GENERAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

American Repository of Inventions

To Mechanics, Inventors & Manufacturers.

Seventh Volume of the Scientific American.

MESSRS. MUNN & CO.

Inventors and Foreign Patent Agents, and Publishers of the Scientific American,

RESPECTFULLY announce to the public that the first number of Volume VII. of this widely circulated and valuable journal will issue on the 25th September. The new volume will commence with new type, printed upon paper of a heavier weight than that used in the preceding volumes. It is the intention of the publishers to maintain it more fully by introducing superior illustrations of inventions, besides furnishing the usual amount of engravings of new discoveries. It is published weekly in form for binding, and affords at the end of the year a splendid volume of nearly four hundred pages, with a copious index, and from five to six hundred engravings, together with a vast amount of practical information, covering the progress of science and discovery during the world. There is no subject of importance to the mechanic, inventor, manufacturer and general reader which is not treated in the most able manner, the editors, contributors and correspondents being men of the highest attainments. It is in fact the leading scientific journal of the country.

The Scientific will find it to be a weekly list of American Patent Claims, reported from the Patent Office, an important feature not found in any other weekly publication.

TERMS:

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR, ONE DOLLAR FOR SIX MONTHS.

☞ All letters must be post paid and directed to MUNN & CO., Publishers of the Scientific American, 128 Fulton Street, New York.
