

All Honor to McHenry.

The town of McHenry done herself proud on Tuesday. A democratic town, with a majority two years ago for the democratic ticket of sixty-nine, on Tuesday came out of the fight with a majority for Geo. Rushton, Republican candidate for County Clerk, of five votes, and for Wm. Wire, Republican Candidate for County Superintendent of Schools, of twenty-four votes, while the Judge, Sheriff and Treasurer on the mugwump ticket had bare majorities, the highest being twenty-two. It will therefore be seen that the Republicans have made a clear gain in this town of from forty-six to fifty-two votes.

When it is taken into consideration that this was accomplished in the face of the former large democratic majority and against the combined efforts of a score of leaders, sent out by the sore-head element, we consider the result as one of which the Republicans of McHenry have cause to feel proud. All honor to the straight Republicans of McHenry.

McHenry County.

The result in McHenry county is even better than the most sanguine could have hoped. The campaign on the part of the Mugwump-sorehead combination and their Democratic allies has been the most disgraceful ever known in the history of the county. The most systematic lying and misrepresentations have been resorted to, and nothing was too low for them to do in order to accomplish their ends, but thanks to the intelligence of the people they have signally failed at every point, and the whole gang, mugwumps, soreheads and their Democratic allies have been relegated to their political graves, there to remain forever more. The people have no use for them.

The Republican party of McHenry county comes out of the fight with clean skirts, and elects every name on its ticket by a majority in round numbers of over 1,000. This should be a lesson to disappointed office-seekers for all time to come. If there are wrongs in our convention system let them be righted in our own ranks. Thus the people decided on Tuesday and in so emphatic a manner that no one need mistake their meaning.

The Legislative Ticket.

The following is the vote on the Legislative ticket, in this District, on Tuesday last, as far as we have received it:

R. J. Beck..... 8981
Geo. Reed..... 8510
Geo. R. Lyon..... 7819
P. H. DeLaney..... 8581

It will thus be seen that Beck and Reed, Republicans, and DeLaney, Democrat, are elected. We have not received the vote of Shurtliff and Bradbury, Independents, but this much we do know, that Shurtliff is alone responsible for the defeat of Lyon, who lacked only 762 votes of beating the Democratic nominee. While Shurtliff had no earthly show of being elected, for the purpose of venting a petty spite because he was not successful in the Republican convention, he caused the defeat of one Republican nominee and deprives the Eighth District of being the Banner District of the state. This may be good politics but it will be hard to make the people believe it in the future.

The figures show that what we have all ways claimed is true, that the Republicans have votes enough and to spare to elect three men in this District, but some fool sorehead, not having sense enough to abide by the will of the people in convention expressed, is sure to step in and defeat what otherwise would be a glorious victory. But thank God we have a majority in the Legislature that will ensure the election of a Republican United States Senator, and the District has lost nothing by the trying.

County Majorities.

The following are the official majorities for the different county officers:

C. H. Donnelly, County Judge..... 1846
Geo. H. Rushton, County Clerk, ... 1298
Henry Kaye, Treasurer..... 928
Geo. Eckert, Sheriff..... 798
Wm. E. Wire, Co. Supt. Schools..... 1427

Where, oh where, were those 1147 Republicans who signed that Petition? Echo answers.

Butter on the Elgin Board of Trade on Monday was higher than last week; 27,970 pounds sold at 23c. and 2,700 pounds at 23 1/2c. The market was active. Last week's prices were 22 1/2c; a year ago prices were 27c to 28c.

The Keeley cure and the Willow Bark will soon be no where, if the story told in the following dispatch from Ishpeming, Mich., has any foundation in fact:

A report comes from the Ropes gold mine, near here, that at the bottom level a spring has been struck, which supplies a strong stream of highly colored water, being nearly as yellow as gold and plainly holding considerable of that precious material in its solution. It is very palatable and ice cold. Several of the men working in that level have been in the habit of freely drinking this water, and it was noticed that as they drank the desire for alcoholic stimulants died within them. Some of the men have been heavy drinkers of beer and whiskey, but since the use of this water they had no wish for any stimulants. Their health and physical condition is generally improved, and it is thought that the water is a natural "gold cure," not only for the liquor habit, but for general diseases. There is some talk of erecting a high hospital at the mine, using the water as a cure-all for the ills of men.

A VOICE FROM THE DEEP!

Where's Dat Watermelon?

The Election on Tuesday was one that carried joy to the heart of every loyal Republican. It was more than a victory, for not only were the offices filled by Republicans but sham democracy was buried so deep that they will be heard of no more until the resurrection morn.

We can no better express ourselves than by copying the following from the Inter Ocean of Wednesday morning: "The inconsiderate verdict of 1892 was reversed with a whoop. Two years ago the Republicans lost Illinois by 26,993, Indiana by 7,125, New York by 45,518, Wisconsin by 6,544, and saved Ohio only by a narrow margin of 1,072 Republican plurality. Yesterday every state was reclaimed, Illinois by 125,000, Indiana by 50,000, New York by 150,000, Wisconsin by 50,000, Colorado by 20,000, Ohio increased her great Republican majority of last year, and Michigan, Massachusetts, and Iowa their majorities of two years ago.

Two years ago the Republicans elected only 127 of the 356 members of Congress and lost the Legislatures in enough States to give the Democrats control of the Senate. Yesterday they regained nearly every lost Republican district and carried many of the strongest Democratic districts by large majorities, defeating Wilson in West Virginia, and invading several Democratic strongholds in the South.

The Republican tidal wave seems to have involved more or less all the States holding elections, increasing Republican majorities in Republican districts and decreasing or wiping out Democratic majorities in Democratic States.

It is a great victory, and as significant as it is great. It means that the people, having tried the Democratic party with full power, repudiate national and state administrations, and give the Republican party a new vote of confidence. It means repudiation of free trade and free-trade methods, and a ringing indorsement of protection and other fundamental principles of Republicanism. It is a repudiation of Tammany in New York and Chicago and a promise of better things in municipal, State and National affairs.

The sorehead candidate for County Clerk thus soliloquizes: "Many are called but few are chosen." "Where am I at?"

The final disappearance of the mugwump-sorehead combination.

WHAT A BLIZZARD!

I did not think that snow storm I predicted would so effectually squelch both myself and my mugwump friends. Why, my candidacy against Wire was only a rubber doll with a squeak to it.

J. D. C. as he appeared after the votes were counted in Champaign on Tuesday evening. "Twas ever thus from childhood's happy hours," etc. Oh, where was that eleven hundred?

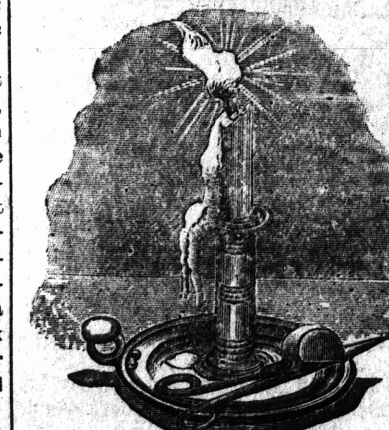

You blank fool, I told you you couldn't make that race for sheriff. You were out-classed by that Republican horse.

A sorehead trying to explain. "Excuse these tears."

Where? Oh! Where are those 1100(?) that signed my petition?

THE USUAL WAY. It would seem that the collapse of so many "get-rich-quick" schemes in this country during the past few years should have warned the people not to put their trust in similar devices for acquiring sudden wealth. As a rule these schemes have been conducted on the plan of receiving monthly assessments of members and seizing large sums of the money thus deposited and distributing it among holders of certificates bearing the lowest numbers. The unfortunate owners of high numbered certificates invariably got left, for it was inevitable that such a mode of handling and disposing of money must soon end in bankruptcy.

This fact has been repeatedly demonstrated to the great cost of thousands of victims of such enterprises as the Iron Hall and its numerous large and small imitators, and yet the lesson was wasted on many people. Even in Pennsylvania, which was overrun by these swindles, the experience of the past has had but little effect, for news comes of the collapse of a Pittsburgh concern which roped in about 40,000 victims and made way with from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 of their money. It put forth what it called a "discretionary pool system" and promised profits of 20 to 200 per cent a month. It goes without saying that the insiders made money, while the losses fell on thousands of poor people who could not afford to part with a cent of their earnings. The way to treat such concerns is to let them severely alone. They are worse than lotteries, and ought not to be allowed to do business.

aiding the sufferers.

A report of the commission appointed by the governor of Minnesota to care for the sufferers by the great forest fire in that state has been published. It is gathered from this report, which is written by Rev. Wm. Wilkinson, that there was a utter destruction of farm buildings, implements and food supplies over a space of 600 square miles. The first work of the commission was to collect and bury the dead and open depots for food supply for the living. Of the dead 447 were identified. After temporary relief had been organized a systematic effort to provide substantial shelter was made, and everywhere throughout the burned district houses are going up to protect the homeless people from the rigors of a Minnesota winter. The winter food supply must be wholly provided for by state aid or private charity; and in the spring there will be need of grain and potatoes for seed, and an entirely new equipment of agricultural implements and live stock. The people of other states than Minnesota may well contribute to render the poor people comfortable and prepare them for resuming their pursuits in the spring. Many of the injured will require constant care and protection and 200 orphans must be provided for.

The fire was one of the great calamities and every effort should be put forth to render the victims as comfortable as possible. When congress assembles it should hasten to enact a special law permitting settlers to cut the partially burned timber on land that has not yet fully passed out of the control of the government.
