WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 10, 1870

CONFIDENCE.—Nothing more has been heard of the race between the racers Gorilla and Ida, and it is whispered that the match is off. Which was afraid, and which dare not?

RE-OPENED.—The classes at the Kingston County Grammar School was re-opened yesterday with a large attendance, considering the season.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday a carriage horse started on a trot down Brock Street. The driver, a boy, dropped the reins, and let himself out at the back of the buggy. The animal having it all his own way, ran into the Market Square, and brought up against the Market Building. The carriage was injured but very little, and the horse escaped altogether, though he was thrown down on the pavement.

SULTRY.—The last two days have been as hot as—we'll say a quantity of anything you like. Those who feel it as we do in writing this can find one readily in their own vocabularies. Why, the sight of an ice cart, and a glass of Parker's soda water are about the only cool things going, if we except the ardor of the French sympathisers in town. In the words of the unknown but suffering poet, we exclaim—

Oh for a lodge in a garden of cucumbers!
Oh for an iceberg or toy at centre!
Oh for a vale which at midday the dew cumbers!
Oh for a pleasure trip up to the Pole!
Oh that this cold world were twenty times colder!
[That's Iony red hot, it seemeth to me]
Oh for a turn of its dreaded cold shoulder!
Oh what a comfort an ague would be!

THE CABINET.—Sir G. E. Cartier will return to Ottawa to-morrow, when a Cabinet Council will be held, at which all members will be present except Sir John A. Macdonald and Mr. Tilley. The latter will return on Saturday.

ARRIVED OUT.—A telegram from Londonderry reports the arrival of the S. S. Austrian from Quebec.

Mr. Doyle, the well known clerk at the American House, Boston, is one of the great favorites with the travelling public. His well known face, at the office is only an intimation of the through comfort and uniform courtesy which meets the guest throughout. 136

ST. ANDREW'S GATHERING.—To-day the St. Andrew's Society of Kingston hold their Annual Gathering at the Crystal Palace Grounds, and in addition to the usual attractions of pleasure and sport, have secured the presence of Donald Dinnie, the Champion Scottish Athlete. In the notices we have already given, and in the reports communicated of his successful competition recently on this continent, the public have been well informed of the champion's feats of strength and prowess. They only lack an opportunity to gratify their anxious desire to see him and judge for themselves of his great power, and that opportunity will be afforded to-day. Even if successful competition is out of question, we would very much like to see our own athletes in competition with this great champion, and the list of sports and prizes, in another column, is therefore recommended to notice. There will be attractions for those who do not admire field sports, and therefore we may expect a great gathering, and unlimited pleasure for all. Cars will take people to the ground and return for 12½c. fare each way.

At the Caledonian Gathering in Toronto on Monday, Donald Dinnie took the following prizes:—

Running high leap, 2nd; standing high leap, 2nd; putting heavy stone, 1st; putting light stone, 1st; foot race, 100 yards, 3rd; tossing caber, 1st; extra prize, throwing heavy hammer, 1st.

DONALD DINNIE.

Donald Dinnie's comin' here,
Donald Dinnie's comin' here;
Spread the news baith far and near,
That Donald Dinnie's comin' here.

Donald's no like "Heather Jock,"
He has come o' decent folk;
In his kilt's he looks sae braw,
He'll be a credit to us a':
Donald, though he's big and stout,
He's nae awkward, ill-faur'd lout:
In manners he is frank and free,
A brawny, bold athlete is he.

Donald he's a clever chiel,
Can toss the caber like the deil;
At throwin' o' the muckle stane
He bears the gree whaure'er he's gane:
In ilka thing he tak's an han',
He surpasses ony-man—
A perfect "Crichton" in his ways,
In a' he does an' a' he says.

Ye wha' loe the land o' cakes,
Welcome Donald for its sake;
Show him by your presence here,
That you prize the Thistle dear;
When ye hear the piper blaw,
Gather round him ane an' a';
Wi' a hearty, rousing cheer,
Welcome Donald Dinnie here.

Donald Dinnie's comin' here,
Donald Dinnie's comin' here;
Tell the news baith far and near,
Donald Dinnie's comin' here.

LOCAL BRIEFS.—The new office of the Dominion Telegraph Company is being fitted up.

Mr. Henry Brame, Cabinet Maker, was severely injured on Monday by being thrown from his waggon. His horse ran away.

A schooner in tow of the tug Lady Franklin "went into" the schr. Adirondac, anchored in the harbor, yesterday. Damages light.

Ottawa has had it as hot as 106° in the shade. We congratulate ourselves that we are not worse off.

The Funeral of the Late Dr. Haight with masonic ceremony, did not take place yesterday, the body of the deceased not having arrived.

LACROSSE.—This afternoon the Gananoque Lacrosse Club will arrive here to play a friendly return match with the Shamrock Club of this city. The ball will be faced for on Barriefield Common at half past one o'clock. When the Shamrocks visited Gananoque they were well received and had a fair field; we bespeak the same for the Gananoque Club to-day, and will be generous enough, besides, to wish for better luck for them here than attended them on their own ground.

ALL COMERS FOOT MATCH.—The all comers foot match came off on the Grand Trunk range on Tuesday. Quite a large number of Volunteers competed. The following are the winners of prizes:—1st prize, silver plated egg stand, Lieut. Rollier; 2nd prize, $3, Sergeant J. Bailie; 3rd prize, $2, Private Martin; Sergeant 4th prize, $1, Ensign Byrne, all of the 47th Battalion. For the credit of Finsbury, it may be said that the winners are all members of No. 5 Co., 47th Battalion, and J. K. Macaulay. Owing to an accident which occurred on the Grand Trunk track, the men of that company were prevented from taking part in the match, but we learn that one of a similar character will take place shortly, in which they will be allowed to participate.

POLICE COURT, TUESDAY.

Before the P. M.

There was not much business to transact in the Court this morning. There were only two names on the docket.

John Waggoner, a painter and hailing from the village of Napanee, was charged with drunkenness. The prisoner said he was not accustomed to drink such strong stuff as may have in Kingston, the whiskey, like everything else they have in Napanee, being of an inferior quality. John was allowed to go this time.

Emma Finch, a gay and festive jimson-cute, was arrested last night on Queen st., by Policeman Bennett. This lassie parades the streets at all hours of the night, seeking whom she may devour. She was nicely boned, however, last night and given quarters at the Station House for which she paid $3.

ABUSIVE LANGUAGE.

There has been a great many cases of this character in the Court of late. This morning Mrs. Jane Trainor was charged with publicly abusing Mrs. Jane Clarke, the wife of a labouring man, and calling her improper names. She was fined $2 and costs.

THE ASSAULT CASE.

The Cataraqui Bridge assault case did not come up for a hearing this morning as was anticipated. Why not?

CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

Charles J. Fox was yesterday charged before John Creighton, Esq., Police Magistrate, on the complaint of Jas. Wooley, with having fraudulently embezzled, on or about the 5th of May last, a certain promissory note for $200, made by Messrs. Gurney & Glidden; a certain other promissory note for $75 and $25 in money, received by Fox from Gurney & Glidden for Wooley.

It appeared in evidence that Fox and Wooley were jointly interested in a certain soapstone quarry, and also in a saw mill in Leeds and Grenville. In May last Wooley engaged Fox to dispose of his interest in the property for the best price he could get over $200. The sale was to be as soon as possible as Wooley was in want of funds. Fox sold the property to Gurney & Glidden for $300, but neglected, as it is alleged, to pay over to Wooley the amount of his share. Hinc illae lacrymae.

Mr. Wooley and Mr. A. S. Gurney were the only witnesses examined for the prosecution, and after hearing their evidence the Magistrate decided to commit the defendant for trial. Bail, however, was accepted. Mr. C. V. Price appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. McIntyre for the defendant.

The use of FELLOW'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES, will enable the mind to sustain a greater strain unfettered by conflicted thoughts and unwearied by continued study. It imparts power of concentration. What before seemed difficult of solution becomes comparatively easy, and the body is physically stronger under its use.

Price $1·50 a bottle; 6 for $7·50. Sold by apothecaries and by Fergusson Bill & Co., wholesale agents, Montreal. 186

The elan which is supposed to pervade the French ranks whenever an enemy is in sight, must surely die out when the troops are on the march. Regimental trains for transporting baggage, &c., are hardly to be found in the service, the private soldier being burdened with a load heavy enough for a sumpter mule. He carries his Chassepot, seven and a half pounds weight; sword, bayonet and scabbard, three pounds; ten pounds of ammunition, distributed partly in two pouches and partly in his knapsack; a pair of extra shoes; a four pound loaf; a canvas bag slung over the left shoulder, and containing any creature comforts the man may procure, such as tobacco and brandy. Over his knapsack there is a great coat, a blanket, his share of the canvas for the tente d'abri, and sticks for the same, and a huge camp kettle. The knapsack contains an extra pair of trousers, brushes, needles, thread, buttons, a pair of gloves, three shirts, and a water flask. How a man can carry such a load as this can dash into the cannon's mouth with anything approaching to elan is Napoleonic mystery.
