No Charge for conveyance of baggage from the Steamboats to the Cars, or from the Cars to the Steamboats, on the Route.

Arrangements are now being made for a Through Route by Rail and from Ogdensburgh to New York, via the Valley of the Connecticut River, by which passengers can reach New York in one day from Rouse's Point—the nearest terminus of the Ogdensburgh Railroad.

A new and complete route is now open to the Travelling Public, by which passengers desirous of going to New York or Montreal, can have an opportunity of passing through a portion of the country, heretofore shut out from the traveller in want of proper Railway communication from Lake Ontario to the sea-board. This connection is now formed by the completion of the Ogdensburgh Railroad, (118 miles), and two lines of Rail from Lake Champlain to New York and Boston. (For a more particular description of all these routes, see advertisement in another column.)

As a new Route to and from Montreal, and from Canada West to Boston and New York, the Ogdensburgh Railroad and its connections, presents many objects of interest to Gentlemen of this town, more especially to those who are interested in the movements now making to give Canada West the advantages arising from a cheap and speedy transport of men of Business, communication between Lake Huron, Lake Erie, Lake Ontario and the Atlantic Cities of the United States.

By taking the steamers at Hamilton, Toronto, and the Canadian Ports on Lake Ontario, passengers can be conveyed to Kingston, Brockville or Prescott. At Kingston, the United States Steamers touch, on some of Ogdensburgh, connecting with the British Line from Hamilton. A Ferry Boat plies between Prescott and Ogdensburgh daily.

Under the disadvantage of experiencing the usual of commencing Railways in the United States, we have an opportunity for taking the Train connection at Ogdensburgh in the evening, of reaching the Ogdensburgh Station, Gouverneur, 40 miles in eight hours. The Mail, 4.10 hrs in length, the large Passenger and Freight Steamer, (to Green Bay House and Seven Elevators, now in progress of construction), the Express Steamer and various Stages, and leave in the 10 o'clock, A. M., Train, which arrives at Rouse's Point, for steamer at 3 o'clock, P. M. The Steamboats bound north, leave Rouse's Point, take their passengers on at 7 o'clock, P. M., thus giving Passengers time to see the Steamer, the most magnificent, (300 feet long by 104 feet wide, built on a plan to Lake Champlain), the Mammoth Stage, Car Hotel, Engine House on the Ridge, now commencing on the Vermont and New York and the Lake.

The S o'clock, P. M. Train goes through to Montreal, during the month of October, affording the Falls of Niagara and the Saguenay to Bridges, if proceeding to Boston or New York, with view more of the most magnificent Lake and River Scenery in any part of America, when you visit Quebec, (passing down Vermont and New Hampshire Mountains, the Valley of the Connecticut River, and the River Hudson.

The Ogdensburgh Railroad Company anticipating you being pre-view Connect with the Atlantic Steamer and the Canada West, at the most direct and speedy and even in all, every the advantages of all interested in the Commerce of the two Provinces of the Northern Section of the British North American Colonies, to an early and equal opportunity of all the business offered to the Road and its connections, when it will be found that there have in view the most rapid and reliable channels through which to exchange the Commodities trade.

(LATE S. R. SHAW.)

S. R. SHAW, on retiring from the "Mansion House," begs to tender his sincere thanks to the Public for their very liberal support during his connection with the House, and would cordially recommend a continuation of the patronage so liberally bestowed upon him to be extended to his successor.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the public that he has leased the Tavern Stand—known as the "Mansion House," and the extensive premises attached thereto, lately occupied by S. R. Shaw, where he will be glad to receive all old friends, and patrons of the House, under his predecessors, and the public generally. He trusts by close application to the wants of his guests—by using every exertion to contribute to their comfort the Mansion House will deserve and continue to receive a large share of public patronage.

There is an extensive yard—and large and commodious sheds are standing on the premises, where the farmers and travellers will at all times find ample accommodation for horses and carriages. Attentive ostlers always in attendance.

A Carriage will at all times, during the season of Navigation, be in waiting at the boats, to convey passengers from the boats, and also to convey them from the house to the boats.
