The Legislature on Wednesday.

In the House on Wednesday a considerable amount of work was done, without much waste of words.

Numerous petitions were presented, but the most important of them were those asking that the endowment be withdrawn from Upper Canada College, and others asking that aid be continued to superior education.

On motion of the Attorney-General a select committee was appointed respecting the municipal and assessment laws with power to send for persons and papers, and report by bill or otherwise, committee to consist of Mr. Cameron and the mover, and Messrs. McKellar, Ferguson, Trow, Graham, (Hastings;) McLeod, Rykert, Smith, (Leeds;) and Lyon. The Committee is composed of members experienced in municipal matters and their labors will, no doubt, result in remedying many of the evils complained of.

Mr. Rykert presented the report of the Committee on standing orders, recommending that the rule of the House requiring a majority of the House mittee to be present to constitute a quorum, be suspended. The report was adopted.

Mr. McColl introduced a Bill to disqualify members having seats in the House of Commons from sitting in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

Mr. Eyre introduced a bill amending the Act in relation to the Sheriffs. Second reading on Monday next.

In answer to Mr. Coyne, whither the Government intend to introduce a new division court act, the Attorney-General stated that the question was under the consideration of the Government.

In answer to Mr. Coyne, as to whether the Ministry intend to introduce an act to further facilitate the affiliation of the denominational Colleges with the Toronto University, the Premier answered in the negative.

The Attorney-General, in answer to Mr. Boyd's inquiry, said the Government intended to introduce a measure touching the duties of Magistrates in and out of sessions.

Bill number three, respecting securities to be given by officers of Ontario, was read a third time and amended and passed after some debate.

The Government bills for continuing the Legislature in case of the demise of the Crown; to define the privileges, immunities and powers of the Legislative Assembly; to secure the independence of the Legislative Assembly, were read a second time and referred to committee.

Mr. Blake's bills to make better provision for the dealing by Executors and Administrators with Mortgages; to amend the law as to costs in Writs for Alimony, were read also a second time.

Mr. Blake's bill to amend the law as to bills or notes due or payable in the Province of Quebec, was discharged, as the Attorney General objected that the House had no right to legislate on notes and currency.

The House adjourned.

Sir John A. Macdonald and the Hon. Messrs. Tilley and Campbell, and the clerks of the Privy Council, left Ottawa for Quebec on Wednesday.

The Bishopric of Montreal and Metropolitan.

The Synod of the Diocese of Montreal opened its session on Tuesday last, for the purpose of electing a Bishop to succeed the late Metropolitan, Dr. Fulford.

In the morning Divine Service was held in the Cathedral, the Canadian Bishops being present. The Rev. Dr. Balch preached the sermon. In the afternoon the Synod met and organized. Sixty one out of 77 Clerical delegates were present and 107 out of 162 Lay delegates. The Dean delivered a brief address. The preliminaries towards electing a Bishop were arranged.

Some time was passed in excited expectancy of a nomination from the Upper House, which was not received until just before their adjournment, when the announcement was read that the lords spiritual had nominated themselves—that is, all the Bishops of the Dominion—including in the list the Bishops of Fredericton and Nova Scotia, but not His Lordship of Rupert's Land, a distinction for which there is doubtless some good technical reason. The requirements on which this nomination was based, were that the candidate should be of the Episcopal order, and from within the prospective domain of the Synod. The effects of the adoption of these ideas would be to secure to each member of the present House of Bishops a fair chance of having his turn of promotion, and to increase the value of that promotion by limiting the candidature to those of already exalted rank.

The Synod then adjourned.

The endowment of Montreal is very small, much smaller than that of any of the Suffragan Bishoprics.

On Wednesday morning the Synod resumed its session. The following report of the proceedings is condensed from the Montreal Witness:—

The Synod was occupied for a considerable time in hearing and deciding appeals from the report of the Committee on Delegates.

Mr. J. M. Ferres remarked upon the message sent down to the House yesterday by the Bishops, saying that they only had a right to nominate certain persons for the vacant See of Montreal, but had exceeded their function in declaring that the selection should be made from those in episcopal order. He would like to know if the House was restricted in its choice to the nominations made by the Bishops. (Cries of "No.")

The Dean here declared Mr. Ferres out of order, when Mr. Ferres appealed to the House, which declined to sustain the Dean.

Mr. Ferres continued that the Bishops' message should have contained merely the names, pure and simple, without endeavoring to impress any opinion upon the House as they had done. He thought the Bishops had proceeded ill gally, and that this Synod should mark its non-concurrence with the terms of the message. He would therefore move to the effect that, with all due respect to that venerable body, this Synod of laymen adopt the form of the Resolution of the House of Bishops and will not hold the same as a precedent in the future. The motion was seconded by Hon. S. Huntington and carried nem. con.

The Dean announced that the House was now ready to ballot for a Bishop and Metropolitan for Montreal, and upon his suggestion the members united for a few minutes in private prayer.

The regulations for ballot were carefully made.

The first ballot occupied about half an hour, and a good deal of interest in the process was apparent. At its conclusion the Synod adjourned till 2 o'clock.

At the reassembling of the Synod, Secretary Balch read the result of the ballot: Clerical vote—Number of votes caste, 72; necessary to a choice, 37. The bishop of Frederickton received 2 votes; Bishop of Nova Scotia, none; Bishop of Huron, none; Bishop of Toronto, none; Bishop of Ontario, 4; Bishop of Quebec, 33; noes, 33. The lay vote stood—Number cast, 59; necessary to a choice 30. The Bishop of Frederickton received 1 vote; Bishop of Nova Scotia, none; Bishop of Huron, none; Bishop of Toronto, 2; Bishop of Ontario, 1; Bishop of Quebec, 9; ieas, 3; noes, 43. The Dean declared that there had been no election, and that both the Clerical and Lay members had refused to elect either of the nominees sent by the House of Bishops. The result was received with manifestations of satisfaction, which, however, were suppressed by the Dean. The question arose as to whether the ballot should be repeated on the same names, some being in favor of it and others contending that it was incompetent for the Synod to repeat the ballot. A motion that the ballot be repeated was lost by a very large majority. A message was then sent to the House of Bishops informing them of the result of the ballot.

A message from the Bishops was received, submitting the names of the Bishops of Newfoundland, Grahamston, and British Columbia. Cries of no, no. Confusion. The Bishop of Huron expressed in a letter his non-concurrence of the nominations.

The Synod then took a recess, and a lively discussion ensued between members.

At a quarter to five the ballot was announced as follows:—

	Clerical.	Lay.
British Columbia	28	14
Newfoundland	2	1
Grahamston	0	0
Noes	44	41

No election.

The result was received with great cheering.

A message was sent to the Bishops announcing that the Synod had again rejected the nominees. The Bishops replied that they were not prepared to submit any other names without injury, and would adjourn in one hour until May next, and then renew their nominations. When this was read there were cries of "shame," and hisses.

Mr. Bancroft excitedly proposed a motion to call a special Synod, to sever connection between the office of Metropolitan and Bishop of Montreal. (Not in order.) The Synod was of general opinion that the House of Bishops must continue to send remonstrances till one was nominated. They had sent down all the names of Bishops in B.N. America but one, and that one (Dr. Mackray) was wanted. A conference was appointed with their Lordships, and it was announced by the delegation that the Bishops had adjourned, but would continue their nominations next day.

It was likely that Canon Balch and Dr. Mackray would be named.

☞ A despatch from Port Stanley reports that the propeller East is hard aground near the piers in a helpless and dangerous condition. She struck on entering the harbor.

Independence of Parliament.

The bill which has been introduced by Mr. Sanfield Macdonald to secure the independence of members of the Legislative Assembly, has been printed and laid before the House at length. It provides that no person holding an office of emolument under the Crown, either in the service of the Dominion of Canada or the service of the Government of Ontario, shall be eligible to the member of the Legislature of Ontario, except members of the Executive Council, who shall be elected while holding such office, and except also officers of the army and navy or of the militia. This latter exception, however, does not apply to officers on the staff of the militia receiving regular stipends. No Senator or Privy Councillor of the Dominion of Canada, nor any public contractor, shall be eligible, and the election of any such disqualified person shall be null and void. Should any such person sit and vote he shall be liable to a penalty of $2,000 recoverable as a debt by any person who shall sue for the same in any court of competent civil jurisdiction. A member of the House who shall accept office or become a public contractor shall resign his seat, but if the office accepted be that of an Executive Councillor he may be re-elected. Should any Executive Councillor resign his office he may accept another in the government within one month after his resignation without vacating his seat. Any Executive Councillor who shall sit and vote in the House of Commons of Canada shall forfeit his office of Executive Councillor. The effect of this provision would be to require Messrs Macdonald, Carling and Wood either resign their seats in the Commons or to retire from the government of Ontario; but as the bill, if passed by the House, will not come into effect until after the dissolution of the present House, they will not be required to make their election as to which position they shall retain until expiration of three years at any rate. The remainder of the bill contains provisions as to the proceedings in case a member shall resign his seat in the House, which are similar to the provisions of the existing law as to the members of the Parliament of Canada.—Leader.

All Saints, Kingston

While the English Press has been teeming with accounts condemnatory of the celebration of a Harvest Home in a Church in Yorkshire, the good folks of All Saints, in Kingston, instead of condemning the innovation, have imitated it—at a distance:

Thursday, the 22nd ult., being the day appointed by the Bishops on which to return thanks to Almighty God for the late abundant harvest, the Church of All Saints was to be decorated for the occasion. The weather being so very severe, and the day itself so late in the season, there was great difficulty in finding anything green which the frost had not destroyed; but in spite of this the decorators may justly be congratulated on their success. The five arches of the Screen were wreathed with vines, and from the centre one, clusters of grapes were hanging. Small branches of bearded wheat, arranged to represent crest tiles, ran along the top, immediately below which was a billet-moulding in indian corn, and the spandrils of the centre arch and sides of the gate were decorated with oats. On the shelf at the binder part of the alter stood a cross of vine leaves, with a circle of grapes. On either extremity was a miniature sheaf of wheat, and between these and the cross were two plates heaped with grapes—the whole representing the first fruits of corn and wine.—Churchman.

YAMASKA ELECTION.—According to Le Constitutionnel, the death of Dr. Parker is likely to have an important bearing on the decision of the Yamaska contested election Committee, of which he was a member. His place cannot be filled up. Only four members remain—Messrs. Cassault, Fortin, Bourassa and Jackson. Last session Messrs. Parker and Bourassa were the warm friends of Mr. Fortier, the sitting member; Mr. Jackson keeping the balance between the two parties of the Committee. The death of Dr. Parker will turn the scale in favor of the friends of Mr. Provencher. The editor of La Minerve, who contests the seat with Mr. Fortier, and enable Mr. Provencher to prove triumphantly the justice of his claim. Such is the view of Le Constitutionnel. We trust, however, that only the substantial justice of his claims, not personal considerations, will put him there.

CAUGHNAWAGA.—The troubles in this village are bringing forth their fruits. A few nights ago a log house, a few yards above the railroad, the owner of which had commenced the sale of liquor, was set on fire by incendiaries, and an old blind Indian woman (the oldest in the village) barely escaped with her life, her blanket being burnt off her shoulders.

THE JUDICIAL DIFFICULTY AT MONTREAL.—They have had a tempest in a tea pot, and no mistake, at Montreal: nothing less, in fact, than a fierce contention between the Judges and Superior Court and the Sheriff, anent the occupancy of a room in the Court House. Said room, it seems, has been used by the Fire Marshals, with the authority of the Attorney-General of the Province, for over a year, and no one objected to it; but, for some reason, which it is not very important to trace, the Judges ordered the Sheriff to dispossess the occupants forthwith, which he failing to do, was fined $100, cash down. Another command to the same effect, was then promulgated, and another fine of $100, for non compliance, inflicted. Then the matter led to long discussions, occupying no less than four closely printed columns in the newspapers, which one cannot read without feeling rather humbled at the attitude of the Justiciary. There seems to have been a great deal more of purchases in the squabble than one would have expected from such grave, and generally presumed to be, impassible functionaries. The Minerve states that Sir John A. Macdonald is very far from approving the course pursued by them. Meanwhile, the sedemia affair remains in an inchoate condition, and there is no knowing what the final stage will be.—Ottawa Citizen.

A GOOD JOKE.—A rumor has been current during the past four days, in this city, based upon a telegram from Ottawa, to the effect that two soldiers had been flogged for laying an information against certain parties for selling liquor without license. The subject has been discussed by several papers editorially, advocating the abolishment of corporal punishment in the army for offences of so trivial a nature, accompanied with vivid descriptions of the torture and sufferings a poor fellow must endure whose back is exposed to the lash. The truth is, the soldiers were tried by what is known in the army as a "Barrack-room Court-Martial." Their comrades feeling that the conduct of these two men was unbecoming to soldiers in the English service and a disgrace to the regiment to which they belonged, constituted themselves into a Court of justice in the canteen, or barrack-room, found the men guilty, and gave them a "round robin each. We feel certain that the majority of persons who are now acquainted with the real state of the case will come to the conclusion that it served them right.—Quebec Chronicle.

GATHERING OF THE CLANS.—Notwithstanding the reported defalcation of "General" O'Neil to the tune of, as reported, $250,000, the "brotherhood" is to hold a general congress in Philadelphia, on Nov. 25th. It is boasted that it will be the largest and most important meeting of Irishmen ever convened together. Over one thousand delegates are expected to be present; California, Ireland, England, Scotland, Australia, and South America, will have its delegation. The delegates from South America must feel a keen interest in the matter. If O'Neil could only obtain a few representatives from Hong Kong, the Sandwich Islands, South Africa, and the infernal regions, (especially from the latter place, in case they could make ancient Nicholas their head centre, and meet in his apartments,) the noble band of brothers would have their ranks complete.
