THE ARGUS.

AT the instance of a majority of the Subscribers, and numerous others who wish to become so, the proprietor has decided to make the Argus a weekly newspaper. FIRE SURROUNDED BY WATER AND NOT EXTINGUISHED!!

A. Wilbers' Patent Liquid Heater for the use of Tanners, Hatters, Hotels, Farmers and others.

THIS is a New Invention, combining a great saving in fuel and labor, by which a barrel of water can be boiled in the open air, or in the house as may be required, with a very small quantity of fuel, and little attention. It can be fitted to Tanners' Leaches or vats, to affixed or portable form; and Hatters by its means will be enabled to do their boiling in a barrel or other portable vessel, and thereby be protected from heat while at work. It is admirably adapted for boiling sap in the bush, as it can be moved to any place with ease; also for heating water in Hotels, Baths, or any place where much warm water is required.

THE TESTIMONY OF THOUSANDS

SURELY IS THE BEST.

Read what that distinguished and able physician, Dr. Alanson Abbee, Boylston street, Boston, says of Dr. Corbett's "Highly Concentrated Syrup of Sarsaparilla:"—

Messrs. E. Barney & Co.—

Dear Sirs:—In answer to your inquiries relative to Dr. Corbett's "Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla," I answer that about eight months since I procured a few bottles of you and have had up to this time some number of them, and my patients have procured elsewhere quantities to great extents. I use it at my "Orthopedic Institute," in preference to any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

For spinal irritation, several cases of eruptive diseases of the skin, and hip diseases in the ulcerated stage, connected with scrofulous habit, it is a most valuable remedy. For ill conditioned and scrofulous ulcers, its effects are most happy—rapidly improving the general health, and producing a healthful condition of the ulcerated surface. It acts as a tonic—mildly as a diuretic and laxative. Until I find a better compound, I hope to be supplied by you on your agents.
