THE Subscriber would respectfully notify the inhabitants of Kingston and neighbourhood, that he is prepared to execute PLANS and ELEVATIONS of BUILDINGS, having been engaged for a number of years in Practical Architecture, as well as Practical Workmanship. He flatters himself that all those who may engage him as an Architect and Surveyor, would feel satisfied with his designing and general knowledge of the business.

Lives of Jas Madison and Jas. Monroe.—Fourth and Fifth Presidents of the United States, by John Quincy Adams, to which is added a history of their Administration. 1 Vol. 12 mo. 345 pp. with Steel Portraits. Cloth, price $1.25.
This new and popular volume, being the only authentic record of the lives and public career of Presidents Madison and Monroe, has already passed through several large editions, over six thousand copies having been sold within the first six months of its publication, and the demand still continues unabated.
Extracts from letters received by the Publishers.
It is really a valuable addition to American Biography, as it is a gratifying proof of the enterprise and public spirit of the Publishers.
Z. TAYLOR.

H. CLAY.
Fremont's Exploring Expedition through the Rocky Mountains, Oregon and California, with additions, by Prof. Renwick, with numerous engravings and maps—640 pp. 12 mo. Cloth or Sheep. $1.25.
Oregon and California.—The Exploring Expedition to the Rocky Mountains, Oregon and California, by Rev. C. A. J. C. Fremont. This is a new 12 mo. of 600 pages, just issued by the Harpers & Co., of Buffalo.
Now that the people are getting their eye on Oregon, as it ought, while Lower Canada is so unfortunate, we have been prompted to urge on the Commissioners to work up to the Capital office and see Mr. Barker's Lecture. The subject is no better than that of Oregon. S. Y. Pilot.
Life of Gen. Andrew Jackson.—New edition, revised and enlarged, from Government Papers. Steel portrait—640 pages cloth or sheep $1.25.
On the week before we went to press we were asked, what the editor has to say to it? he answers—all other considerations aside, that the subject should possess it—the considerations that it was a living life in a great work, whose deeds were the property of the nation to which it belonged, and not any man or set of men.—Buffalo Commercial.
Vernon's Sermons on Government.—New and improved edition, 320 pp. in convenient binding, price $1.25.
Questions of public policy, not merely affecting a minority of our country, but involving important principles, and upon which every citizen, not unfrequently divides, let the battle be fought manfully—let not truth be sacrificed to expediency—let freedom without knowing what it defines and responsibilities of freedom and the poll lists of our State are crowded with thousands of new voters, who have never yet voted—let Conservatism be not a bugbear, nor Democracy a name of reproach.—
