BAILIFFS.—The Wardens will be elected according to law, on Tuesday, January 25th.

The election of Mayor in the City takes place on Monday, the 17th inst. It will be merely formal, as there is but one choice.

It is said that truth is stranger than fiction, because there is less of it.

Tonight, Prof. McKenzie, of Queen's College, lectures in Hamil on on the "Advantages and disadvantages of a residence in a new country."

Mr. W. Weir exported silver to the amount of $210,000 between the 1st of Nov. and the 31st Dec., of which $8,000 was from Kingston.

The Grand Trunk employees of Toronto have given the proceeds of their picnic last summer ($67.77) to the widow of Andrews, the fireman killed by the late railway accident at Colinsby.

By the Police Statistics for 1869 which have just been compiled by Serg't-Major Robbs we perceive that 66 trades, professions and occupations are represented by the prisoners incarcerated. Among them there is neither Printer, Doctor Clergyman or Lawyer. Bully for the professions.

Yesterday morning, the rain and thaw threatened to relieve us of the splendid sleighing we have barely had an opportunity to enjoy, but last night it froze hard again, and the boon may be spared to us.

THE MARKET.—Yesterday the Market was very poorly attended, altho' the sleighing is excellent. What are the farmers about? Wood is awfully dear.

ARRIVAL OF PRISONERS.—A number of prisoners arrived to-day from the West. The wards of late have been so numerous that unless the Government erects another prison shortly, the Kingston Penitentiary will be too small for them.

LECTURE.—The St. Vincent de Paul Society have made arrangements for one of their winter lectures, which will be held in Ontario Hall on Wednesday evening, Jan. 26th. The lecturer is the Rev. J. F. Leonard, of Napanee, and the subject—"The Catholic Church and Civil Liberty," one to engage the audience at this eventful epoch in the Church, and to draw out the splendid talents of the Reverend Lecturer.

KINGSTON MUSICAL UNION REHEARSAL—There will be a full rehearsal of the Union this evening at half past seven o'clock, sharp, in St. George's Hall. All the ladies and gentlemen belonging to the Union are requested to attend. We hope the weather will be favorable so as to allow a large attendance. The Concert takes place so very shortly that it is important that all should attend this evening. We wish the K. M. Union all success.

AGAIN LET LOOSE.—Biddy Donnelly was discharged from the Penitentiary on Wednesday last. Miss Donnelly looks remarkably well, the grub in the prison seems to have agreed with her. Look out for your hall door fastenings.

THE EPIPHANY.—Yesterday was the Epiphany, a festival celebrated on the twelfth day after Christmas in commemoration of our Saviour's being manifested to the whole world, by the appearance of a miraculous star. The festival was observed in the Roman Catholic and Anglican Cathedrals. Divine Services were held in both of them yesterday, and were numerously attended.

THE SCHOOL-MASTER ABROAD.—There are bright people in Cobourg. The following notice, verbatim et literatim, is posted on a house in that old-fashioned town:—

THIS Hoes
Lots
is FOR Seail
i Am the fifth
Deed from
The Crown deed I
W. Buchanan.

INSURANCE ON THE CITY BUILDINGS.—This is the period of the year when the renewals of Policies become due. The risk of allowing a few scences to be hung up, is really nothing at all, and yet the Insurance Companies that the City patronizes, insist upon an extra premium. It never used to be the case. Now, would it not be as well to try other Companies that are not so scrupulous or mean.

DONATIONS.—The Steward of the Kingston Hospital thankfully acknowledges the receipt of the following donations:—Mr. Wm. J. Elliott, 1 carcass, 40 lbs. of mutton; W. R. McRae & Co., 1 box, 25 lbs. raisins.

KINGSTON AND MADOC RAILWAY.—There was a meeting of the Provisional Committee on Wednesday, and the conclusion came to was not to locate the Line of Road until after the Bonuses had been voted by the several Municipalities.

CONUNDRUM.—Why are there no mill privileges on the Mississippi? Answer. Dam it, they can't.

THE IRISH HUMORISTS.—The admirers of Irish Humor (and who is not one?) will be regaled to-night with some very excellent readings in Ontario Hall, by Mr. R. Dawson, a gentleman of learning and ability. We think we can safely commend the entertainment to our readers.

RE-OPENING.—The winter term of the Kingston County Grammar School opens on Monday, when pupils are requested to attend punctually.

FESTIVAL.—The St. Paul Sunday School at the Grand Trunk Railway Depot, a flourishing institution, holds its annual Festival this evening, when the children have arranged to entertain their visitors with an excellent programme. All friends of Sabbath Schools we should recommend to attend.

Police Court, Thursday.

There was nothing before the Court this morning.

The renowned Bob Elliot sought the station house last night for shelter from the inclemency of the weather, which was kindly granted him by the police.

JEWS IN PARLIAMENT.—It is said that Baron Rothschild has been eagerly pressing for an English Peerage. He has all the money he wants, but he wants titular honor in addition. Mr. Gladstone is represented to be willing to comply with his wishes, but Lord Derby objects to having a Jew forced into their select society. They are slow to banishing prejudice, but they will ultimately have to recede. From their exclusive position, as the House of Commons did some years ago, when they at length consented to allow Jews to be returned for the House of Commons.

Washington.

TRANS-ATLANTIC POSTAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Washington, Jan. 4

The arrangement of the Postmaster General provides for carrying the French mails by the Hamburg line to Cherbourg every Tuesday. The Bremen steamers carry the English mails via Southampton, and the German mails every Saturday.

The Liverpool and Great Western line, Williams and Guion, agents, take the mails to Queenstown every Saturday, and will soon add largely to their forces. Mails will be forwarded, as heretofore, by the Canadian lines from Portland in winter, and Quebec in summer, and the Bremen steamers from Baltimore will also carry special mails. According to these arrangements the foreign mail service will be as frequent, and nearly as expeditious, as heretofore.

A ROMANTIC HISTORY.—When the French besieged and took Rome, in 1849, there was a very good-looking sergeant-major of dragoons, named Jordanin, who commanded a picket near the Altemi Palace. The old Duchess of Gallese, who lived there, was childless, toothless and sympathetic. She saw the handsome Frenchman, and proposed a marriage. Jordanin, a sharp Norman peasant by birth, saw the advantage in prospective, jumped at the offer, and espoused the dowager, the Pope having just authorized him to assume the name and title of the Gallese, which would have otherwise become extinct. After ten years of wedded bliss the old duchess was gathered to her fathers, leaving everything she possessed to her husband who had always been attentive, kind and devoted to her. The Duke mourned the proper number of months, and then took another wife. Strange to say, he passed by all the swells, and choose one of the Mezzaroni, and so, by a singular chance, these two of whom neither possessed a drop of blue blood in their veins, find themselves at the very top of the social ladder, and owners of one of the finest estates in all Italy.

Aid to Cuban Insurgents.

New York, Jan. 5

The English brig Bedford has gone to sea under the American flag, with 50 Americans and 30 Cubans, and a cargo of 102 cases of guns, 900 cases of cartridges, 25 cases of ammunition, and 340 kegs of powder. She was chartered by the Junta, and her cargo put aboard at Nassau. She also took a large amount of supplies. She has also on deck two pivot guns, but as she is not a fighting vessel, they are more for ornament than use. She will immediately proceed to Cuba, and effect a landing on the coast at some place, and under the protection of a steamer that left last week after the Anna. This the Cubans have at sea three armed vessels.

"If he that hath ears to hear, let him hear!" Proclaim the glad tidings far and near! Let all the world rejoice, for the days of excruciating agony, the sleepless nights of woe will be no more! Pain will be but a phantom, a thing of the past, for Briggs' Allevantor will conquer pain, will speedily drive it from the system like chaff before the wind. No matter from what cause, no matter in what portion of the body, when Briggs' Allevantor is applied, pain must cease. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants generally. Dr. J. Briggs & Co., Proprietors. Offices 208 Broadway, New York, and No. 6 King St. West, Toronto, Canada.

SYMPTOMS OF CONSUMPTION.—The general symptoms of this disease are habitual cough, morbid expectoration, pains in the the breast, casual flush or feverish heat in the hands, feet, and cheeks, change of voice, thin hair, &c. This disease has been divided into three, four, and even five stages by medical writers; but, for practical purposes, three stages will be found best adapted to the course of the disease. To entirely cure this cough, and eradicate all the early symptoms of this fatal malady, Dr. J. Briggs' Renovator, the great Throat and Lung dealer, is thoroughly adequate and sure. It is not unpleasant to the palate, and its properties are all of a healing and purifying nature. After once having used it no person would hesitate to acknowledge its superior efficacy in staying the hand of that fell Destroyer, Consumption. Sold by Druggists and Country Dealers. Dr. J. Briggs & Co., Proprietors, 208 Broadway, N.Y., and No. 6 King St. West, Toronto.

Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Corns, Bunions, Nail Nails, &c., are positively cured by the use of Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative. This remedy has been compounded with great care, and, used as directed, never fails. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedy is acknowledged by all who have tried it (and their name is Legion) to be the best, most successful and efficacious Remedy ever used for that disease. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Consumptives, try Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. It will relieve and cure you. For all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, nothing can surpass its beneficial effects. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Catarrh, a disease which distresses us and disgusts our friends, can be instantly relieved and quickly cured by using Dr. J. Briggs' Allevantor, an invaluable Remedy for all pain and inflammation. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

R. R. R.

Ladies should always keep Radway's Ready Relief in their escritoires or toilet cases; it will be found of great value in all the varied complaints which ladies are more or less troubled with. Headache, Toothache, Wandering Pains, Dizziness, &c., are instantly relieved and cured by its use.

LADIES BEWARE!

Insanity, Fits, Heart Disease, Rush of Blood to the Head, Vomiting of Blood, Weakness, Bad Dreams, Lowness of Spirits, Languor, Loss of Appetite, Consumption, and rapid Decline, follow speedily Irregularities and Retentions. To guard against these evils, let the feet be soaked in warm water mixed with Ready Relief daily, for three or four days before the expected period. If affected with either of these symptoms, take the Renovating Resolvent, and at night two to six of Radway's Pills. A few days' use of these medicines will remove all obstructions, and restore the system to health and regularity.

Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, at 25 cents per bottle.
