THE TRAINS.—Notwithstanding the snow and frost the Grand Trunk Railway was yesterday in fair running condition, the trains being on time or nearly so.

THE ICE BRIDGE.—The late frost succeeding the heavy thaw has added a great thickness to the ice, and it is now as strong as it has ever been. Yesterday great timbers and other loads were crossing with perfect safety.

A NUISANCE.—Kingston never can become a real place of business until its chief inhabitants, the merchants and traders, keep their offices and shops open all day long. At present two of the very best business hours are lost. Between twelve and two o'clock, every man has gone to his dinner, and no one is found at home to do business. This is a positive nuisance and should be abated. Let business men learn to dine after business hours, and Kingston may then become a city, which, under present circumstances, never can be the case.

HANDSOME DONATION.—The Governors of the Kingston General Hospital offer grateful acknowledgements (as we are sure they ought) to Messrs. Calvin & Breck for a donation of $100, an annual gift to the Institution.

CATTLE.—Two more droves of cattle passed over to Cape Vincent yesterday morning, this being now an average daily exportation. In their last expeditions into the country the drovers carried bank notes and some silver along to make their purchases with. They found on presenting the latter that the good healthy coin has lost none of its favor in the eyes of the farmer, and despite Sir Francis' assertion, is no nuisance at all to them. No discount whatever was claimed on it.

COLD.—The Thermometer was very low down yesterday, and people began to consider that we were only beginning our winter, instead of looking forward with bright anticipation towards its not very distant disruption.

SOME TIMBER.—A stick of timber ninety-three feet in length and four feet in diameter, drawn by four horses, passed our Office yesterday afternoon, on its way to the shipyard of Messrs. Calvin and Breck, Garden Island. The big stick was got out by Mr. Henry Asselstine, of this city.

SILVER.—The "nuisance" is now at an unusual depreciation, and must soon be discarded altogether in business transactions, as being inconvenient and unprofitable. Therefore that our subscribers may make hay while the sun shines, might it not be well to hint to them the expediency of paying their accounts at once, and thereby saving the discount!

MILITARY FUNERAL.—Yesterday another soldier of the R.C. Rifles, Private Janeway, was carried to his long rest with military honors. The deceased has had twenty-one years service. He died at the Artillery Park Hospital on Saturday evening, and leaves a wife and four children unprovided for. At nine o'clock yesterday morning the funeral took place to St. George's Cathedral, and thence to Waterloo Cemetery. Almost the full regiment attended, with the Band, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and it did seem a great hardship that the men should be required to walk the distance of eight miles on such a fearful day, even though the infliction was tempered with the recollection of the respect due to a deceased comrade. The establishment of a mortuary chapel on Princess Street, near Williamsville, would obviate many a cruel tramp in summer as well as in winter. If the condition of the Riflemen yesterday did not appeal to the proper sources, then, of course, our advocacy will be of no service.

POLICE COURT, MONDAY.

Before the P. M.:

There was no business transacted before this court to-day, there being nothing for the magistrate to do. Orders were issued however, to the police to make a raid on the "vags" and a lively time may be expected.

PRINCE ARTHUR AND MISS SHERMAN.

GOOD FOR EVIL.

Miss Sherman's refusal to dance with Prince Arthur does not seem to have embittered that young gentleman's feelings towards her in the smallest degree. On the contrary, he has determined to show her that even Princes can be merciful. Instead of shouting "off her head," he takes a more moderate way of being revenged.—heaping coals of fire upon her head in the way of a costly present. The Philadelphia Press says:—"Just before leaving Boston, Prince Arthur sent to Miss Minnie Sherman, daughter of General Sherman, a chaste and costly gold medallion, having his likeness on one side and that of Queen Victoria on the other. Accompanying the gift was a delicately worded note, in which the Prince begged that Miss Sherman would accept the medallion as a token of his appreciation of the generous hospitalities he had experienced at the house of her father, and as a slight tribute to the beauty of American women, of which she was so striking an exponent."

RECIPROCAL POLICY.

The Leader's Ottawa Correspondent says:—

There is a strong party in favour of Dr. Tupper's demand for a reciprocity of tariffs with the United States, as there appears to be no likelihood of obtaining reciprocal free trade. It is believed that the government has also determined upon abolishing the licensing system in our waters, and has already taken the first step in the matter by providing an efficient marine police to ensure the exclusive use of our own fisheries. It is understood that the Imperial government has been advised of the proposed policy of the Dominion, and is prepared to afford any support which may be required. With regard to our inland waters, it is not unlikely that the government will propose certain modifications in the harbour and tonnage dues to meet the heavy imports on our shipping on the American side of the lakes. It is believed the question of imposing a duty on flour has not been determined, but that it is not improbable that the policy of the government will be shaped to ascertain the temper of the House upon the subject.
