NEWS OF THE DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1868.

THE BURGLARY AT CORNWALL—AN EXTRADITION CASE.—The four burglars who committed the recent burglary at Cornwall and were arrested at Moira station, New York, have been examined before a bench of Magistrates, and committed for trial. The stolen money (over $500) was found on them, as well as a kit of burglars' tools. The Montreal detectives recognize two of them as having formerly plied their business in that city, and they are believed to have been those who broke into Mr. Wier's office lately and blew open his safe. Letters found on one of the other two burglars implicated him in a robbery in Madison Square, New York. Unfortunately the success in detecting the burglars has been marred by the illegal manner in which they were taken across the lines. The Mayor of Cornwall, who made the pursuit, admits in his evidence that, while he pretended to the prisoners that his party was accompanied by a United States officer with a warrant to arrest from a United States magistrate, he himself made the arrests and directed the prisoners to be carried out of the United States territory on the principle that might was right. The Mayor further stated in his evidence that the United States officer made no arrests, that the United States warrant was not used at all but was held in reserve in case it should be required. This is a very unlawful act, and will not create that good feeling which should exist between the two countries. The crime of the prisoners is not one recognized by the extradition treaty, and even if it were, the jealousy with which we guard the right of asylum on our own territory should be coordinate with a scrupulous delicacy with respect to the same right on the territory of our neighbor.

CANADIANS IN GEORGIA.—The following extract is taken from a late Savannah paper:—A pleasant episode in the ordinary routine of court scenes occurred to-day by the presence of two high English judicial functionaries in the United States District Court Rooms. These were the Hon. W. H. Draper, Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench in Canada, and the Hon. W. G. Draper, District Judge of Ontario, Canada. Being in Savannah on a little tour of relaxation, they were invited to visit the Court, where they were admitted to seats on either side of Judge Erskine. After the usual courtesies on the Bench, they were introduced to the members of the Bar, by whom they were received with kindly greeting. The interview was one of the most pleasant kind. The incident may be thought unimportant, but these friendly greetings tend much to promote good feelings between the subjects or citizens of two great and honorable nations.

POLICE COURT, Saturday.—A number of cabmen were summoned up this morning for leaving their cabs and standing around the corners of the streets. The Magistrate allowed them all to go, cautioning them that if the circumstance should occur again, he would certainly enforce the by-law.—Sarah Dwyer, charged with being drunk and a vagrant, was remanded.

Mr. Galt has been overlooked with regard to the last Imperial honors, and sympathy is expressed for him. But Mr. Galt refused the C. B., and consequently he must remain plain honorable. It would be a very invidious distinction to give him a higher title.

A New York paper, alluding to the Erie war, and the collusion of the judges with the principals, says the judges are more dangerous to the rights of property in New York than the brigands ever were in Italy.

The 13th Hussars, now stationed in Canada, have won honorable distinction among the cavalry regiments of the service. It stands at the head of the list in a recent general order announcing the relative merit of each corps in sword-exercises.

American Despatches.

New York, April 25.

The nomination of General Schofield to be Secretary of War, the name of Mr. Ewing being withdrawn, which was sent to the Senate to-day, is looked upon by the Senators as an extraordinary developement of the President just at this stage of the trial.

Chicago, April 24.

The steam saw mill, owned by Green, Bros., of Chicago, at Mainstee, Michigan, was completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night. The fire was caused by the explosion of a boiler. Eight workmen were instantly killed and four others seriously injured.

FROM OTTAWA.

Intercolonial Railway—Militia Bill—Mrs. Retice's Subscription.

Ottawa, April 21.

Mr. Sandford Fleming arrived here this evening from Halifax, via River du Loup. He is to prepare to a report of the fresh explorations of the railway route.

The return of expenses connected with intercolonial railroad surveys shows an expenditure of $70,599 since Mr. Fleming's appointment in 1863. Mr. Fleming received a salary of $2,500 for making the survey.

On invitation of the Minister of Militia, a number of members of Parliament who belong to the volunteer force met that gentleman to-day, to consult on certain provisions of the militia bill. It is understood that in consequence of objections that have been made to some parts of the bill, modifications will be made by Sir. George. Among other changes, Brigade-Majors, District Paymaste s and Quartermasters, will be abolished; and staff restricted to District-Deputy Adjutant-General, clerk and messenger for each district. The saving thus effected is $45,000.

It is generally understood that no official despatches have been received from Dr. Tupper, and that so far, his communications have been confined to brief cable telegrams.

The impression gains ground that Parliament will not be prorogued until June, owing to the enormous mass of orders on the paper.

Several Maritime Province Senators are about to return home, and will do so as soon as the Fishery Bill is laid before Parliament.

The Committee on Fishery and Navigation held a meeting to-day, to consider the advisability of establishing Naval Schools in the principal ports of the Dominion; and an animated discussion thereupon took place. The members were all agreed as to the necessity of instruction being given, but there were different opinions expressed as to whether the subject should be dealt with by the General or Local Governments.

The admiralty was applied to the use of a frigate, calculated to be of some service as a training school if stationed at Quebec, and replied that the Canadian Government could have one, but that it would cost fifty thousand pounds to fit her for sea.

The committee in charge of the subscription lists for the McGee fund circulated a number among the Senators and met with a very favourable response. Lists have been forwarded to the Mayors of Montreal, Quebec, Halifax, Kingston, Toronto, Hamilton, London, St. John, N. B., and Ottawa.

Alex. Morris' bill, providing for the execution of convicts in private still remains on the order paper, and will not be taken into consideration until the similar bill now before the British Parliament.

From Montreal.

Montreal, April 24.

The price of firewood has fallen to $6 per cord, in consequence of the large quantity brought up in barges.

A disastrous fire occurred yesterday at St. Martin's, destroying 12 houses and 42 barns. Property valued at $40,000.

The steamer "Montreal" left for Quebec this evening. She has been fitted with a new boiler and an extra upper deck.

The contemplated departure of another detachment of Zouaves for Rome has been indefinitely postponed.

The statement of importations for the last quarter shows a great falling off, as compared with 1867, in articles of dry goods, sugar, tea, coffee and Hardware.

Later.

Montreal, April 25.

A terrible accident occurred to-day at the reservoir. Experiments were being made with an explosive substance, when a premature explosion occurred, killing one man instantly and severely injuring six or seven more. The man killed was a labourer.—Among the injured is a son of Mr. Bowie, ex-City councillor.

GIVE A FILLIP TO NATURE.

In many temperaments the circulation occasionally becomes sluggish, and the whole system languid. The animal spirits sympathize with the tempor of the body and are greatly depressed. In such cases new life and healthful energy is infused into the body and mind by the use of Radway's Ready Relief. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists.
