GRAHAM IN 1831.

MR. GRAHAM announces the following arrangement for 1831:—

Graham is completed the most extensive arrangements to give still higher character and value to his Magazine for the coming volume.

G. P. R. James, the celebrated Novelist, has been engaged to give a series of splendid romances.

George D. Prentice, the Poet of the West, will write exclusively a Poem for every month.

George Gallaher is engaged to give a series of his historical sketches.

J. M. Legare, of South Carolina, will contribute a brilliant set of Papers for 1831.

Miss Pardoe, Countess, the Author of Royal Hours, is also engaged with Winnie and Lenoxmore, Bennet and Lowrie.

T. S. Rarn, the Artist and Poet, is now at Dusseldorf on his way to Italy, to furnish both the Galleries a search out of drawings. Artists from America have been sent to London and Paris and a colored set of highly finished drawings for Graham's incomparable Ladies' Department, which will equal anything that has ever been produced in Paris, England, or the United States. The fact appears in the December number.

All the details a year of splendor in this Magazine for 1831—and as ever, Graham's advertisement will be substantiated. Graham also abolishes the system concerning agents, and continues every Postmaster and Editor Agents. Now is the time to form Clubs, as the December Number closes the volume.

Terms.—Single Copies $3.

Price of Clubs for 1831.—All orders for GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE, commencing with 1831, will be supplied at the following terms:—

Single Subscribers, $3—Two Copies, $5—Five Copies, $10,—and Ten Copies for $20 and an extra Copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers. These terms will not be departed from by any of the three Dollar Magazines.
