HOME TESTIMONY IS ALWAYS THE BEST!

DR. CORBETT'S SHAKER SARSAPARILLA.

Messrs. E. Burnap & Co.

Gentlemen,—You ask me to give a statement of the case of my little daughter, so long an invalid and quite sullen by a disease yet unexplained by any physician. The facts are these. At the birth of our little girl, her mother enjoyed well—always apparently in possession of health; but recently she has left the South, has begun developing slight lesions. In the winter of 1849, our little girl, then four years of age, was seized with a humor affecting her body generally. At this time we were residing in Philadelphia—fortunate for our child, we sought the best physicians in that city and in New York. Sadden's the miracles of her cure were so effected as to render her unable to feel herself.

No medical and proving of health, we resorted to various remedies, as recommended by physicians and friends. These seemed to produce no benefit, but we could second daily substituting, and yet were unbelieved. By the advice of Mrs. D. Bain, Esq., we at the celebrated Dr. C. Mott of New York, I purchased two bottles of Dr. C. Corbett's Sarsaparilla, understanding that Dr. M. approved of the preparation. We used it with singular benefit and pleasure. Since then, being in Boston, I have bought of you one small bottle, wishing it for my wife, from an Boston, supposing it would be just permanently, under the same salutary influence. My wife now assures me that she which is in perfect health, she does not under fatigue, and the muscular energy fully restored. The health of my wife seems rapidly improving by the medicine, the qualities introduced into the stomach being so small as to operate so slightly on the organs, but by its quiet action giving tone to the whole system, purifying the blood and restoring to vigorous her whole nature.

Refer to me whenever you please, and believe me, truly,

CHARLES S. WEBSTER.

Suffolk, ss.—Feb. 3, 1849. Then personally appeared the above-named Richard N. Webster, of New York, and made oath to the truth of the above as his free act and deed.

Before me,

CHARLES HAYWARD,
Justice of the Peace.

Fare from Ogdensburgh to Montreal $7
" " " Boston $7

No Change for passengers or of baggage from the Steamboats to the Cars, or from the Cars to the Steamboats, on this Route.

Arrangements are now being made for a through Train by Rail and from Ogdensburgh to New York, on the Valley of the Connecticut River, by which passengers can reach New York in one day from Rouse's Point—the nearest northern of the Ogdensburgh Route.

A new and complete route is now open to the Travelling Public, by which passengers desirous to go to New York or Montreal can have an opportunity of passing through a portion of the country, hitherto shut out from the Travellers for want of proper Railway connection from L. A. Ontario to the seaboard. This connection is now formed by the completion of the Ogdensburgh Railroad, (126 miles), and two Lines of Steamboats, Lake Champlain to New York and Boston. For a more particular description of all these routes, see subject matter in our advertisement.

As a new Route to and from Montreal, and from Canada West to Boston and New York, the Ogdensburgh Railroad and its connections, presents many objects of interest to Canadians at this time, more especially to those who are interested in the movement now making to give Canada West the advantages arising from a cheap, speedy and safe mode of Railway communication between Lake Huron, Lake Erie, Lake Ontario and the Atlantic Cities of the United States.

By taking the steamers at Hamilton, Toronto, and the Canadian Ports on Lake Ontario, passengers can be transported to Kingston, Brockville or Prescott. At Kingston, the United States Steamers touch on route to Ogdensburgh, connecting with the British Line from Hamilton. A Ferry Boat plies between Prescott and Ogdensburgh daily.

Travellers desirous of experiencing the method of operating Railways in the United States, can enjoy an opportunity (by taking the Boats stopping at Ogdensburgh in the evening), of viewing the Ogdensburgh Station Grounds, (20 acres in extent), the Dock, 1,200 feet in length; the large Passenger and Freight Houses, the Grain Warehouse and Steam Elevator now in progress of construction; the Engine Houses and Machine Shops, and move in the 10 o'clock, A. M., Train, which arrives at Rouse's Point, for dinner at 3 o'clock, P. M. The Steamboats bound north, leave Montreal from Rouse's Point, with their passengers at 7 o'clock, P. M.; thus giving Travellers time to examine the vast works in 1,200 feet long by 200 feet wide, built on a pier in Lake Champlain; the Machine Shops, Car Houses, Engine Houses and the Bridge, now constructing on the Vermont and New York side of the Lake.

The 8 o'clock, P. M., Train will always wait for the evening Boats from Kingston.

Parties on pleasure, during the summer months, after visiting the Falls of Niagara and the Suspension Bridge, if proceeding to Boston or New York, will view some of the most magnificent Mountain, Lake and River scenery in any part of America, when (via Ogdensburgh) passing through Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, the Valley of the Connecticut River, and the River Hudson.

The Ogdensburgh Railroad Company, anticipating that being the only Channel with the Atlantic Sea-Board for Canada West, on the most direct, expeditious and economical mode, will be the attention of all interested in the Commercial and General prosperity of the important section of the British North American Colonies, to an early and open examination of all the facilities offered by the Road and its connections, when it will be found that they have in view the most rapid and favorable channels through which to develope the Canadian trade.

THE MANSION HOUSE, BY R. LEACH,

(LATE S. R. SHAW.)

S. R. SHAW, in retiring from the "Mansion House," begs to tender his sincere thanks to the Public for their very liberal support during his connection with the House, and would cordially recommend a continuation of the patronage so liberally bestowed upon him to be extended to his successor.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the public that he has leased the Tavern Stand—known as the "Mansion House," and the extensive premises attached thereto, lately occupied by S. R. Shaw, where he will be glad to receive all old friends, and patrons of the House, under his management, and the public generally. He trusts he can make application to the wants of his guests by using every exertion to contribute to their comfort the Mansion House will deserve and continue to receive a large share of public patronage.

There is an extensive yard—and large and commodious sheds attaching to the premises, which the farmer and traveller will at all times find ample accommodation for his use and carriages. Attentive ostlers always in attendance.

A Carriage will at all times, during the season of Navigation, be in waiting at the boats, to convey passengers from the boats, and also to convey them from the house to the boats.
