On Thursday, the debate on the repeal resolutions was concluded, when the House adjourned till next day.

On Wednesday, in the House,

In the House on Wednesday, in the Committee of Ways and Means, Mr. Dunkin moved a series of resolutions, proposing an increase of 25 per cent. on Tavern Licenses, Auctioneers' Licenses, Pedlars' Licenses, and Billiard Table Licenses. The motion was carried. Mr. Dunkin then introduced a Bill founded on the above resolutions.

THE PAPAL ZOUAVES.—Montreal on Tuesday and Wednesday was all astir with demonstrations in connection with the departure of the Canadian Papal Zouaves. From an early hour on Tuesday evening, the Parish Church was crowded throughout its vast extent. It was decorated for the occasion, and in the middle of the proceedings the Zouave flags were blessed by the Bishop, and handed over to the corps. The Zouaves number about 125 young men, and most of them, it is said, military cadets. There is a good deal of feeling in the city with regard to the enlistment and departure of the corps. They left on Wednesday at 3 o'clock for New York en route to their destination, tremendous crowds accompanying the procession to the station, where Monseigneur Bourget addressed a few parting words. 10,000 people, it is said, witnessed their departure.

The Hamilton Times says:—

Times are reported exceedingly hard in Kingston, and prominent mercantile citizens are struggling on the verge of bankruptcy. The Board of Aldermen of the antique city have been inspired with the prevailing spirit of retrenchment, and after great ado have cut down the salary of the City Clerk and threaten the discharge of a policeman.

This will be news indeed to the people of Kingston.

Anxious to ascertain the amount of traffic on the upper Ottawa, with a view to extend their line to Pembroke, the managers of the Brockville and Ottawa Railway stationed a man on the road near Sand Point to count the sleighs as they drove past. He counted two hundred and twelve heavily laden sleighs in twelve hours.
