"King Theodore.—A Frenchman, named Fargues, writes to his mother in France that he has just escaped from a prison in Abyssinia, where he was confined seven years, bound with strong ropes. This was because he entered the country without leave, and was taken for a spy. At last he induced the daughter of his jailer to give him some grease, with which he anointed the ropes nightly at the same places, and rats, which abounded in the prison, gnawed them through in the space of three months. He then escaped, and travelled only by night for twenty-three days, till he reached the English encampment. He says, King Theodore is intelligent, and by his courage and force of character has obtained great influence, and that in the mornings he is mild and just. His greatest pleasure then is to hear and discuss news from Europe; but

"At midday, that is to say, after his first repast, the wine man gives place to a demented king. Excited by drunkenness, he is subject to all kinds of hallucinations.—He suspects everybody, and sees everywhere enemies and traitors. A prey to the fire of alcohol, which devours him, he thirsts for human blood. Then every one trembles and cowers at his feet."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1868.

☞ The 14th Battalion Vol. Rifles will parade as usual on Monday evening for drill, when the Band will be present.

Loan and Investment Society.—At the annual meeting of the Frontenac Loan and Investment Society a very satisfactory report and statement of the business of the Society was submitted to the shareholders. The then retiring Directors were re-elected, after which the Directors met and appointed T. Kirkpatrick, Esq., M.P., President, and Dr. James A. Henderson, Vice-President.

Robbery on the Cars.—The Globe warns persons travelling on the cars against making "agreeable acquaintances" among strangers present. The late outrage near Prescott has alarmed travellers by reason of its audacity. It shows that organized gangs travel on all the trains to trap the unwary. The Toronto papers report that a respectable youth from the county of Prince Edward, named Chas. K. McKendry, has been most cruelly robbed, while on his way to the Military School at Toronto. On the way up on the night train he fell in with a couple of "very nice young men," with whom he had several games of cards in the smoking car. The nice young men easily drew out McKendry's history. Between Coburg and Toronto they had several drinks in company, one of the strangers producing a bottle of brandy. When they reached Toronto McKendry was quite "mellow." He drove off from the station in a hack with his newly-found friends; they went, he knows not where, but on returning to consciousness next morning, he found himself lying behind a fence in the eastern part of the city, minus his watch, breast-pin, and nearly seven hundred dollars in money, which he brought with him for the purpose of paying some claims at the Crown Lands Department. No doubt the fellows had drugged him, and when he became stupid they had helped themselves to all the valuables in his possession, then left him where he found himself in the morning, to sleep off the effects of the dose. There is no clue to the robbers. These outrages are new to Canada, but are very frequent on the railroads in the States. It is to be hoped that the railroads here will not be further disgraced by them.

The Fenian Raid on Canada.—The Secretary of State sent to the U. S. Senate a large mass of correspondence, etc., in reply to a resolution of that body relating to the arrest and trial of Col. Robert B. Lynch and others, by the Government of Great Britain, for alleged participation in the Fenian raid into Canada in 1866. The documents show what has been done by the Government of the United States, including letters from Secretary Seward, who, in writing to Rufus King at New York, on the 3rd of February, regrets to say that upon a renewed request of the Executive of the United States, the British Government is just now entirely disinclined to exercise further clemency in the case of Robert B. Lynch; and in reply to a note of Mr. Ford, of the British Legation, Feb. 4, says that Mr. Lynch, who was convicted for alleged participation in the so-called Fenian raid, never united in such invasion, but, on the contrary, denounced the scheme as impracticable. He regretted that the British Government would not mitigate the sentence. But if Mr. Lynch did not unite in the invasion why was he present at Ridgeway with the marauders, and how can he account for his present situation?

Nova Scotia Relief.

The following are the amounts received from Ontario and Quebec in aid of the distressed fishermen, in Nova Scotia currency: Province of Ontario, $5,150; Province of Quebec, $4,120; Hamilton, $1,600; Co. Wentworth, $403; Hamilton Theatrical Amateurs, $95; Caledonia Re-Union, $36; Galt, $206; Toronto, $2,050; Montreal, $2,060; County of Oxford, $205 94; Owen Sound, $51 50; Kingston, $411 88; County of Lambton, $103; Guelph, $514 85; Proceeds of Concert, Ottawa, $210; County of Haldimand, $200; County of Middlesex, $200; London, $284 10; Count of Essex, $308 25; Proceeds of Concert by Mr. Kennedy at Windsor, $754 57; County of Simcoe, $204 50; Ottawa, $1,030; Miscellaneous, $88 41. The above is, of course, only a statement of the donations already actually received in Halifax, and there is no doubt that this amount will be largely augmented.

☞ The ice bridge, which spanned the Niagara River a short distance below the mighty cataract, was carried off last Sunday night. The ferry boat has commenced its trips. The towers of the new suspension bridge have been raised, and two wire cables are thrown across. Though the river has risen considerably since the thaw, yet the lake ice is not coming down yet. The lake at Buffalo is still frozen over.

Police Court, Saturday.—A farmer, named Stewart, preferred a charge against William Marshall, carter of this city, for running into him while complainant was coming down a hill with a load of grain near Portsmouth. Complainant stated that while he was coming to town on Wednesday last, he was met by defendant coming up the hill. He turned out and gave defendant half of the road. Notwithstanding this defendant drove into him and broke his shaft, and when he asked him to repair damages, he was impudent and drove on. One witness deposed that he measured the road next day, and found that the travelling part of the road was 18ft. wide, and of that Marshall had 11½ feet, leaving 6½ feet for complainant. Stewart's waggon was then on the road and broken. Defendant was ordered to pay damages and costs.

Thirty-four dogs were destroyed by the keeper of the dog-pound in Hamilton in one evening.

The body of a child was found on Friday in a match box at one of the Grand Trunk sheds at Point St. Charles, Montreal. No clue to the mother could be obtained.

FROM OTTAWA.

Patents—Commercial Interests—Sugar duties.

Ottawa, March 20.

A bill relating to patents is now in course of preparation by the government. Its provisions will be liberal, accepting U. S. principle of reciprocity, and allowing American patents to be taken out of the Dominion on the same terms as Canadians are allowed to obtain patents in the United States.

A deputation from Montreal, representing the tobacco, banking, and insurance interests, had an interview to-day with the Finance Minister in regard to insurance. Representations of English companies are in favor of the bill before the House, and are even disposed to make the deposit higher. They wish the privileges, however, of depositing British consols instead of money as security. Representatives of American companies compose the deposit altogether.

A deputation relative to the same duties is expected next week. It is probable that if the tariff to be proposed will impose mixed specific and ad valorum duties, the latter to be 25 per cent. The charge will be in the direction of the wholesale importers of Ontario, but probably not in accordance with their duties.

HANDY TO HAVE IN THE HOUSE.

In addition to its wonderful utility as an instant alleviator of internal pain, Radway's Ready Relief is a specific for external Inflammation. As an application for Spasms, Bruises, Strains, Cuts, Burns and Stings, it is literally indispensable in every household.

WHEN

Charles Dickens!

Comes to Kingston

His first Reading should be as follows:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—You are a favored people—you are a happy people; indeed I see health and happiness beaming in every countenance in this Hall. There must be a cause for all this, ladies and gentlemen, and I have been questioning my intellectual faculties for some moments in order to solve, or find out that cause. In passing through one of your streets lately I happened to drop into a store kept by a MR. MORRISON, and learned before leaving that nearly all the respectable people in Kingston and vicinity dealt with MR. MORRISON; hence, ladies and gentlemen, I am not astonished to see so many happy faces around me this evening, and believe me when I tell you that nearly all your happiness, all your health, is due to the fact that you buy

Morrison's XXX Pastry Flour,
Morrison's Family Flour,
Morrison's Kiln-dried Oatmeal
Morrison's " Corn Meal.

Expected this week, 300 Brls. Bakers' and Family Flour, from the celebrated Thistle Mills, manufactured expressly for MORRISON.

SUGAR CURED HAMS.

I would especially call the attention of my numerous customers to Two Cases of Sugar Cured Hams received last Saturday. They will compare favorably with the celebrated Westphalia Hams.
