FIRE! FIRE!

CAPITAL, $200,000.

The St. Lawrence Insurance Company Charter[illegible] 1826, continues to insure at an cheap [illegible] any other sound Company in Mon[illegible] Bank. It insures from fire to the [illegible] extensively and presents the following advan[illegible]

1st. Its capital is so nearly twice as great as any other Company in Montreal.

2d. It does not insure buildings in blocks, as other Companies do, but ordinary and detached buildings only. In the several towns of Hallowell, Wellington, Cobourg, Port Hope, and Picton, which it has lately visited