TO THE

Electors of the County of FRONTENAC.

GENTLEMEN—

I received a requisition from the Freeholders of your County, numerously and influentially signed, inducing me to become a Candidate.

A reluctance on my part, arising out of personal considerations, to become a Candidate for any constituency, and, in fact, an aversion to face the storms of public life, have greatly stood in the way of my according to the call. However, the presentation of four requisitions, and the urgent and continued requests of men, whose character and views I highly appreciate, have imposed upon me the obligation of decided, and that at once. I have considered the matter anxiously, deeply, and thoughtfully, and at last find myself constrained to waive all considerations, and to place my services and abilities to your hands, at your disposal.

Being now committed to the coming contest, I am bound to cooperate with you in the proceedings necessary to secure the end in view.

In the prosecution of this contest I shall act and all of us act with moderation and good sense, like men who sincerely desire to serve the sacred cause of truth and public freedom, based upon the constitutional rights of the people, and those civil and religious liberties, which are so dear to the heart of every Britton. I view the duties of a Member of Parliament as of no ordinary character; his responsibility is great; the importance of his duties vast. The man who receives the suffrages of a people should spare no pains, omit no exertions, or fear no danger, in the cause of the people and good government.

I am of opinion that it is the interest of all classes to maintain the free constitution of this Province in its integrity, and to send men to Parliament who will see that it is worked out honestly and faithfully, for the benefit of the people, and not for the interest of a class or a privileged few.

Civil and religious liberty will find in me, as it has always found, a devoted friend and faithful adverate.

Perfect equality of civil and religious rights and privileges may be looked upon as the corner stone of the constitution, the birthright of every Canadian. In Parliament or out of Parliament I will maintain this principle at every hazard.

Agriculture lies at the foundation of all improvement; national prosperity is based upon it; without the efforts of the farmer the country would become a waste and a solitude, and our towns and cities desolate. It is true the Provincial Legislature has not entirely overlooked the interests of agriculture; but much remains to be done. Every effort should be made to secure the highest remuneration for the production of the soil. Everyone is aware upon which the state revenue should be freely and fairly expended to the farmer.

The construction of Railroads, and other medium or cheap and speedy communication is admirably calculated to increase the revenue of the agriculturist for his productions, by enhancing the value of grain and lessening the expense of transportation. I am ready to support such works of utility, but a good care that the interest of Canada shall be the first consideration, and that no additional burden shall be laid on the industry of the people.

The splendid achievements of the Arts and mechanical skill, aided by the light of Science and inventive genius, may be looked upon as the peculiar glory of the present age. The fostering of Science; the protection of the liberal and elevated arts by Legislative encouragement, will be warmly supported by me, as no country under the sun affords an ample field for the skill of the artisan and the operatives of the lovers of science than this magnificent Province.

The common sense of all men points out the necessity of increasing and equalizing the Representation of the people in Parliament. In a just proportion, is not already that the little town of Cornwall, with a population of 1,300, should have the privilege of returning one member, while the five counties of Frontenac, with a population of over 15,000, has only the same privilege? Such a state of things should not be tolerated. By an increase of representation there would be three members returned for every county. Now I am ready to support a comprehensive measure for increasing the Provincial representation.

Popular education should be among the first objects of a free Government. A comprehensive system of cheap education must be of immense interest to any country. Its ills to the rising public morals will be improved, crime repressed, order promoted, industry and prosperity made secure, and the character of the country elevated at home and abroad. I am of opinion that an improvement should be made in our present system of providing funds for common school purposes. The utility of the present system of taxation for school purposes is not clear to my mind. It is possible, should a proper equity be established, that it would be found not that funds arising from other sources, now of little or no use, or squandered for purposes of an public utility, might, with great advantage, be appropriated to the noble purposes of education. There is a subject above all others to which I look deep and vital interest. I mean the day in which I believe when the bonds of religion and the present man to the mother whom is of the Province will have an opportunity of giving a cheap, practical education to his children. Such a consummation can be accomplished, but not until men of patriotic minds, and liberal and enlightened views, are sent to Parliament.

Should I have the honor of being your Representative, my exertions, humble as they are, will be zealously and zealously exerted to promote such public measures as will contribute to the substantial interests of the Country of Frontenac, and the prosperity and happiness of the Province at large. I will endeavor to visit every Township in the County without delay when I will explain my views fully upon the various public questions of the day.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your faithful servant,
KENNETH McKENZIE.

Another Living Witness of the Hydropathic and Brande Medicines, from CAPTAIN MCMASTER.

I WISH to inform the Public, for the good of the afflicted, that I was very much with a cough and inflammation of my lungs and chest, which threatened my whole constitution. Expend no end of trouble to get rid of it, but I got no relief until I was advised to go to DR. BANKTREE, of Kingston, who I got his Medicines. It took but a short time, and little cost, until I could again rejoice in the return of my perfect health—thanks, God.

FRANCIS M'MASTER.

Amherst Island, 23d Aug., 1851. 242

SEEING and hearing of so many testimonials in Dr. Lobb's Medicines, induces me to contribute my mite to him and the public; for I was some time ago, to the knowledge of many in this city, given over as an incurable case, with Consumption of the Heart and Liver Complaint, and was effectually cured by his Medicines, lately. I was in despair with a Dropsical Swelling, which certainly diminish, to trust, so that I am now able to do my business well, thank God.

FRANCIS JERVIS.

Kingston, 30th August, 1851. 212

I FIND that I cannot do less than to give to the public the good work, that I was very ill since 1843 with the effects of a bath, which disabled my chest and spine, in such a way that I became debilitated all over my person, and unfit for any business, but paying away all the time and heating of so many persons cured or relieved, conducted by Dr. Lobb, of Kingston, I went to him, and by the use of his medicines, was able to do what I could not, I then felt equally as bad, that I am now restored thank God, to my family and perfect health again.
