The name of Colonel George H. Harlow is now added to the list of candidates for Secretary of State subject the decision of the State Republican known men in the State and has friends in every school district. He was elected Secretary of State twice on the Republican ticket, but has been out of active politics for some years. He was n excellent official, no breath of scandal ever tarnishing his record,

The Paducah News, (Dem) speaking of Senator Farwell's late seech on the plans he proposed for erving the circulation of the National banks, says: "The speech was a sound one from beginning to end and shows Mr. Farwell to be the capable financier he has had the credit of being Our present system of currency is the best the country ever had, and it should be retained until a better system is devised, if it is possible to devise one." All of which reads as though the News was becoming wiser than its party.

The high compliment paid to Hon. A. J. Hopkins, of Aurora, last week by the Fifth Illinois District Republican convention, by neminating him for re-election to Congress without a voice of dissent or opposition

To Settle with Co. Treas—F. K. Granger, E. M. Lamb, R. J. Beck, W. H. Groesbeck, John Weltzien, him for re-election to Congress without a voice of dissent or opposition was well deserved. That district empraces the enlightened and progressive ublican counties of De Kalb, Kane. ne, McHenry and Lake, and a pepprement from that source something, Mr. Hopkins is a ithful and wide-awake Representative, and there is no question of his re-election.-Journal.
