NEWS OF THE DAY.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 26, 1868.

CONCERT AT THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' SCHOOL.—The pupils of the Christians Brothers' gave one of their popular Concerts on Monday evening last, which again drew a large crowd to their rooms on Clergy Street; indeed many had to leave unable to gain entrance. These Entertainments are always pleasing, and got up with good taste and judgment. In selecting a programme the powers of the juvenile performers are specially consulted; too much is never attempted, and anything like failure is thus placed among the improbabilities, and the whole affair invariably goes off with good spirit and entire success. The entertainment on Monday night was no exception to the general rule, and among the many participants present there was not a single dissentient voice to the general opinion that the whole thing was alike creditable to both pupils and teachers, and all agreed that they had spent a most pleasant evening. The programme consisted of instrumental and vocal music, diversified by some minor dramatic performances, skilfully selected with a view to suit as far as possible the varied tastes of the audiences, while the presence of one or two really good singers tended to prevent anything like a wearisome monotony so common to juvenile exhibitions of this kind, and which few teachers having the control of such have the tact to prevent. Anything like a regular criticism would be entirely out of place in a performance of the character of last Monday's, which must be considered as strictly amateur. The printed programme was faithfully carried out, and the various performers filled their parts with credit. To particularise would be invidious when all did so well, and therefore it only remains to congratulate the Christian Brothers on the success of their pupils' Entertainment. Great credit is due to Prof. Fleck, the manager on the occasion.

☞ ASH WEDNESDAY.—To-day is Ash Wednesday, the First Day of Lent. Easter Day falls this year on the 12th of April, neither a late Easter nor an early one. Business in Canada rarely commences before Easter, and therefore the sooner it is past the better.

VOLUNTEER BOARDS.—The examination of volunteer officers by the Board of Officers will take place at Montreal, Quebec, Kingston, Toronto, and London, on the 10th March. No charge for travelling expenses will be allowed. Certificates will be of two classes:—1st, for ability to handle a Battalion at Battalion drill; 2nd, for ability to drill a Company at Company's drill, and to command a Company at Battalion drill. Other regulations as formerly.

☞ The Flag is up daily at the Citizens' Skating Rink, but the Rink is not patronized as largely as in former seasons, partly by reason of the constant spells of cold open weather, and perhaps, more especially, by the waning popularity of skating. However, the Rink is kept well cleared for those who choose to resort to it.

The weather for the past two or three days has not been very cold, but winter has yet a firm grasp on the country, and from present indications, will linger far into the lap of spring, unless an abrupt break up occurs. We have not yet had our fire thaw.

THE TRAINS.—Monday afternoon's trains got in on Tuesday morning, but up to six o'clock last evening no passenger trains had arrived at the station. The trains from both directions due yesterday morning at five o'clock, were cancelled. The afternoon trains were no doubt also cancelled, as it would have been impossible for any train to leave Toronto in consequence of the great snow storm, and the road Eastward must also be in a bad way. It is said that three or four locomotives were stuck in one drift on some part of the line. The impediments to travel this season have been very great.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—Anthony Mott and William Mott, brothers, were charged with assaulting Patrick Colleen, a small boy. The complainant stated that he was gathering some hay in Market No. 2, when Mrs. Mott, the mother of the two boys, came up and said the hay belonged to her, and struck him in the face, and her sons commenced throwing snow-balls at him. This happened on Saturday. On the following Sunday, as he was driving through the hay market, he was met by the defendants, who jumped into the sleigh and beat him, and took away his whip. The defendants denied striking him first, but as it was clearly proved, the Magistrate fined them $5 and costs. One drunk was discharged on promising to leave the city.

The Queen is writing a second volume about "Our" home life.

The ice in the Mississippi at St. Louis has broken up. Good for the early opening of navigation.

The clan Frazer, originating with a gentleman of the name in Montreal, is called to assemble at Ottawa on the 14th May.

The permanent appointment of Sir Narcisse Belleau and Gen. Doyle, as Lieutenant-Governors of Quebec and Nova Scotia respectively, is gazetted.

It is rumoured that the Rev. Mr. Speke is not the only person mysteriously missing from London, but that another gentleman of aristocratic connections has disappeared in an equally inexplicable manner.

It is calculated that at the present time full choral service is celebrated in nearly one-fifth of the London churches. Of these services rather more than one-half are Gregorian, and nearly all the choirs are surpliced.

The Government of Ontario has promised that the revision and consolidation of the various statutes relating to the administration of justice shall occupy the serious attention of the executive during the recess.

The English papers say that Lord Russell will continue to act as leader of the Liberal party until the assembling of the new Parliament, when he will formally retire from active public life. A man seventy-five years of age, who has been prominently engaged in public life for considerably more than half a century is surely entitled to "rest and be thankful."

The Montreal papers report the death of Mr. Jas. McCullough, a young man widely respected. He was on his way from Montreal to Quebec, and got out at Dunham station where he delayed until the train moved off. He rushed out, and in attempting to step on board the car his hand slipped from the guard railing, and he fell from the platform. The train passed completely over his body, almost severing it, and causing instantaneous death.

A Washington special to the N. Y. Herald says:—"Commissioner Wilson, of the General Land Office, has had an interview with a prominent official of the Canadian Government, who holds a life office from the Crown, in relation to the public lands for sale in Kansas. This gentleman states that it was his intention to resign his office, and lend his assistance to organize a colony of Canadians with a view to settling in the southern part of Kansas." Hon. David Christie is the official referred to, but the story is doubtful.

The New Brunswick journals call for the immediate filling up of two vacancies in the body of Senators from that province. The Ottawa Times states that these appointments will be made in time to give New Brunswick its full representation in the Senate on the re-assembling of Parliament.

WARNINGS OF SICKNESS.

Disease, like the rattlesnake, generally gives warning before it strikes. Pain in the side and between the shoulders, indicates an approaching bilious attack. Avert it by taking without delay, a dose of Radway's Regulating Pills. Persons predisposed to Biliousness will save themselves much suffering by implicitly following this advice.

J. Reyner's Tuning & Repairing Establishment is in Perfect Order.

J. REYNER, having engaged the best practical workmen formerly employed by the late Mr. John C. Fox, to repair Pianofortes and Musical Instruments in general, the public has a chance now that was never offered before in Kingston, and if owners of Pianofortes will favor him with their orders forthwith, it will enable him to keep the best of workmen, so that they will not leave the city; and to keep good mechanical men for all branches of Trades and Professions is the great and powerful lever which will make a city flourish and prosper.

Pianos repaired and made as good as new, if taken in time. Prices as low as possible.

Parlor Organs and Melodeons tuned and repaired at

J. REYNER'S Marble Block Music Store, Princess Street.
