of the absorbent and glandular systems, and many of those depraved conditions of the general health, termed morbid functions. I can recommend it to be superior to any preparation of Sarsaparilla now before the public. I would also recommend it to the profession as a perfect article, and one that will fully answer their expectations.

GEORGE W. GARLAND, M. D.

It is now several years since we first used the Compound Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, prepared in the United Society of Shakers. We have found it a valuable medicine. Those cases in which its good influence has been most apparent, were in depraved constitutional habits, and chronic diseases of the skin. We recommend it with confidence to the profession.

BARKER'S
COMPOUND SARSAPARILLA PILLS.

For Purifying the Blood, and Strengthening the Digestive Organs, Scorbutic Eruptions, Pimples and Blotches, Rheumatism, Liver Complaints, Indigestion, Bilious Complaints, Asthma, and all diseases which arise from an impure state of the Blood.

THESE PILLS having been in use several years, experience has proved their great superiority over all other preparations of Sarsaparilla now before the public. In consequence of the peculiar virtues of the Sarsaparilla Root, it has been extensively used by the Medical Profession, for a number of years, but it was known, that all Watery or Liquid Preparations of the Root, very much lose all medicinal qualities in that state. The only preparation which can be depended upon, is the Solid Extract, from which these Pills are prepared, combined with other valuable medicines, and more real benefit will be derived from the use of one box, (at an item half a dozen bottles of the Syrup or any Preparation in use. They act as a powerful Alterative Tonic, and a Mild Aperient, strengthening the Stomach, and giving warmth and vigor to the system.—They are perfectly safe in their operation, and may be used by the most delicate females and children, and will be found most valuable for any irregularities peculiar to them.

The proprietor has an objection to the system of publishing a list of Cures, or he could furnish a large list of the most respectable persons, who have used these Pills to great advantage. Try one Box of these Pills, when you will find them to be the best Medicine ever used.
