THE MANSION HOUSE

BY R. LEACH,

(LATE R. R. SHAW.)

R. R. SHAW, having left the "Mansion House," the proprietor, in order to express thanks to the public for their very liberal support during his connection with the House, and solicit continuity of the same, and the patronage so liberally bestowed upon him to be extended to his successor.

THE Subscriber begs to inform the public that he has taken the Tavern Stand known as the "Mansion House," and the adjacent premises attached thereto, lately occupied by R. R. Shaw, where he will be ready to receive old friends and patrons of the House, under his predecessors, and the public generally. He trusts by close application to the wants of his guests—by using every exertion to contribute to their comfort, the Mansion House will deserve and continue to receive a large share of public patronage.

There is an excellent yard—and large and commodious stable on the premises, with a good Tender, and hostler will at all times find ample accommodation for horses and carriages. Attentive ostlers always on the premises.

A Carriage will at all times, during the season of Navigation, be in waiting at the landing to convey passengers from the boats, and also to convey them from the house to the boats.

CAPITAL, ONE MILLION.

INCORPORATED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT 4 Vic. Cap. 8.

THE [illegible] of this Institution is unique, and the common Difficulties, issued by the different Agencies in Canada, evidently show that the advantages of Life Assurance are daily becoming more and more appreciated by those who feel the necessity of making some provision for their families, or securing the amount of debts due to them in case of premature death. The rates of the Britannia are the lowest which can be offered consistently with security to the Assured, and the undersigned have respectfully to invite the attention of the inhabitants of Kingston to the following Tables of Rates, specimens of which may be seen at his office.

The business of the Company, is principally on the large subscribed Capital, which is between Eighty and Ninety Thousand Pounds Sterling, per Annum, and of this the greater part is continually accumulating for the payment of losses.

A party effecting an Assurance with this Company, may pay for a fixed sum, payable at his or her death, without participating in the profits, and only insure an annuitable Bonus by outstanding one that is absolutely required to provide for the payment of a premium in profits is produced every party, that are Mutual Tables adopted with Companies which offer an annual division of the Profits, and which being supported by the other Bonuses of the Institution, hold out a very high and lucrative advantage to the person wishing to Assure.

All claims payable within three months after proof of death. No proof of birth is required at the time a claim is made; the age is the Assured being, in every case, admitted in the Policy, unless it shall be discovered to be otherwise, in which case the Policy is assigned to have full Credit, the same amount will be paid without deduction; if the Policy be assigned the full amount of Premiums received thereon will be refunded to the family of the Assured.

The necessary forms and every requisite information, as to the mode of effecting Assurances may be obtained either by personal application to
