SALES, MEETINGS, AMUSEMENTS, &c.

SALE of Berlin Wool, Millinery and Fancy Goods, by Mr. J. J. Linton, at his Sale Rooms, this morning at ten o'clock.

ANNUAL MEETING of St. Andrew's Society this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the British American Hotel.

The Privy Council held a short sitting on Tuesday. It was understood that Sir John A. Macdonald and Messrs. Tilley, Campbell, Mitchell and Kenny would leave yesterday for Quebec. Mr. Mitchell goes to New Brunswick, and will not return for several weeks.—The members of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, appointed as a delegation to present the address of that body to the Governor General, left Toronto by special train on Tuesday for Quebec. They were accompanied by Chief Justice Richards and Chief Justice Hagarty, who are to be sworn in at the ancient capital.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL.—Lord Monck is about leaving us—he is reported to sail on Saturday next. No Governor General ever left Canada with less notice of a public kind than his departing Excellency. He may not have been a bad Governor General, for we know of nothing bad that he has done, but he has been anything but popular during his long administration. He has kept himself aloof from the people of Canada, not caring to mix with them. Want of hospitality he has been accused of, that is to say, he has seldom or ever entertained the public men of the Dominion, but strangers of distinction seem always to have been well received at Government House. In fact, the people of Canada know nothing of Lord Monck, good, bad or indifferent.

On Monday the House of Representatives at Toronto did the amiable to Lord Monck, as per Leader:—

The House yesterday did a graceful act in adopting an address to His Excellency the Governor-General, on the evening of his departure from the Dominion. The Attorney-General, in moving it, spoke neatly and to the point, and did but simple justice to Lord Monck when he organized his administrations of the government since his arrival in this country; and for once we can applaud Mr. McKellar for the cordial and appropriate language with which he seconded the Attorney-General's motion. No one could have a keener sense than Lord Monck of the duties and responsibilities of the office of Governor-General, or could have adhered more scrupulously to that constitutional course which is pointed out by British practice and precedent. For a time there was a complete burial of the hatchet between both sides of the House, and the Address passed with praiseworthy unanimity. The deputation appointed to proceed with it to Quebec and present it to Lord Monck is composed of gentlemen from both political parties, and personally, will represent the Ontario Legislature with credit. It is to be regretted that the Attorney-General is unable to form part of it. His standing and experience as a public man, and the agreeable relations which he has had with Lord Monck, point him out naturally as the leader in such a mission; and we are assured he abandons with reluctance the opportunity of saying a last farewell to the Governor General ere his departure from Canada forever. His official duties, however, require Mr. Macdonald to remain in town, and it is characteristic of him to hold that duty must claim precedence of pleasure.

The financial panic in the neighboring States appears to be getting beyond control. Even Secretary McCulloch's plan is not having the result that was expected. Wall street is still excited, and at any moment we may hear the crash of trembling firms. The panic is also spreading westward.

Two more names are mentioned for the vacant See of Montreal—Bishop Hill, of British Columbia, and Bishop Williams, of Connecticut. The opinion strongly prevails that Dr. Balch will be chosen.

Movements of Troops.

The steamers Corinthian and Kingston passed down yesterday, having on board the 69th Regiment, removed from London to Montreal, who embarked at Hamilton, having completed the first part of the journey by rail. The Corinthian had the baggage and two companies on board, and the Kingston had the remaining portion of the Regiment.

The left wing of the 29th Regt., ordered from Hamilton to London, has supplied the place of the 69th Regiment. Hamilton is therefore denuded of troops, which must be galling to the denizens of the "ambitious city."

Three companies of the 78th Highlanders, having been relieved at Quebec by the companies of the P.C.O. Rifle Brigade from Coburg, have joined headquarters at Montreal.

In consequence of the death of Col. Kennedy, R.A., Commander of the Royal Artillery, Col. Radcliffe, in command at Toronto, has left for Montreal to succeed to the post.

The Army and Navy Gazette states that a general war medal is about to be issued which, with a distinctive clasp, will be given to those engaged in the Abyssinian and New Zealand, or Indian frontier wars. It will likewise be available as regards future operations of a similar kind.

The Legislature on Tuesday.

On Tuesday the usual number of petitions were presented, and on nearly the same subjects as those heretofore presented, including the following:—

By Mr. Greely—From Joseph Brown, Priest, Napanee, and 124 others, praying aid to Superior Education.

Committee on Elections reported that Mr. Craig, a member of the Committee, had not attended in his place at the first sitting of the Committee, and he was accordingly ordered to appear at the bar of the House, and account for his absence.

The Attorney-General introduced a Bill providing for the election of members of the Legislative Assembly. Also, a Bill to alter the law of dower. Ordered for a second reading on Friday.

The Bill relating to the securities of the public officers of Ontario was read a second time and referred to the committee. All the remaining Bills on the orders of the day for the second reading were allowed to stand over.

There being no further business to proceed with, the House adjourned at a quarter to four o'clock.

It is understood that members of the Opposition are at present deeply buried in Treasurer Wood's accounts, endeavoring to find a peg or two on which to hang a grievance.

The Address to Lord Monck.

The following is the Address of the Legislative of Ontario to His Excellency Lord Monck:—

To His Excellency, the Right Honorable Charles Stanley, Viscount Monck, &c., &c.

"We, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, in the Dominion of Canada, in session assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Excellency to express on the eve of your departure therefrom, the high appreciation we entertain of the eminent services rendered to Canada by your Excellency; and to congratulate your Excellency on the peace and welfare of the country, and the happiness of its inhabitants, which have been attained since your Excellency's appointment as Governor-General of British North America.

"The term of your Excellency's residence in Canada will ever be considered a most important era in our national history. Our advance in wealth and prosperity has outgrown that of our population, and aspirations of future greatness, not inconsistent with unfailing attachment to the throne, and to the institutions of the mother country, have been engendered in the hearts of the people. From a Province we have become a most important portion of a Dominion, in whose glorious future, under the ægis of the power which has hitherto extended to us its protection, we entertain an ardent hope and firm reliance.

"During the parliamentary strife incidental to a political change of such magnitude as the formation of a confederation, your Excellency's wisdom and impartiality were alike conspicuous; and we gratefully bear testimony to your Excellency's strict adherance to those principles of constitutional government on which must repose the freedom and contentment of the community; in the countenance and favour bestowed by your Excellency on all proper occasions to the counsel proffered by the advisers of your Excellency who possess the confidence of the people's representatives; the gracious recognition, not long since, by Her Majesty the Queen, of your Excellency's distinguished services, afforded unmingled satisfaction to Her Majesty's subjects in this Province.

"It is then with general regret that we contemplate your Excellency's retirement; but this feeling is tempered by the conviction that in the august assembly to which your Excellency has been elevated, you will not fail to apply the intimate knowledge of our affairs, and of the wants and wishes of our people, acquired during your long residence in Canada, to the promotion and advancement of the best interests of this growing colony."

SPORTING.—For some weeks past the sporting public particularly interested in fast horses, have been divided in opinion upon the relative merits of two well known fast horses, viz:—Mr. Geraldi's white horse "Sleepy Tom," a trotter, and a racker belonging to Mr. Philip Ham, and their respective claims were to have been decided on Monday afternoon at Storm's corners, near Odessa, by a match for $100 a side, with $20 forfeiture. In view of this a large number of sportsmen left the city in the morning for the scene of action, but were doomed to disappointment as the race did not come off, Mr Ham preferring to pay forfeit. The Kingston men complain of the conduct of a parcel of roughs on the occasion, who seemed bent upon preventing fair play being shown to the trotter. This sort of thing cannot be sufficiently condemned on occasions of this kind, which if not conducted from pure motives of sport apart from anything pertaining to gambling or blackleguism, had better be abandoned altogether. As some slight relief from the disappointment experienced on the occasion, an impromptu match was got up on the ground for a purse of $20, for a dash of one mile, between Mr. Geraldi's black mare, "Crazy Jane," and Mr. Makins' sorrel horse, "Stonewall Jackson." The race was won by "Crazy Jane" in 2 m. 50 sec., and the course being in a wretched condition, its naturally rough state rendered worse by the present wet weather, must be considered as very good time. A good deal of disappointment was felt by sporting men at the late of the first race, each horse having many backers.—[Communicated.

HON. MR. JOHNSON.—The Hon. J. M. Johnson, M. P. for Northumberland, New Brunswick, who died on Monday, at the age of 50, was born in Liverpool, Eng. His father was a timber merchant and emigrated to New Brunswick, where the deceased studied for the bar, and was called in 1840. He subsequently entered public life as a Liberal, and was at one time Solicitor General, Postmaster General, and Speaker of the House of Assembly and then Attorney-General. He was one of the warmest supporters of the Confederation, and formed one of the delegation to England to urge the passage of the Confederation Act. At the last general election he was elected to a seat in the Commons, where, from his unfortunate habits, he proved a failure, and which have caused his death. It is but another evidence of a brilliant intellect being destroyed through intemperance.

The Military Fracas at Quebec.

The Correspondence between M. Le Mesurier and the Officers of the 53rd Regt. is going the rounds, and Captain Eimhirst and his brother Captains suffer some, as the Yankees say. The Globe winds up a long article in the following words:—

Captain Eimhirst behaved like a rude, unmannered puppy; one of those intolerable creatures who fancy that because they wear a red coat and have come more or less recently from Britain, they have a right to indulge in insolent swagger. There was no occasion, however, for Mr. Le Mesurier proceeding to the extremities he did. It is not possible to wrestle with a sweep without getting one's clothes soiled. By simply stating the facts of the case in reference to the Captain's behaviour at the ball, he would have put himself right with all in the city, whose good opinion was worth having. If good society in Quebec could sustain the Captain in such a conduct, so much the worse for it. Mr. Le Mesurier would be much better out of such society. The trio of Captains, with their letters breathing threatening and slaughter, are not subtle objects of contemplation. Had they possessed ordinary sense, they might have known that the day for that sort of thing is over, and that nobody in the British dominions ever thinks of sending a challenge, except some love-sick baker's apprentice, or an excited journeyman tailor grievously exercised about the point of honour. We have always admired the plan of the sturdy old Pilgrim Fathers for putting down duelling, when they tied the would-be belligerents' neck and heels together, and let them lie in the public street for a day to receive the criticism and instruction of passing citizens. The world has grown sick of the gladiator's bluster, which only shows that there are more than Russians who have only to be scraped, and that very slightly, to show the Tartar that is beneath.

N. B.—Persons purchasing the Pain Killer will use great caution, as several worthless imitations or counterfeits are being offered for sale by a few unprincipled dealers. Ask for Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer and take no other and you will not be deceived.—Sold by all druggists.

The str. Corinthian and Kingston passed down yesterday afternoon with troops on board. The str. Spartan arrived from Montreal in the morning, having laid over at Brockville all night by reason of wind and storm. Yesterday it still blew heavily on the lake. The str. Passport arrived up late in the day. The Corinthian had to put back to Toronto on Tuesday when some miles on her way, and a number of storm staid vessels are lying there. The Globe reports steamer freights to Montreal exceedingly good. The strs. Huron and Osprey, and propellers Brantford and America are loading there.

The evant courier of the winter fleet, the sch. Anne Minnes, has been stripped, and has gone into winter quarters at the foot of Earl street. The sch. Anne Falconer is also being prepared for the winter's blockage. Scarcity of freights has caused them to lay up so early.

The forwarders anticipate a rush of grain vessels in a few days, the vessels detained by the break in the Welland Canal being now on the move again downwards.

The following vessel are reported through the Canal:

Schooners Pandora, Chicago, Kingston, wheat; Richmond, Detroit, Kingston, wheat; propellor Bristol, Port Stanley, Montreal, peas and wheat; bark S. D. Woodruff, Kingsville, Kingston, timber.

The Bruno, which suffered a breakage of wheel, still lies here, and it is thought that she will be laid up.

The steam tug Hiram A. Calvin, Capt. Wm. Miller, master, arrived in Toronto on Monday from Coburg, having in tow the disabled schooner Elk, with a cargo of iron, bound for the canal. The Leader remarks:—The passage from Coburg was made in the remarkable time of 7 hours and 30 minutes. She is the first of a line of steamers now building by Meisrs Calvin & Breck, of Kingston, for government tugging and wrecking services on the St. Lawrence and Lake Ontario. The Elk was afterwards scuttled at the dock at Toronto, it is supposed by some of the crew. Fortunately it was discovered, and means were used which were successful in preventing her sinking. The matter will be closely investigated.

In Lake Michigan, near Forty Mile Point, is a sunken vessel with maintopmast out of water and foremast head gone. There is no doubt felt that all on board perished.

It is an extraordinary fact that the guard locks of both the Cornwall and Lachine Canals are left open, allowing boats to pass through without change of level, in consequence of the lowness of the water in the river above.
