G. C. COLBY, W. M.

MODERN WOODMEN OF AMERICA.

Meet at the Plaindealer Office every second and fourth Monday of each month. Neighbors are cordially invited.

Call at Evanson's special sales.

J. W. CRIFTY & Son, Ringwood, have a new advertisement this week. Read it.

We are now enjoying the finest kind of Fall weather. Cool, clear and pleasant.

We learn that forty-eight couples attended the dance at Ringwood, on Friday night last.

Mr. SLADE will be from home, and no preaching in the Universalist Church next Sunday. Sunday School at 12 o'clock.

The Concert announced to take place at the Universalist Church on Sunday next has been postponed one week until Sunday Nov. 23d.

Do not forget if you want a first class Auctioneer, to call on P. K. Granger, McHenry. Or if more convenient we can fix dates for you at this office.

Persons having borrowed clocks belonging to J. P. Smith, the jeweler, are requested to return the same at their earliest convenience, and greatly oblige him.

NEWSPAPERS must be very careful now-a-days how they advertise church fairs. The announcement of a raffle for instance, might subject an entire edition to seizure by the postal authorities.

Miss BRILL wishes us to say that she will resume her class in music here about January 1st. This will be good news to those wishing to take lessons as she is undoubtedly one of the best teachers that ever visited this village.

MARSHAL McOMBER had a boarder over Sunday at the Hotel de Lockup, who very generously made a donation to the village Treasury on Monday morning.

It is said to be rather expensive boarding at this institution.

No one should fail to read the new advertisement of Jacob Bonsett, Hardware dealer, which can be found in another place in this paper. He has a large line of Cook and Heating Stoves, which he is selling at prices to suit the times.

The dancing public should bear in mind that there will be a Thanksgiving Party at the Riverside House in this village. The best of music will be furnished, and a regular old-fashioned time may be expected. Particulars hereafter.

A. J. RAYMOND advertises an Auction Sale of stock, at his residence, in Volo, to take place on Monday next, the 17th. This is all fine, blooded stock, and persons looking for something nice should not fail to attend this sale, on Monday next.

No more wearing quality than cheerfulness is known. It has been called the bright weather to the heart. It gives harmony to the soul, and is a perpetual song without words. It enables nature to recruit its strength: whereas worry and discontent debilitate it, involving constant wear and tear.

ADVERTISING business men are the ones to patronize. They mean business and are not too stingy nor too indolent to let the people know what they have for sale and what they propose to do. We have always found liberal advertisers the best firms to deal with, and the fact that they make their business known shows that they do business on strictly correct business principles.

"How dear to this heart is the old yellow pumpkin, when orchards are barren of stuffing for pies; when peaches and apples have both been a failure, and berries of no kind have greeted the eyes; how fondly we turn to the fruit of the corn field—the fruit that our children are taught to despise—the old yellow pumpkin, the mud-covered pumpkin; the big-bellied pumpkin that makes such good pies!"

RAMBLER in Every Saturday, has the following: "An agricultural paper is authority for the statement that 'a rabid dog bit a cow's tail and it died.' Poor dog, or was it the tail that died? And what became of the cow? It is hoped the second installment of this mysterious romance will be published in the succeeding issue of the aforementioned agricultural paper. Don't leave us in doubt. Let us know what became of the heroine—the cow."

The following is a very truthful remark: The man who grows up in his town is regarded as a boy by his elders until he is well started down the declivity of life that ends in a hole. The stranger who comes into a place is more often pushed to the front than the young man who has grown up with the town. This is the reason why so many young men become dissatisfied with their home surroundings and go to cast their lot in other quarters.

JOHN W. SMITH is reported by the Doctor in attendance to be slowly improving, although yet a very sick man. There are some hopes that he may get around again.

Demorest Medal Contest.

At Ringwood, Thursday evening, Nov. 20. Admission, adults ten cents, children and contestants free.

The Ladies' Willing Workers Society connected with the Universalist Church, will meet with Mrs. Sarah McOmber, on Thursday afternoon of this week.

Mrs. F. M. McOmber, President.

Today is a fine paper. Well, that is a fine condition. Buy a hen, feed her crumbs and waste from the kitchen and she will lay eggs enough to pay for a year's subscription; then work her up into a pot-pie and she will pay first cost; so the paper will be clear profit. Repeat this process year after year, meanwhile learn wisdom and cease to be poor.

This is the season to look after the household arrangements. Gases which are very deleterious to health come from cellars that are not properly ventilated. Diphtheria, scarlet fever, typhoid fever and croup have been known to be caused by the foul condition of the cellar. Those who live in the upper stories should keep a constant watchfulness over the cellars and see to it that they are kept clean.

The cold seems a trifle backward about coming forward, and unless the merchants can discover some "Discourager of Hesitancy," and apply it to the cold weather clerk in such a manner as to induce a drop of the mercury, prices will have to take a sudden tumble. It is to be hoped that this will not be the case, as people can better afford to pay good prices for than to get the same goods at merchant's costs and endure another open winter.

"Why is it," asked a citizen of a reporter on a city paper, "that newspapers make so many misstatements?" "Well," said the reporter of 20 years' experience, "the papers have to tell, as most of the news, the stories that men like you tell them, and it is a moral impossibility for nine out of ten men to tell a thing as it really was. Some may tell it as it seemed to them but what one man will swear to as the truth the next man will characterize as a lie."

A new song has made its appearance for public favor. It is dedicated to the Garden City, and entitled "She Got There Just The Same, the World's Fair, Chicago." The words are by H. J. Upthegrove and the music by Prof. W. F. Strong, both of Valparaiso. In a few weeks this piece of music will be sang all over the country. We predict for it a popularity equal to the "McGinty" Song. For sale by Chicago Music Co., 195 and 197 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

Epworth League.

At a meeting of the young people of the M. E. Church, Tuesday evening of last week, an Epworth League was organized. It is hoped that this will be to the benefit of our community both in a moral, intellectual and religious sense.

The weather prophets are making the usual variety of predictions about the coming winter. Some say it is to be a severe one because the "rag-weed" has grown to an unusual height, and they "never knew this sign to fail." The "hor-net's nest" prognosticator says that the winter is going to be open; and so it goes by no end of signs. But we shall take the weather just as it comes, for all that we can see. What a fruitful subject for discussion and prediction the weather is, to be sure! Every other man you meet ejaculates that "it is a fine day," or "what bad weather we are having!" just as if we had lost all our senses and didn't know the fact just as well as he. How nonsensical it seems to be telling one another the news about the weather!

STRAW WANTED.

Fifty tons of good, bright straw wanted, delivered to me in the village of McHenry, for which a reasonable price will be paid. F. K. GRANGER.

West McHenry, Oct. 21, 1890.

FOR SALE.—A good Cow. Inquire at this office.

Young Man, This is for You!

1. Save a part of your weekly earnings, even if it be no more than a quarter dollar, and put your savings monthly in a savings bank.

2. Buy nothing till you can pay for it, and buy nothing that you do not need.

A young man who has grit enough to follow these rules will have taken the first step upward to success in business. He may be compelled to wear a coat a year longer, even if it be unfashionable; he may have to live in a smaller house than some of his young acquaintances; his wife may not sparkle with diamonds, nor be replete in silk or satin just yet; his children may not be dressed as popin-jays; his table may be plain but wholesome, and the whizz of the beer or champagne cork may never be heard in his dwelling; he may have to get along without the earliest fruit or vegetables; he may have to abjure the club room, the theatre and the gambling hall, and to reverence the Sabbath day and read and follow the precepts of the Bible instead—but he will be the better off in every way for this self-discipline. Yes, he may do all these without detriment to his manhood, or health, or character. True, empty-headed folks sneer at him and effect to pity him; but he will find that he has grown strong-hearted and brave enough to stand the laugh of the foolish. He has become an independent man. He never owes anybody, and so he is no man's slave. He has become master of himself, and a master of himself will become a leader among men, and prosperity will crown his every enterprise.

Young man, life's discipline and life's success come from hard work and early self-denial; and hard earned success is all the sweeter at the time when old years climb up on your shoulder and you need propping up.

Three Links.

Travelers on business or bent on pleasure, invariably visit one of the great cities of the West, if their journey is at all prolonged. Nowhere else can be seen such centres of enterprise and American vim as in Chicago or Kansas City, and few invite lovers of elegance and beauty like St. Louis. In going further into the "Great West" there are various routes the tourist may select, but supposing the start is made from Chicago the great starting point of western travel, no line can be found more desirable than the Chicago & Alton, the great "Three Link" route, and its unsurpassed connections. Elegant cars, courteous train men, a first class track, and every convenience that modern railroading employs is here found for safety and comfort. The country traversed is unequalled for beauty of scenery—the fertile garden of the continent. Be sure and secure tickets of the Chicago & Alton if you would have a pleasant journey.

FAILURES IN LIFE

People fail in many ways. In business, in morality, in religion, in happiness, and in health. A weak heart is often an unsuspected cause of failure in life. If the blood does not circulate properly in the lungs there is shortness of breath, asthma, etc.; in the brain, dizziness, headache, etc.; in the stomach, wind, pain, indigestion, faint spells, etc.; in the liver, torpidity, congestion, etc. Pain in the left side, shoulder and stomach is caused by heart strain. For all these maladies Mr. Miles' New Cure for the heart and lungs is the best remedy. Sold guaranteed and recommended by G. W. Besley. Treatise free.

AN INVARIABLE SIGN.

Swelling of the ankles or feet when not due to rheumatism, Prof. DeCosta says, is always caused by a weak or diseased heart. So is shortness of breath, pain or uneasiness when lying on the left side, smothering spells. The only cure is Dr. Miles' New Cure. Sold at Besley's drug store.
