THE NUBIANS.

The Nubian Minstrels gave their first Concert, at the City Hall, last evening, to a well filled house. The vehement plaudits of the audience were in no wise favorable to the timbers of the Hall. A few more such performances and the joints of the Building are ruined. These minstrels have attained an ease and freedom of execution, altogether creditable to them as real Simon Pures; for that they are the "true Originals," no one, after hearing them, can for a moment doubt. Here we have a true picture of the innate light heartedness of the Sable Race,—true of that straining after effect, which is the general characteristic of all imitators. The early hour at which we go to Press, precludes us from writing any thing in the shape of criticism; but the lovers of fun can rest assured that these Melodists are all that they have been cracked up to be, and that the price of admission will be a mere gain, particularly to the lovers of sweet sounds, and downright frolic. The following notice from the Toronto Globe, is selected at random from a. host of others equally flattering to the Nubians. A second and last Concert will be given to-night.

"Nubian Minstrels.—On Thursday night these Ethiopian Serenaders made their first appearance in the Temperance Hall, before a pretty large audience. Their performance consisted of a very good selection of negro melodies, songs, banjo, duets, choruses, &c. &c., and were particularly well received. The Burlesque Serenade on Mesmerism, was very amusing, in that unfortunate was executed with laughter-loving zest while entertainment. The voices, although admirably performed, were quite lost in the cellarage! the hall was quite full, which deserved the fate of a parcel of. Another performance was given last night with even more success than that of Thursday night. They appear again this evening and on Monday."

Trial of Mary and wife for Murder.

At the Perth Assizes, lately ended, Francis Bear and his wife were tried for the murder of William Berry, of Almonte, in the 8th of December last. The evidence against the man, though circumstantial, was clear and convincing. That of Mr. Sheriff Dickson we subjoin, as telling the tale completely:—

Sarapee Dickson, Sworn—Heard of the death of W. Berry on the 10th December through a messenger that came after him to go in pursuit of prisoners—but we time in doing so. Heard that the male prisoner had taken back of Ogdensburgh, and that she had relations at Smith's Falls. Went to Smith's Falls and found prisoners in the hands of James Conlins and James Fraser Deputy Sheriff of Dalhousie District. Found in their possession the trunk, sleigh, and horses said to be Berry's; Bear, witness said, affirmed that the horses and sleigh were his, and that the sleigh was made at Smith's Falls, at the time of his marriage with female witness. Witness said that he searched the pockets of Bear, and made a thorough examination of his person—took a watch and chain, with some other articles, from him.—The following morning after witness got male prisoner into his custody, he stripped him, and discovered some blood on his shirt, as on a belt which he wore. Witness had conversation with female prisoner, who told him that she had nothing to do with the murder, and complained of being kept from her children, preventing her interference in the matter. She told him, witness, voluntarily, that it was her husband who committed the murder—witness asked her where the axe was that prisoner used, she directed to him the place where it would be found. In accordance with her description, witness went after the axe and found it near the spot where she said it was. Mrs. Witness, heard that Bear was hit hatchet, and knew that a right handed person would throw it to the right hand—male prisoner told him, witness, that the act was committed between 9 and 10 o'clock at night—that she was lying in the bank at the time, and that he (male prisoner) made her get up, or he would take her life also.

The jury acquitted the woman, but found the man guilty, and Mr. Justice Draper sentenced him to be hanged on the 17th of May—next Saturday, adding out to him no hopes of a commutation of sentence.

NO CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT.

Thirteen members of the City Council, with the Mayor at their head, sat from ½ past six o'clock until eight o'clock in the evening, waiting for the arrival of two other members to make a quorum. But these two did not come, and the Council adjourned, without going to business, although that business was important. The attractions of "the Nubians" up stairs was too great.

CARDINAL WISEMAN AND THE BISHOP OF CANADA.

We had commenced translating the following documents from the Journal de Quebec, when the last number of the Montreal True Witness reached us, in which they appear in English. We have taken advantage of this circumstance to save ourselves the trouble of translating them. Our readers will peruse this correspondence with more than ordinary interest, on account of its local importance:—

TO THE MOST EMINENT AND ILLUSTRIOUS NICHOLAS CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER, &c., &c., &c.

May it please your Eminence,—

We, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Priests, of the Catholic Church in the Province of Canada, beg leave to offer to your Eminence our sincere congratulations, on the occasion of your elevation to the Cardinalate, and to the dignity of Metropolitan of the Catholic Sees in England. This testimony of our respectful esteem, is due to the illustrious qualities which characterize your Eminence, to the incomparable service which you have rendered to the cause of religion, and to the remembrance of your kind connection with the church of Canada, of which we have the honor to be the pastors.

British subjects as well as your Eminence, we most cordially rejoice in seeing re-established in your person, and that of your worthy brethren in the Episcopacy, that Hierarchy so necessary for the spiritual requirements of the Catholics of England, and in former times rendered so illustrious by the virtue and devotedness of its Anselms, its Thomas-a-Beckets, and its Fishers. We are convinced that the present successors of these holy prelates will, like them, guard with fidelity the sacred deposit which has been confided to their care, and, like them also, per cet it, even at the peril of their lives, against the encroachments of the temporal power, and the attacks of the enemies of our holy religion.

We beseech your Eminence to accept the prayers which we offer up to Heaven, for the prosperity of your Eminence and of your colleagues in the Episcopacy of England, and for the happy success of your apostolic labors.

Canada, January, 1851.

(Signed) † P. P., Archbishop of Quebec,
† Rive, Bishop of Kingston,
† Ignace, Bishop of Montreal,
† Rev. Baron, Bishop of Hyrana,
† Armand, Bishop of Toronto,
† Patrick, Bishop of Carrhe, Administrator of Kingston,
† J. C., Bishop of Marianopolis.

[Here follow the signatures of the members of the Clergy of the cities in which the above mentioned Prelates reside.]

To which his Eminence, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster, was pleased to return the following reply:—

TO THE RIGHT REV. THE BISHOPS, AND THE CLERGY OF CANADA.

My Rt. Rev. and Rev. Brethren in Christ,—

It is beyond my power to express the feelings with which I have received your cordial and truly Catholic address. It is well does it prove that the unity of our Holy Church is compact, that not even the vast expanse of ocean which separates us in body, can interrupt or deaden the bonds of religious sympathy and strict union which binds together the hearts and souls of her children!

But a voice like yours, from Canada, is more peculiarly welcome, for many reasons. I have had the gratification, through my long residence in Rome, of watching the progress of the establishment of the Catholic Hierarchy in your country; and knowing how much encouragement we have received in our own efforts from your success, you as your side, have experienced the blessing of a properly constituted ecclesiastical government sufficiently to understand our eagerness to obtain the same privilege; and your own long sustained struggle to obtain it, enables you to sympathize with us in our sufferings after its attainment.

Your fervent prayers, I am sure, will continue to be offered up for your afflicted brethren here while we rejoice that our cabalas have been excluded from the Penal Bill, and thus you will continue to enjoy, undisturbed, the benefit which, to us, has been pronounced incompatible with the prerogatives of our common Sovereign.

Recommending myself and my flock to your more special prayers, and once more cordially thanking you for your kind expressions, I am ever, dear Right Rev. and Rev. Brethren, your affectionate servant in Christ.

† N. Card. Wiseman.

Does not the echo of the [illegible] tell of the woes that were inflicted in? and shall not a man's good deeds live after him and sing his praise?

THE HALIFAX RAILROAD.

A gentleman in Halifax on Tuesday last received a telegraphic despatch from Mr. Howe, stating that on the refusal under the Cabinet of Nova Scotia was firmly united—that Mr. Young had positively resigned—and that Nova Scotia might be called upon at certain to do all in regard of the rail road, that may be required of her.—Quebec Gazette.

The Examiner says: Hyde-park is in the complete, undisturbed, undisputed possession of the young blackguardism of London. On Sundays, especially, the vagabonds assess themselves with stoning and hooting the passengers, and have their will of them in any way most diverting to them, at discretion. Not a park-keeper or police officer is to be seen during the Saturnalia. They seem to keep out of the way studiously, in order that practice may make perfect, and that at the opening of the Exhibition we may show foreigners the immense superiority of the British blackguard over the blackguards of every other nation of the world, and a beautiful specimen of the liberty of the subject.

Sunday Dramas.—The Orange Journal of Saturday says: Quite an excitement was produced at the steamboat landing, day before yesterday, at the appearance of a couple of ladies with the short Turkish dress. They were traveling in company with gentlemen, and were evidently people of cultivation. A revolution in female costume is undoubtedly in preparation. There can be nothing more unpleasant than the long, draggling dress which sweep the streets and steps wherever ladies move. As a matter of personal comfort, the Turkish dress must be most agreeable, in addition to its beauty.

In Spain, the dissolution of the Cortes is a confirmed fact, and it had created much excitement in the country. It seems that the only way to obtain quietness is to recall General Narvaez, whose politics are popular.

The King of Piedmont has been requested by Austria to allow the troops of that empire to cross his dominions, in case it is deemed necessary by a change of politics in France. We do not know, as yet, what has been the answer of King Emmanuel.

In Germany, the political state of affairs is always in a very dubious position. It has been rumored that Prussia has totally retreated to the old Germania Diet of Frankfort, and preventing Austria from making a part of the confederation. This news has not yet been confirmed.

A plot has been discovered at Sa-ohen in Galicia, which had for its object to put Hungary into insurrection. Muskets and ammunition of all sorts were found in a convent, where the conspirators used to meet. A general murder of all the Austrians in the country had been decided; and the plot would have succeeded, if it had not been divulged by a member of the party.

The people of Montenegro have resumed the war against Turkey. It will be remembered that these warriors are the most dreaded in Europe; and it is very likely this war will be terrible.

King Otho, of Greece, will not yet return to Athens. He had proposed to Prince Leopold, of Bavaria, to take his place on the throne of the Greeks; but the father and mother of the Prince refused to accept on behalf of their son unless article 40th of the constitution, by which the King of Greece is to practice the Greek religion, can be changed. Thus stands the matter; and King Otho has written to Athens, in order to see if such a proposition can be accepted.

The difficulty between Turkey and Egypt is decidedly settled; and the most important news from Egypt is the construction of the canal from Cairo to Suez. The engineers are already at work, and many comfortable hotels or caravansaries have been built on the road, which are furnished with provisions of all sorts, and principally with sweet water.—The old canal of Pharaoh has been found out, and it is to be cleaned, enlarged and entirely renewed. The two isthmuses of the world will be cut through, and the two seas be united.

Archbishop Hughes, of New York, who is still at Rome, was honored, on the 3d instant, with the pallium, which is the State garment of the Roman Catholic priests. This is one of the greatest favors which can be given to a dignitary of the church by Popes of the Holy City.

The steamer Huron, Captain McSwain, has commenced running between Brantford and Buffalo.

Oswego, May 8th.

There were sales yesterday of 2000 bus. Cleveland wheat on private terms, 3000 do. Southsky reported at 86 cts. Canal boats are arriving freely, and transhipments are brisk without material change in rates of freights.

The steam Propeller Bulkhead, with two Companies of the 19th Regt. Royal Artillery, on board, one of them for this garrison, arrived in Quebec on the 7th.

Fire.—We learn that the dwelling house of D. C. Smith, Esq., near Mill Creek, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Some sparks from the chimney settled on the roof, and were fanned into life by a violent wind, which then prevailing, and before it could be arrested, the building was burned up.

Elder Brigham Young pledges his house that he has only twenty-six wives. He is the Saint upon whom fell the mantle of Joe Smith, of the Mormons.

From the Montreal Herald.

TO ANNA E. OLIVER.

Tears are at times great souls cast down on earth,
For nations to admire and wonder at;
They on the world burst like a comet's birth,
And reign as glorious—and as glorious set.
So, young Inez gentle, you have rarely sung!
Those were not kitchen teachings of pious sire,
Which with delight smote all our feelings dumb—
Those deep revealings of the little heart,
Methought that Angels, tripping the light air,
Paused on their snow wings, and sweetly sang!
And wish'd in secret you were with them there,
So thrilling sweet thy murmurings were young child.
Oh! may a long, pure, happy life be thine,
So you may yet inherit their bright clime.
