Important From Ottawa.

Ottawa, April 7.

It is reliably stated that Hunter, Rose & Co., of Ottawa, have been appointed Queen's Printers for Ontario, and that one of the firm has gone to Toronto to secure a building for the work.

It is said a telegram was received by Mr. Tilley to-day from one of Mr. Sandford Fleming's surveying party, informing him that they had discovered a practicable central route which can easily be graded.

Recent advices from Newfoundland state that the consideration of Confederation will depend upon the action taken in Nova Scotia, and that until matters are settled, so far as that Province is concerned, no steps will be taken by the Newfoundland Government.

Private letters received within a day or two from London, state that the Hon. Joseph Howe has had an interview with the Duke of Buckingham, Colonial Secretary, in relation to his repeal mission, and that the Duke, after hearing him at length, quietly replied that the Union was at present the policy of the Empire, and that the Government could not, under the representations submitted by Mr. Howe or the other Anti-Union delegates whom he understood to be in London, undertake to stultify itself at this early day by reversing the deliberate and well-conducted course arrived at when it advised the Queen to sanction the British America Act last year.

It is also understood that the Duke referred to the unconstitutional course adopted by the Repealers, inasmuch as the resolutions passed by the Nova Scotia Assembly, while purporting to be the expressions of the Nova Scotia people, had not received or been submitted for, the concurrence of the Legislative Council and Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 10, 1868.

MILTONIAN TABLEAUX.—These splendid Tableaux were exhibited in Kingston for the first time last evening, and attracted a large audience. As productions of art the paintings are far superior to those of an exhibition which visited Kingston about a year or two ago, and merit still greater patronage. The Tableaux well deserve the encomiums that have been lavished on them by the press everywhere. The paintings are vivid illustrations of the visions created in Milton's renowned and highly imaginative poem, "Paradise Lost," and fix the impressions of the work on the mind.

Again to-night and to-morrow night the Tableaux will be exhibited in the City Hall, when they will doubtless draw still larger audiences. To-morrow afternoon a matinee for the benefit of those who cannot attend at night.

☞ Though the most lying telegrams were sent to the New York Herald and other Fenian sympathising journals concerning the death of Mr. McGee, and the state of feeling in this country, which were calculated to arouse the feelings of the Irish-Americans, a deep abhorrence of the crime has shown itself, and a profound regret is felt at the loss of Mr. McGee. In New York, where he is well known, the news created no ordinary excitement, and there were many who declared the tragedy a foul murder. The opinion is advanced that the murder plot was not countenanced in the American Fenian Circles, and the leaders of the Brotherhood have assisted greatly in establishing that opinion by taking proper advantage of it.

ARREST.—One of the hands of the str. Watertown, named Stigney, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policeman McLoughlin, in Ordnance street, on the charge of having, on the night previous, broken open a trunk on board that vessel, belonging to Mr. A. Packard, and taken from it a pair of jet ear-rings and a brooch, valued at $10. Stigney had charge of the baggage from 10 to 12 o'clock that night.

POLICE COURT, Wednesday.—One drunk, from the country, was fined $2, or in default, 30 days in gaol. John Wilson, a seedy looking immigrant, was charged with being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded hard to be allowed to depart, stating that he was on his way to Toronto, where his friends reside; but as he is a very hard case, the Magistrate fined him 13 or 30 days in gaol. Thomas Grange, for the same offence, was sent up for one month. Three boys were charged with throwing stones at John Mann, in Stuartsville, but as the complainant did not appear the boys were discharged. The Magistrate gave instructions to the police to stop the playing of cricket or marbles in the public streets. Several cabmen were summoned up for leaving their cabs and crowding round the steamer Watertown on her arrival, much to the annoyance of passengers. Several inhabitants were notified to provide themselves with ladders to their houses. According to the city by-law they are liable to a fine if they are not properly provided with them.

THURSDAY.—Jas. Simpson was charged with being drunk and disorderly, and with breaking a cab at the lower depot yesterday, while in that condition. The accused was fined $5 and bound over to keep the peace. He took the penalty good-naturedly, acknowledged his offence, paid the fine, and became his own bail for his future good conduct. Jimmey Ryan, up on his old charge, was allowed to go on promising to go to work. One drunk, from Port Hope, was allowed to depart on promising to leave the city. Several cabmen were charged with leaving their cabs and crowding round the steamer Watertown on her arrival. One of them, John Flanigan, denied the charge, stating that his cab at the time was being repaired. Flanigan was discharged, and the others were fined $1 each.

Death of Mike Murphy.

It is a very singular circumstance that on the very day that Mr. McGee was martyred for his adherence to law, order and country, Mike Murphy, of Toronto, the father of Fenians in Canada, should have been on his death-bed, an exile, at Buffalo. It will be recollected that he and some companions were arrested on the Grand Trunk Railway, on their way to Lower Canada, to assist the Fenian movements. They were found armed with weapons, and plenty of proof was at hand to convict them of treasonable conspiracy, rapine and plunder. They were committed to Cobourg jail, but after laying there some time eventually escaped by digging a hole under the wall, and making for the river, got into a boat that was waiting, and gained the American shore. For some time after he arrived in Buffalo he attained a little notoriety, but at last fell into that despicable obscurity that befalls those who conspire to betray their country's cause. Latterly he kept a little groggery, and died at 24 Exchange street, on Monday night. There, one Irishman clinging to the fortunes of his adopted land died a martyr to its cause, and a nation's tears bedew the spot on which his mangled remains fell; the other seeking to introduce a horde of foreign outlaws to overthrow the Government and carry weeping and wailing to the hearth-stones of our land, dies almost unknown, despised and uncared for, in an obscure lodging among strangers. The incident is not without a peculiar significance. Mike Murphy leaving life unhonored and unsung; Mr. McGee passing away by violence, it is true, but wearing a martyr's crown and followed by a people's love.—Free Press.

ALMOST EVERYBODY'S COMPLAINT.

Thousands of people, who do not call themselves sick, frequently complain of loss of appetite, fullness and weight in the stomach after eating, and inability to bear fatigue.—These are indubitable signs that the stomach and liver do not perform their office properly, and that the alterative tonic and mild aperient operation of Radway's Regulating Pills is really needed. Resort to them at once.

Price 25 cents per box, coated with sweet gum, free form taste. Sold by Druggists.

Royal Italian Bitters.

OR

Tonico Reale,

DEL DOTTORE F. P. VERRI,

Professor of Chemistry in the University of PADUA, ITALY.

THIS celebrated Preparation—for which a Certificate of Merit was awarded to the distinguished original preparer at the National Exposition at Torino, Italy, by whose favor Mr. GIANELLI obtained the Recipe and was also awarded a Diploma at the Provincial Exhibition of Canada held at Montreal in September, 1865—is, without exception, the most Genuine, Salubrious and Agreeable TONIC ever introduced to public notice either in Europe or America.

For seventeen years it has, in Italy, been a universal favourite among the elite of Society, being generally served in the Drawing Room immediately before Dinner, in preference to Vermouth.

The ingredients of its composition have been imparted to the leading Physicians of Montreal, and have received their unqualified approval on every account.

The Proprietor has no idea of parading or puffing it before the public, but merely asks a sound and unprejudiced trial.

Kept by the principal Wine Merchants Druggists and Grocers in Canada.
