THIS genuine Morgan Horse will stand during the ensuing Season at the Stables of GEORGE MINE, Kingston. On Monday Forenoons he will be at Barriefield, and on Friday Forenoons at Waterloo, all other days at the Stables above mentioned. He will be four years old in June next; is a beautiful Chestnut color, and remarkable for vigor of Constitution, uncommon development of Bone and Muscle, with a kind, docile and intelligent countenance. He is compact and short legged, yet of a rangy and majestic figure; his Chest and Flank are remarkably full and deep. His action is easy, graceful and commanding.

The very high reputation of this celebrated breed of Horses, and the extraordinary prices they command, render them by far the most profitable Horses to breed from in this Country. They possess great powers of endurance, and as roadsters, are unsurpassed; their Colts are eagerly sought after, and command prices varying from £20 to £150. The Morgans, as a Breed, are so universally known and esteemed, that it is unnecessary to make any further remarks respecting them. Breeders of good Horses are particularly invited to call and see him, an early application is desirable.
