Changes in the British Ministry.

Cable despatches give a list of those whose names are officially announced as members of Mr. Gladstone's Ministry. We observe with regret that Mr. Bright's name is absent—the Presidency of the Board of Trade, which it was announced Mr. Bright had accepted, being allotted to Mr Layard, the Nineveh explorer.

Mr. Layard is a thorough Liberal, a distinguished scholar, and brings to bear the experience acquired as Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the Russell Ministry. Mr. W. E. Forster, the member for Bradford, has been appointed Vice-President of the Board of Education; Mr. E. Grant Duff, the member for Elgin, Under Secretary for India; the Right Hon. William Monsell, Under Secretary for Colonial Department; Mr. J. Arthur Otway, Under Secretary for the Foreign Department; and Mr. G. Grenfell Glyn, Junr., a partner in the banking firm of Glyn, Mills, Currie & Co.; and Mr. James Stansfield, Lords of the Treasury.

Mr. Stansfeld is one of the ablest Liberals in the House of Commons. He was a member of Lord Palmerston's Ministry; but resigned his position under somewhat peculiar circumstances. He was a personal friend of Mazzini, whose plots to assassinate the Emperor of the French excited a great sensation a few years ago. In the discovery of Mazzini's conspiracies, Mr. Stansfeld's name became accidentally coupled with that of his friend in such a manner as to give the Anti-Albionists in France a handle for accusing a member of the British Government of complicity in the designs of an assassin! To relieve Lord Palmerston from the difficulty in which he was thus placed, Mr. Stansfeld resigned; but he is too able a man to be overlooked by a leader of Mr. Gladstone's discrimination. It now appears that the 'Earl de Grey and Ripon' is now to be the Postmaster General; but that the office is to be held by the Marquis of Harrington. Although a young man the Marquis of Harrington served in several Liberal Ministries. In Lord Palmerston's government he was Lord of the Admiralty, and and afterwards Under-Secretary for War; and in the last Administration of Earl Russell he was Secretary of War and a Cabinet Minister. In this capacity he displayed great ability, and was said to be the best Secretary of War since Sydney Herbert's death. The appointment of Mr. Goschen as President of the Poor Law Board is confirmed; and the wisdom of securing his administrative abilities, as well as his remarkable debating powers, is beyond question. No reason is as yet assigned for the exclusion of Mr. Bright; and it is difficult to conjecture why he is now in the Cabinet. It was at first said that he had been offered and declined the Secretaryship of India; but had accepted the Presidency of the Board of Trade. We shall soon learn the cause of his declining. The difficulty that had arisen from Mr. Coleridge refusing to serve under Sir R. Collier has in some way been surmounted, for we see that the former gentleman is now Solicitor-General; and we cannot, of course, doubt that the office of Attorney-General has been given to the latter.

Mr. Gladstone is doubtless ready to proceed with his purpose of dis-establishing the Irish Church; and, for this purpose, his Ministry is particularly strong. On this question there will be entire unanimity in the Cabinet, backed by the whole of the Liberal majority in the House of Commons. At the late elections, the "to be, or not to be" of the State Church in Ireland was made so essential an article of faith in the creed of Liberal members, that those who exhibited any Conservative symptoms on this point were unhesitatingly dismissed. Other questions may arise in the course of the session, on which it is to be feared the harmony of the Ministry is more likely to be disturbed. The antecedents of Lord Clarendon do not promise a close sympathy between him and several of his associates in matters relating to foreign affairs.

England's foreign policy has, however, been so fixed down to the point of actual non-interference under any circumstances, that no Minister can easily disturb that which is a settled rule. It is unlikely, too, that any question involving a divergence of opinion will arise during this session; and in the known work that is before them, they are, as we have said, of one opinion. What difficulty Mr. Gladstone may find in passing his measure through the House of Peers is yet to be determined. There was a considerable majority against him before; and no changes have occurred in the members of the House since the Bill was thrown out. The creation of new peers would assist the matter; but these 'measure' peers are particularly obnoxious to the English people, and are not likely to be created by a Minister who rests his responsibility solely on the wishes of the many. It is but a question of time; for though Mr. Disraeli will make this a subject for the 'the most inveterate hostility, he cannot prevent its again going to the Upper House, and they in their turn must yield to the reiterated wishes of the House of Commons. When the debate upon the Irish Church comes on, there will doubtless arise sharp recriminations between Mr. Lowe, and Mr. Disraeli, now Chancellor of the Exchequer, was the leader of those who seceded from the last Liberal Ministry, and formed the party known as the "Adullamites." No one has spoken so bitterly as he against the tendency towards democracy, which Conservatives so much dread; and to his subtle arguments and powerful language the defeat of the 'Six Pound Franchise Bill was mainly due. Professing, however, to be a Liberal, he submitted to the course of events, and in reference to the passage of the Household Suffrage Bill, made the memorable remark, "Now let us teach our masters how to spell." His presence in Mr. Gladstone's Cabinet will, no doubt, afford ample field for the bitter sarcasms for which the Conservative leader is celebrated; but there are few men so competent to return this species of argument in its own kind as Mr. Lowe, and even Mr. Disraeli will be cautious how he places himself within the reach of the caustic satire which the new Chancellor of the Exchequer knows so well how to employ. The oratorial ability of the House of Commons seems to be largely on the Ministerial side, for in addition to Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Bright and Mr. Lowe, that side of the House counts Mr. Goschen and Mr. Coleridge, who are two of the clearest and most convincing speakers of the day. With such a majority as they have, and with no untimely question arising to cause a difference in the ranks of the Liberal party, the country may hope to be governed by Mr. Gladstone's Administeration for some time to come.—Globe.

LATE EUROPEAN NEWS

Cable Summary.

George Francis Train has been set at liberty, the plaintiffs against him having withdrawn their suits. He has issued writs against the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland for false imprisonment, and against the Ebbw Vale Steel Company for $20,000. He has sailed for New York.

The Greek government still withstands the representations made by the Great Powers in Europe in the matter of the ultimatum of the Sublime Porte, and the Turkish ambassador at Athens is consequently preparing to depart. Hopes are entertained in Paris that a collision may be avoided. The Turkish government, however, is making every preparation for hostilities, and troops are being concentrated in Thessaly. The King of Denmark and the Prince of Wales have written a joint note to King George of Greece, urging him to concede the demands of the Porte.

The following Ministers and Officers of State have been appointed:—Sergeant Gifford, Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench; Lord Dufferin, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; Edward Sullivan, Member for Mallow, Attorney for Ireland; Charles Robert Barry, Member for Dungarvon, Solicitor General for Ireland; Thos. George Baring Baron Northbrook, Under Secretary of War; Mr. Vivian, Treasurer and Lord to Supervise Military Expenditure.

Telegraphic communication with Madrid is interrupted. The latest despatches say that the political agitation throughout Spain is very great, and that capitalists are leaving the country. There is much alarm among all classes. Government authorities are in receipt of promises from many parts of the country of aid to suppress the the revolution. The insurgents at Cadiz hold strong positions.

The latest despatches are:—

Madrid, Dec. 12.

The Government has postponed the attack at Cadiz, hoping the insurgents will accept the terms offered them and surrender. The Carlist party in Lower Arragon are preparing for revolt. Fears are entertained of a rising of Republicans in Barcelona. The greatest precautions are adopted to guard against such a contingency in both places.

London, Dec. 13.

Despatches show that affairs in Spain are rapidly approaching a crisis. Topete has been despatched to Cadiz to negotiate with the insurgents. An interview was held there with the leading rebels. The rebels demanded a share in the Government, which was refused by Topete, who told them that having so long submitted to a worse government, they must obey the present one. Two iron clads and transports, with 3,000 troops, will sail on the 15th for Cuba.

Madrid, Dec. 14.

It is thought the insurrection at Cadiz will be suppressed to-day without shedding blood. All foreigners left the city some days ago.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 16, 1868.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.—Messrs. W. R. McRae & Co. are again on hand this season of Merry Christmas with their usual good cheer in bountiful store. A glance at the advertisement of the firm, to be seen in another column, will show how liberally they have provided for the wants of their patrons. Their choice wines and liqueurs are not surpassed.

STAND FROM UNDER.—Yesterday the King of Day beat down rather warmly on the roofs of the houses, and as a consequence the accumulations of snow thereon began to move. Passers by frequently found themselves enveloped in a small avalanche, hardly conscious of cutting a rather ludicrous figure, and of affording amusement to others not so unfortunate as themselves.

NEW POST OFFICES.—The following new Post Offices have been established in Ontario:—Black Bank, township of Mulmur; Carsonby, township of North Gower; Forest Mills, township of Richmond; Glasgow, township of Uxbridge; Graystock, township of Otonabee.

The following Post Offices have been closed:—Fish Creek, Stretton, Kirkton.

MORE BURGLARIES.—The Slippery Jacks, after a short season of relaxation, have renewed their professional operations. On Monday night they made another raid not more successful than the last one on the churches and poor boxes. The store of Mr. Robert White, druggist, Princess St., was entered, access being afforded to the thieves through the door in rear of the shop, which they forcibly opened. Nothing of great consequence was stolen, the only articles missing being a few bottles of liquors, for which, by the way, the burglars have a peculiar penchant, judging from the theft of sacramental wine from St. Paul's Church and this latest exploit. The store of Mr. Jas. Parkhill, grocer and liquor dealer, also on Princess street, was also attempted the same night, but without effect.

FESTIVAL.—We would remind our readers that the Annual Festival of the Young Men's Christian Association of St. Andrew's Church takes place this evening in the City Hall, at 7 o'clock. Several eminent speakers from a distance, among whom we might mention Rev. Dr. Jenkins, of Montreal, Alex. Morris, Esq., M.P., and James Croile, Esq., will deliver addresses, and the musical arrangements are very complete. There will no doubt be a crowded house.

☞ The father of the complainant in the case against Dr. Fenwick is John Wilson, a laborer, and not David Wilson, a plasterer, or George Wilson, ex-Policeman. We are requested to make this statement.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—Francis Slater made a complaint against Robert Spencer this morning for receiving stolen goods. The complainant stated that about the 8th or 9th of December his house, on Ordnance Street, was broken into, and a carpet bag containing clothing and $97 stolen, also a pair of boots and a likeness, and that having occasion to go into Spencer's shop on Monday night last, found the boots and likeness stowed away under an old bench. Spencer appeared, but denied buying the articles, or knowing anything about how they came in his possession, but said that he thought that the complainant had left them there, from some motive better known to himself. As this statement did not seem likely, the Magistrate committed Spencer for trial at the Recorder's Court.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

This remedy has long been cherished by the community for its remarkable efficacy in relieving, healing and curing the most obstinate, painful and long-standing cases of Cough, Cold, Influenza, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Inflamation of the Lungs; while even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. Its whole history proves that the past has produced no remedy of equal value, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.

From Andrew Archer, Esq., of Fairfield Me.

"About eight years since my son, Henry A Archer, now Postmaster at Fairfield, Somerset County, Me., was attacked with spitting of blood, cough, weakness of Lungs and general debility, so much so that our family physician declared him to have a "Seated Consumption." He was under medical treatment for a number of months, but received no benefit from it. At length, from the solicitation of himself and others, I was induced to purchase one bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which benefited him so much I obtained another bottle, which in a short time restored him to his usual state of health. I think I can safely recommend this remedy to others in like condition, for it is, I think, all its purports to be—the Great Lung Remedy for the Times! The above statement, gentlemen, is my voluntary offering to you in favor of your Balsam, and is at your disposal."

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont St. Boston, and for sale by Druggists generally.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.

Amesbury Mass., Oct. 12th, 1863.

Mr. Grace—Dear Sir:—Having been afflicted grievously for several weeks with a severe abcess upon my side, I used several remedies for its eradication without receiving any relief, until I applied your salve, which effected a speedy and permanent cure. I therefore feel happy to certify my confidence in its virtues. Yours with respect.

JAMES BEAN.

WHY THEY WORK WONDERS.—People ask how is it that RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS work such wonders in bilious disorders. It is because they are composed of the most valuable active elements of the finest aperient and anti-bilious herbs and gums, without any admixture of the grosser parts. Furthermore, they are the only Pills ever manufactured that contain vegetable substitute for mercury, and at once thoroughly efficient, and entirely harmless.

Price 25 cents per box, coated with sweet gum, free from taste. Sold by Druggists. 294

Mr. JAMES I. FELLOWS, St. John, N. B.

Sir,—Having, while at your Establishment, carefully examined your prescription, and the method of preparing your Compound Syrup; I felt anxious to give it a fair trial in my practice. For the last twelve months I have done so, and I find that in Incipient Consumption, and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs, it has done wonders. In restoring persons suffering from the effects of Diptheria, and the cough following Typhoid Fever prevalent in this region, it is the best remedial agent I have ever used. But for persons suffering from exhaustion of the powers of the brain and nervous system, from long continued study or teaching, or in those cases of exhaustion from which so many young men suffer, I know of no better medicine for restoration to health than your Compound Syrup.

If you think this letter of any service, you are at liberty to use it as you see fit.

I remain, yours, &c.,
