LENT SERVICES.
1870.

A Series of SERMONS will (D.V.) be preached during Lent in the undermentioned Churches as follows:—

St. George's.—Wednesday, April 6th, at 7:30 P.M. The Lord Bishop.

St. Paul's.—Thursday, April 7th, at 7:30 P.M. Rev. A. J. O'Loughlin.

St. James'.—Friday, April 8th, at 7:30 P.M. The Rev. Mr. Mulock.

Kingston, Feb. 28th, 1870. 50

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 2, 1870.

Grain Trade.—The increased trade in grain between Chicago and Kingston, which made last season so profitable to forwarders, bids fair to find a rival, if not something greater, in the trade of the coming season. A gentleman just returned from Chicago, who is himself in the vessel line, and has opportunities for learning and judging correctly, holds out great encouragement to forwarders and vessel owners. There is now stored in Chicago and Milwaukee alone on Canadian account, and awaiting transport to the ocean via, Kingston and the River St. Lawrence, between one million and two millions bushels of grain. Vessel freights at the present time are looking up well for the owner's interests. Timber freights from the Lake Erie shore and River St. Clair are also very promising, and vessels will willingly embark in that trade. The result will be, doubtless, a competition between the two trades, which will not fail to act advantageously for the returns o the vessel owners.

Shortly after the opening of navigation there will be a rush to this port of grain vessels. Are the forwarders prepared to receive their cargoes promptly, and give them a discharge? Have they profited by the very numerous and vexatious delays of last season, and the recent judgments for demurrage in consequence in our courts, or has no provision been made for increased and adequate facilities for elevating and forwarding? We hope there has been, for not only the business of the several forwarders concerned, but a more important interest is at stake, the trade via St. Lawrence, on behalf of which there are just clamorings for Canal enlargements and river improvement. We should not, while denouncing the inaction and want of encouragement shown by the Government, neglect our own duty as individual helpers, and perhaps injure the cause we advocate more than ever.

Increasing.—The first day of February was nine hours and forty-eight minutes long. The last day of the month was eleven hours and twelve minutes, being a gain during the month of one hour and twelve minutes. In March the gain will be one hour and twenty-three minutes; in April one hour and twenty minutes; in May fifty-six minutes; from June 1st to June 22nd, when the maximum is reached, sixteen minutes.

Royal Canadian Rifles.—The officers of the garrison dined together at the mess room in the Tete du Pont barracks on Thursday evening, to mark by their intercourse the event of the extinction of the Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment. Commissioned officers to the number of thirty-six sat down to dinner. The Eand of the regiment played at intervals, and it was not until two o'clock in the morning that the party broke up. The soldiers are still wearing their uniforms and doing duty, and the present state of affairs will continue until orders are received directing the removal of the men; but the regiment is virtually defunct. It is significant of its demise to find that all regimental orders are now worded "Late Royal Canadian Rifles."

The Disbandment of the R. C. Rifles.—The British Whig was wrong as to the hour at which the disbandment of this gallant corps was to take place yesterday. Ten o'clock was the hour, and when the good people fond of military parade went at noon to see the show, they found it all over. A few rude boys cried "April Fool," but that was very wrong of them.

Inspection of the Gaol.—On Thursday Mr. Langmuir, the Inspector of the Prisons of Ontario, arrived here and visited the County Gaol in the course of his regular duty. He was highly pleased with the order and cleanliness everywhere apparent, and took occasion, as he has done before, to compliment Mr. Chas. Corbett, the gaoler, on the care and attention bestowed to attain this result. The following is the Inspector's report:

Kingston Gaol, 31st March, 1870.

Visited the gaol to-day; examined every cell and day-room in the prison, together with the beds and bedding; inspected the domestic departments—kitchen, wash-room, &c., as well as the several yards; found every department of the building in the best possible order, and the whole scrupulously clean and neat.

Of the 34 prisoners under confinement, which is a much greater gaol population than is usually found here, no less than 26 are committed as vagrants—13 males and 13 females—under the Vagrancy Act. No doubt this class of persons occupy the several cells of the gaol legally, but it is very clear that prisons, with all their costly construction and surroundings, were not built for this class, or, at any rate, only for a very small per centage of such commitments; a work-house, or industrial farm, is the place for three-fourths of them.

The female, Catherine Jacques, will be recommended for removal to Rockwood Asylum.

The male prisoners were occupied in cutting wood, cleaning the yard, and pumping water. The females were quite idle at the time of my visit,—the only employment furnished to this class is cleaning up their department of the gaol, and washing.

Under the present arrangement, both the soft and hard water is pumped into one cistern. I would recommend that another cistern be placed in the same room, so as to keep the soft separate from the hard water.

The undersigned has brought under the notice of the County Council the necessity of providing gaol clothing so often, and, up to the present time, without effect. He will now have to report the neglect for the action of the Government. Examined the Punishment Book, and the Gaol Surgeon's Visiting book, both of which are properly kept.

J. N. Langmuir,
Inspector.

The County of Frontenac.—The Writ for this County has been issued, and is probably in the hands of the Sheriff, the Returning Officer. No one is spoken of in the Conservative Ranks but Mr. George A. Kirkpatrick, one of the sons of the late deceased member. The Grits will not, we are assured, offer any opposition at this juncture, preferring to fight the battle at the next General Elections in 18 months' time. We do not think that any Conservative will have the temerity to offer any opposition to Mr. George A. Kirkpatrick's election by acclamation, for it would only prove a piece of gratuitous impertinence, since no man but him can be returned. At least so say the Conservatives of Frontenac.

BRIEF MENTION.

April fooled,
More charming weather.

The Rifles not yet disbanded.

Sir John Young has donated fifty pounds sterling to the object of Father Gilooley's mission.

The 1st of May (moving day) falls on Sunday.

Mr. James O'Rielly, Q. C., returned to town yesterday.

The flag of old Albion still floats from Fort Henry despite the News' awful forboding.

Horses and sleighs are still crossing to Wolfe Island. The American channel must soon open.

The snow disappeared on the rush again yesterday. Waggons are coming out, and the sidewalks are approaching a somewhat respectable condition.

Belleville police arrest loafers on street corners. Sensible town.

The Ottawa Citizen people felt an earthquake on the Capitol Hill on Monday last, and recovered sufficiently by Thursday to chronicle the fact.

A new journal is about to appear in Quebec in the Irish interest.

The Protectionists of Montreal intend organizing and systematically spreading opinions in country parts.

The Montreal Daily News advocates the settling of Red River with discharged Royal Canadian Riflemen.

The Directors of Penitentiaries will make another inspection of the Kingston Penitentiary next week. One of the Inspectors is in town, and his two colleagues are expected on Monday.

The fashions for the Spring open with little charge. Wasp-like waists are going out, but the panier still remains. Large feet will still be in style.

Major-General Lindsay is to have the local rank of Lieutenant-General "while employed on a particular service in the Dominion of Canada."

The Addington Beaver does not pass over any local items. It says:—"A cow belonging to Mr. George Madden, of that place died on Wednesday last," but does not give her age or publish an obituary.

Lord A. P. Cecil and Mr. Dunlop are turning souls in Dundas, Ontario. The rumored visit to Kingston is indefinitely postponed. There are fields for "labors abundant" outside of Kingston.

The printing office of the R. C. Rifles has been purchased for the Penitentiary. It will make a very nice play house, no doubt. But as printers are a very moral set, is there a convict in the Institution capable of working it? We trow not.

The trustees for the Adelaide Street Wesleyan Chapel, Toronto, have sold the building and ground to the Trust and Loan Company of Kingston for $15,000 cash. It will be pulled down and a handsome building for offices erected by the Company.

Mr. Thomas Scott, reported to be the victim of Riel's cruelty and ambition, is a native of the north of Ireland, and came to Canada about six years ago. He worked for some time as a gold miner in the Madoc region, and went to Red River last season, intending to prospect.

The clerks of a dry goods store in Napanee have been giving away goods to the value of $400 to a couple of ladies (?) who called at irregular hours at the store. They were arrested, the clerks and girls both, but all discharged by the P. M., after a full investigation, because the prosecutor withdrew the charge. We have not heard of any second discharge, but it is expected.

POLICE COURT,—Wednesday afternoon.

Before the P. M.

Mary Burk and Sarah North rendered themselves amenable to the Vagrant Act, and were transported (not with joy) for 14 and 30 days respectively, to the Hill. A case of evading toll at the Cataraqui Bridge was compromised, defendants agreeing to pay costs.

Thursday Morning.—A colored man named Butler, who keeps a disreputable house in Little's Lane, a classic locality, was fined $5, on conviction thereof, with 30 days in gaol as an alternative. The alternated. Emma Rudkins, Eliza Mills and Alice Slater, to whose character the term incorrigible would scarcely do justice, were charged with being boarders at Butler's, and with vagrancy, and were committed for 60 days to a more respectable abode. Two assault cases, brought by two soldiers of the garrison, were entered into, and the defendant, the same in both cases, fined $8 and costs in the one, and $2 and costs in the other. The defendant sought to appeal against the conviction, but obtained a little practical knowledge of the new law, which we may state allows of no appeals from summary convictions, when the penalty does not exceed $10. Mrs. McLellan, alias Tracey, of Place d'Armes, was summoned by Inspector Mostyn for selling liquor without a license. The case was adjourned until Friday.

Friday Morning.—Mrs. McLellan did not appear, and the witnesses as well. So the case was again adjourned. The only prisoner before the Court was Jas. Sidney, who had been guilty of a common crime for which a fine of $2 is usually imposed, as was in this case.

The Montana Massacre.—Colonel Baker writes from Montana that the reports concerning the Piegan massacre are maliciously false. The number killed, he says, was 173, of whom 120 were able-bodied men, and 53 women and children. 140 women and children were captured and released, and the Colonel believes that those who perished were killed accidentally. He invites the fullest investigation. This latter part is all very well, but the fact that only one or two of the attacking party were injured, shows that there was very little of a fight, and that the women and children must have been intentionally put to death by the troopers who charged the encampment, and whose slaughtering operations lasted three hours.

Money, Money.

THE Subscriber requests that all parties indebted to him either by Note or Book Account, especially those who have not paid the Accounts rendered 1st of January last, to make immediate payments, and save further trouble and expense.

Also those indebted to the HALL MACHINE WORKS, of Oshawa, are requested to make immediate payments of their Notes, as he has been instructed to have them returned to Oshawa, that they may be placed in suit at once if not paid.

AS the Subscriber wishes to clear out his Wood Yard, to make room for Agricultural Implements, Mowers, Reapers, &c., &c., he will sell out the Hard and Soft Wood reasonable.

Though lost to Mononia, and cold in his grave,

Oh, bother, I'll give the Harp of Tara,
The Hams that hang along our halls,
Are Sugar Cured, we bet;
They lay so mute upon our walls,
No sound, no grunt, they're dead.
Here hangs the pride of farmer days,
And of Frontenac all o'er;
And though hogs that once jumped high for peas,
They feel themselves no more.

Chorus.—Tother side of Jordan.

Then vote for Independence and Annexation too,
But no surrender if the Yankees should dare us;
Down with your plumpers, landowners do
Vote for the Madoc Railway.
