NEWS OF THE DAY.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1868.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—Since the opening of the important Conferences now being held in our midst, the pulpits of the Presbyterian and Wesleyan Churches have been filled morning and evening by distinguished clergymen, in attendance with the rest of their brethren. The Churchmen of the city have reaped a splendid harvest of good words.

On Sunday St. Andrew's Church, Princess Street, had two distinguished preachers, as also had Queen Street Wesleyan Methodist Church. The most important service took place, however, at half-past ten a.m. at the Sydenham Street Wesleyan Methodist Church, in connection with the Conference. A love feast took place previous to the service, at which none but clergymen and church members holding tickets were admitted. Before the public were admitted to the general service the seats were therefore well filled, the clergymen occupying about half of the ground floor. Visitors were admitted to the gallery. The rush for the gallery was heavy, and every available standing place was eagerly taken up, till no room was left for new comers. The pulpit was occupied by the Rev. Wm. Morley Punshon, President of the Conference, Dr. Taylor, Co-Delegate, the ex-President, Rev. Mr. Elliot, and other clergymen. The service was conducted in the usual form. The Rev. Mr. Punshon preached the Sermon, choosing for a text the 1st and 2nd Verses of the 2nd Chapter of the Epistle to the Colossians. Never was such oratory heard in any church in this city, and never did a sermon receive greater attention. It was natural that Mr. Punshon's great reputation would lead people to expect much of him, but his eloquence even exceeded their high anticipations. He is an remarkably easy, fluent speaker, using, without the slightest hesitation at any time, the most choice and flowing language, with a force that cannot fail to have its effect at once. It requires no thought to interpret his language, his words are sufficiently plain and well meaning in themselves. Though he spoke for over an hour, none wearied over his sermon, but all felt a regret at its conclusion. No word he spoke could offend in the slightest the ear of any one of the numbers present, from each of the other denominations. The Conference is to be congratulated on having at its head such an able and brilliant clergyman. In this notice we have not said as much as we would desire of him.

After the sermon, the annual Ordination Service took place, according to the form of the church, when the following gentlemen were called to the ministry:—Messrs. W. H. Bridgman, M.A., Alex. G. Harris, James Kines, Donald G. Sutherland, M.A., Andrew B. Chambers, James Woodsworth, James McClung, Daniel E. F. Gee, W. H. Rowdon, B.A., J. H. Wicher, Wm. H. Withrow, M.A., Jacob E. Howell, M.A., William Shaw, Osborne Lumbly, M.A., John H. Stewart, Robert Bell, Wm. J. Shaw, M.A., LL.B., Richard Kerr, Henry Irvine, and Stephen Chartier.

THE REV. MR. PUNSHON'S LECTURE.—This celebrated orator will certainly deliver his promised Lecture on Thursday evening. Advertisement to-morrow.

BLOCK GAGAIN ON FIRE.—It was thought that Block G, from its long immunity from fire, had entirely escaped the spell of the devouring element, but another fire yesterday dispelled the idea. About five o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the upper portion of the stone two-story house on Clarence Street, occupied by Mr. Jas. Maguire, part of the ill-fated block.—The whole roof and attic were soon in a blaze. The bells rang a speedy alarm, the Fire Brigade was early on the spot, and exertions were made to save as much of the property as possible, with this success, that the lower portion of the building was saved. The neighboring properties were placed in imminent danger, especially the stone building adjoining, of which Mr. Thos. Robinson recently entered into possession, but fortunately the weather was calm, and the fire was stopped so promptly that the property was not harmed. The origin of the fire in such an inaccessible a place as the attic is a mystery. A decree in Chancery, similar to others heretofore obtained, was this week to have been issued in the case of Lyster vs. McGuire, giving the Rector possession of the property. There is an insurance on the property, to what amount is not stated.

☞ Collins' Ravel Troupe are advertised to appear here three nights next week. They are said to be a company of real artistic merit.

The Alleghanians (Swiss Bell Ringers) are announced at Hamilton, as well as Holman's Opera Troupe.

Dan Rice's Show and Bryant's Managerie are travelling through New York State.

PRIMITIVE METHODIST CONFERENCE.—The Fifteenth Annual meeting of the Primitive Methodist Conference commenced its session in Hamilton on Friday. About one hundred ministers and laymen were present. The Rev. Jonathan Milner was unanimously elected President of the Conference for the ensuing year; Rev. James Cheetham, Vice-President; and the Rev. James Smith, Secretary. Secretaries were then appointed, and the Committees formed; and the general business commenced. The Rev. R. Cade, the retiring President, preached the Conference sermon.

KINGSTON AND OSWEGO.—These cities have long been rivals in business and population, tho' of late days Oswego has gone a little ahead. But in public spirit the Yankee is beyond the Canadian city. In the little matter of the La Grange and Brignoli Concert, how different was public spirit exhibited. In Oswego, as soon as Mr. Max Strakosch announced his intention of visiting Oswego, the Young Men's Association made overtures to purchase the proceeds of the first Concert, and offered $300 for the same which Mr. Max Strakosch accepted, and will fulfil his engagement to-night; while in Kingston, after advertising largely, he pulled up stakes, left the town, and allowed his Troupe to remain one night idle—sooner than let them sing to empty benches.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.—The Synod of this Church meets to-day in Montreal. The steamers and cars have been crowded with ministers en route to the Conference.

☞ Reports say that the Fenian General O'Neil is at St. Albans, Vt., making his preparations for a raid.

☞ Two guns from Fort Henry on Saturday night announced a desertion. The return guns next morning showed the men, however, to be all right.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—A batch of disorderly characters appeared on the docket this morning, most of whom were arrested on Sunday night, and charged this morning with being vagrants. Their names are Mary O'Hern, Alice Slater, Eliza Mills, Ellen Little, Catharine Murphy and Jimmey Ryan, each of whom was sent to gaol for one month. Barrack Sergeant Cummings made a complaint against a carter named Mullally for allowing his horse to run at large in front of complainant's door, which he considers a dangerous practice, as the same animal on a former occasion killed one of his children and crippled another for life. Defendant was fined $3 and costs. Jane McKee was charged by Mary Stigney with assaulting her on Friday last, by striking her with a stick, and afterwards throwing water in her face. As the case was clearly proven, defendant was fined $3. Mr. B. Thibodo appeared for defendant. A young lad named William Graham was charged with being drunk and disorderly. One of the police stated that his father called on him for assistance, stating that his son was drunk, and was ill-using both him and his mother, but as the father did not appear, the magistrate fined the boy $2 for being drunk. Three drunks were fined $2 each.

A whole family residing on Richmond street, Toronto, was nearly brought to a tragic end on Wednesday by partaking of toadstools in mistake for mushrooms; symptoms of narcotic poison ensued; and strong emetics were at once given, which gave relief. All are progressing favourably now.

In the last Grand Jury presentment at Toronto corporeal punishment of juvenile offenders is recommended.

THREE MEDICINES IN ONE.

The old practice in Bowel Complaint was to give—first, a cathartic then an alterative, and then a tonic. In Radway's Regulating Pills these three medicinal principles are combined. They purge without prostration; change the condition of the system without violence, and tone the stomach, bowels and liver. These three processes go on simultaneously under their operation.

IRON-CLAD

Piano Fortes!!

John C. Fox's Patent.

F. C. CLINE respectfully informs the public of the Dominion that he is the purchaser of the Stock-in-Trade and the Patent Rights from the Assignee of the above eminent maker, and that he is carrying on the manufacture in the principal and original premises, on the corner of Princess and Ontario Streets, Kingston.

From the long established reputation of these splendid Instruments, it is unnecessary to say anything further in their commendation. He will only remind the public that THEY HAVE ALWAYS OBTAINED THE FIRST PRIZE WHEREVER THEY HAVE BEEN EXHIBITED, and that the continents of Europe and America for twelve months were challenged for $1,000 each side to produce a Piano to compete with the Patent Iron-Clad, WHICH CHALLENGE WAS NEVER ACCEPTED. Since then further improvements on the Patent Iron-Clad Sounding Board have been effected, whereby the sonorousness and the vibratory powers of the Instrument has been increased.

F. C. CLINE was the first purchaser of the Stock, and was thereby enabled to cull the workmen employed by the late Mr. John C. Fox, retaining only the most steady and proficient, which is an assurance to the public that in addition to the advantages of the Patent Right, they may depend that every Piano will be constructed in the most skilful and artistic manner, upon which the qualities and durability of the Instruments so much depend.

He wishes further to state that he has retained the services of Mr. Wm. Cunningham as Tuner and General Superintendent of the Factory, and that every Instrument, in every stage of its manufacture, will pass under his immediate supervision, which, from Mr. Cunningham's well known musical knowledge and ability, and his established reputation during 18 years as a first-class Tuner, will be a sufficient guarantee of the perfection of every Instrument. Mr. Cunningham has lately made an alteration in the construction of the Sounding Board by which the treble notes obtain a brilliant and flute-like tone, far surpassing anything heretofore produced.

Mr. Thos. H. B. Purdy is still the Travelling Agent, and as he is personally interested in pleasing his customers, they may depend that any orders entrusted to him will be selected to their satisfaction, and on the same terms that they are to be obtained from the Factory.

F. C. CLINE further reminds the public that, being the purchaser of the Patent Right, he is the only person entitled to make and sell the Patent Iron-Clad Pianos, and that proceedings will commence forthwith against any party infringing the Patent.

Rappe, Weber & Co.,

LARGE MANUFACTURERS OF

GRAND OVERSTRUNG SQUARE

PIANOS,

Corner of King & Princess Streets,

KINGSTON, ONTARIO.

RAPPE, WEBER & Co. announce to the Public that they are now in possession of facilities for manufacturing Pianos unsurpassed, if equalled, by any in the Dominion.

The members of the Firm are Practical Piano Makers, and are anxious to establish their success in manufacturing enterprise by careful workmanship rather than by mere speculation. They are able skilfully to superintend every department, and are prepared to guarantee every instrument they sell.

For strength of manufacture and materials, beauty of finish, and durability and excellence of tone, they challenge the Dominion to produce superior instruments; and while they claim for their work every excellence that can be expected from skilful and enterprising workmen, they beg to announce that their resources are sufficiently ample to enable them to compete in prices with any speculator in Pianos.

The Subscribers keep no Travelling Agent. All orders addressed to the Subscribers, or sent through any respectable Music Dealer will receive attention. Orders through mail will be attended to as if selected in person.

A CARD.

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co., deem it unnecessary in their announcement above to notice the advertisement of their competitor, Mr. F C. Cline. They beg to inform the public that it was not the privilege of Mr. Cline to retain all of the late J. C. Fox's workmen.

The Advertisers were selected by the late Mr. Fox from the best establishments in New York, (Steinway's, Stoddard's, Weber, Gabler etc.)

After Mr. Fox's death, and before Mr. Cline's purchase of a part of Mr. Fox's stock, Rappe, Weber & Co., had determined to go into business on their own account. As at present constituted, their establishment consists of four Proprietors, every one of whom have been foremen, and their workmen who have been foremen; so that so far as the "culling of workmen" (a novelty in language) is concerned, Rappe, Weber & Co., have the honor to announce that they made their selection before it was permitted to Mr. Cline to make his. If Mr. Cline was a practical Piano maker, it might be competent to him to remark upon the skill of other workmen; but as he is not, it may be well to remind him that the shoemaker should stick to his last.

The Advertisers do not press upon the public the merits of any Travelling Agent, and any person holding himself out as such may be treated as utterly unauthorized. Our Pianos are candidates for popular favor, and we have no doubt they will win it.
